Gesser in Support of Debtors’ Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings* [Docket No. 7] (the “First Day Declaration”), is incorporated by reference herein. In further support of this Sale Motion, the Debtors respectfully state as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

2. The Debtors have commenced the Chapter 11 Cases in order to pursue the sale of substantially all of their assets pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code to maximize the value of their estates and recoveries to their stakeholders. The Debtors are a global biopharmaceutical company focused on developing therapies that restore function and improve the lives of people with neurological disorders. The Debtors develop breakthrough products and biotechnology and market life-changing treatments to combat debilitating neurological disorders. Specifically, Debtors market INBRIJA®, AMPYRA®, and FAMPYRA®. INBRIJA® is marketed in both the United States and Europe, AMPYRA® is marketed in the United States, and FAMPYRA® is marketed in Europe.

3. As described more fully in the Webster Declaration, the Debtors, in consultation with their advisors, explored various strategic alternatives and ultimately determined that a sale of substantially all of their assets would be the best way to maximize value for the benefit of their stakeholders. Following an exhaustive ten-month prepetition marketing process involving many interested purchasers engaged in multiple rounds of competitive bidding, the Debtors concluded that the Sale of the Acquired Assets to the Stalking Horse Bidder, subject to the opportunity to opportunity to obtain higher or otherwise better offers for the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Bidding Procedures, represents the best option available to the Debtors.

4. The Stalking Horse Bidder proposes to purchase the Acquired Assets for an aggregate purchase price of $185 million (the “Purchase Price”), plus the assumption of certain liabilities, on the terms and conditions set forth in the Stalking Horse Agreement (the “Stalking Horse Bid”). To ensure that the Stalking Horse Bid is in fact the highest or otherwise best offer for the purchase of the Acquired Assets, the Debtors propose to conduct a competitive marketing and sale process governed by Bidding Procedures. Among other things, the Bidding Procedures provide for a 45-day period from the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases to May 16, 2024 for the Debtors to return to the market and solicit interest for higher or otherwise better bids for Acquired Assets.

5. The Debtors believe that the Sale of the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Bidding Procedures is the optimal path for maximizing the value of their estates and recoveries for their creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases. Given the extensive prepetition marketing process described in the Webster Declaration and readily available diligence materials, marketing and soliciting for higher or otherwise better bids during these Chapter 11 Cases in accordance with the timing provided for in the Bidding Procedures should not prejudice interested parties. Rather, such interested parties would likely prefer the Sale to close as soon as possible so that they have the best opportunity to maximize the potential return on the Acquired Assets. The Debtors have therefore proposed the following timeline for their sale process, which is described in greater detail in this Sale Motion:

On or before April 26, 2024	Occurrence of hearing to approve Bidding Procedures (the “ Bidding Procedures Hearing ”)

May 16, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time)	Deadline for the submission of potentially Qualified Bids (as defined in the Bidding Procedures) (the “ Bid Deadline ”)
No later than twenty-four (24) hours before the Auction	Deadline to notify each bidder whether its bid is a Qualified Bid
May 22, 2024, 2024, at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time)	Auction to be held at offices of Baker McKenzie (if necessary)
If no Auction, no later than May 24, 2024; otherwise, May 31, 2024	Proposed date of the Sale Hearing to consider approval of Sale and entry of Sale Order

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

6. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, dated January 31, 2012 (Preska, C.J.).

7. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2) and, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7008, the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Sale Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

8. Venue of the instant case and any related proceedings is proper in this district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

BACKGROUND

9. On April 1, 2024 (the “Petition Date”), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions in this Court commencing the Chapter 11 Cases for relief under title 11 of Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors continue to operate their business and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No creditors' committee has been appointed by the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee"), nor has a trustee or examiner been appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases.

10. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b) and Local Rule 1015-1.

11. Additional factual background and information regarding the Debtors, including their business operations, their corporate and capital structure, and the events leading up to the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, are set forth in detail in the First Day Declaration.

PREPETITION MARKETING AND SALE PROCESS

12. Since May 2023, the Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, have conducted a comprehensive process to market the opportunity for third parties to engage in a strategic transaction with the Debtors. After considering potential strategic alternatives and interest in the marketplace, the Debtors, in consultation with their advisors, determined that a sale of substantially all of the Debtors' assets would be the best path forward to maximize value for the benefit of their stakeholders.

13. As set forth in the Webster Declaration, the Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, contacted and/or received inbound interest from over 49 entities, including 45 potential strategic partners and 4 potential financial buyers. Based on discussions with those entities, approximately 30 of these parties were provided with confidential information regarding the Debtors' business. Several of such parties expressed interest in consummating a transaction with the Company and were granted access to additional confidential information regarding the Acquired Assets. The foregoing described process reached a wide set of diverse parties who might be interested in investing in the Debtors' business or purchasing the Debtors' assets. Throughout this process, the Debtors made clear to all potentially interested parties that they were receptive to any value-maximizing strategic transaction, whether in the form of a sale, restructuring, financing or otherwise, either in or out of court.

14. Over the following weeks, the Debtors' advisors provided diligence and guidance and conducted a competitive process, working with and guiding interested parties to enhance their proposals as much as possible, with respect to overall value and other business and legal terms. Ultimately, the Debtors' board of directors concluded that the overall value offered by the Stalking Horse Bidder represented the best option available to the Debtors.

15. Based on the extensive and competitive prepetition marketing process and the ability for other prospective bidders to participate in the Auction, the Debtors believe that the sale process will allow them to maximize value of their estates for the benefit of their stakeholders.

NEED FOR A TIMELY SALE PROCESS

16. Immediately following the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, will continue to market the Acquired Assets to potential buyers, including, without limitation, those potential buyers previously approached and/or who expressed interest earlier in the sale process. By taking immediate, proactive steps to return to market, the Debtors will maximize the number of potential acquirors that may qualify for and participate in the Action.

17. The Debtors believe that the auction process and time periods set forth in the Bidding Procedures will provide parties with sufficient time and information for potential buyers to formulate competing bids to purchase the Acquired Assets. In formulating the Bidding Procedures and time periods contained therein, the Debtors balanced the need to provide adequate and appropriate notice to parties in interest and to potential purchasers with the need to efficiently sell the Acquired Assets. As set forth above, the opportunity for third parties to engage in a strategic transaction with the Debtors has been extensively marketed since May 2023 to 49 strategic and financial buyers, and substantial information regarding the Debtors' business has been made available to many of these parties during the sale process to date. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that most, if not all, of the parties that may have an interest in bidding at the Auction are already familiar with the Debtors' business and assets for the purposes of formulating their bids.

18. The Debtors believe that speed is critical in order to minimize the costs associated with administering the Chapter 11 Cases and that the robust pre-petition marketing process will allow the Debtors to conduct a value-maximizing post-petition process on an expeditious timeframe. Completion of the sale process in a timely manner will therefore maximize the value of the Acquired Assets. Thus, the Debtors have determined that pursuing the Sale in the manner and within the time periods set forth in the Bidding Procedures is in the best interest of the Debtors' estates and in both cases will provide interested parties with sufficient opportunity to participate.

THE STALKING HORSE AGREEMENT

19. The Stalking Horse Agreement represents a binding bid to purchase the Acquired Assets and sets the floor for any Auction for the Acquired Assets. The Debtors request authority to provide the Stalking Horse Bidder with stalking horse protections upon the termination of the Stalking Horse Agreement pursuant to certain termination events in the form of a reimbursement of up to 1.5% of the Purchase Price for reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred by the Stalking Horse Bidder in connection with the negotiation and execution of, and the carrying out of its obligations under, the Stalking Horse Agreement (the "Expense Reimbursement Amount") and a breakup fee in an amount equal to 3.5% of the Purchase Price (the "Breakup Fee" and together with the Expense Reimbursement Amount, the "Bidding Protections").

Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court find that the Noticing Procedures are adequate and appropriate under the circumstances and comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and Local Rule 2002-1.

C. Assumption and Assignment Procedures

25. In connection with the Sale, the Debtors anticipate that they will assume and assign to the Successful Bidder (or its designated assignee) all or certain of the Assigned Contracts pursuant to section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors hereby seek approval of the proposed Assumption and Assignment Procedures set forth herein, which, among other things, (a) outline the process by which the Debtors will provide service of the proposed assumption and assignment, related Cure Costs, if any, and information regarding the Successful Bidder's adequate assurance of future performance, and (b) establish objection and other relevant deadlines and the manner for resolving disputes relating to assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts. The proposed Assumption and Assignment Procedures are as follows:

The inclusion of any executory contract on the Contract Assumption Notice shall not constitute an admission that a particular contract is an executory contract or require or guarantee that such contract will be an Assigned Contract.

- b. Supplemental Assumption Notice. On or before one (1) business day after the selection of a Successful Bid or a Backup Bid, if any, the Debtors shall file with this Court and serve a Supplemental Assumption Notice via overnight delivery, on any Counterparty to the Debtors' universe of executory contracts that may be designated as an Assigned Contract that the relevant Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder desires to assume as part of its Successful Bid that was not already listed on the Contract Assumption Notice. This notice shall include: (a) notice that such Counterparty's contract may be subject to assumption and assignment in the Sale and thus designated as an Assigned Contract as part of the relevant Successful Bid; (b) the Cure Cost if any, in the event such Assigned Contract is assumed and assigned by the Debtors; and (c) the Adequate Assurance Information of the relevant Successful Bidder and Backup Bidder.

- c. Contract Objections. If a Counterparty objects to (a) the proposed assumption and assignment of its Assigned Contract set forth in the Contract Assumption Notice (including, without limitation, on the basis (i) that the Stalking Horse Bidder cannot provide adequate assurance of future performance; or (ii) that Counterparty consent is allegedly required for the assumption, assignment, and transfer of the Assigned Contract), or (b) the Cure Cost set forth in the Contract Assumption Notice, the Counterparty must file an initial contract objection (an "Initial Contract Objection").

If a Counterparty objects to (a) the proposed assumption and assignment of its Assigned Contract set forth in the Supplemental Assumption Notice (including, without limitation, on the basis (i) that the Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder cannot provide adequate assurance of future performance under the Assigned Contract in accordance with Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code; or (ii) that Counterparty consent is allegedly required for the assumption, assignment, and transfer of the Assigned Contract), or (b) the Cure Cost set forth in the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or (c) on the basis Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder identified on the Notice of Successful Bidder cannot provide adequate assurance of future performance under the Assigned Contract in accordance with Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Counterparty must file an additional contract objection on or before two (2) business days prior to the Sale Hearing (such objection an "Additional Contract Objection" and together with an Initial Contract Objection, each a "Contract Objection").

- d. Resolution of Contract Objections. The Debtors, the Stalking Horse

Bidder or relevant Successful Bidder, and the objecting Counterparty shall first confer in a good faith attempt to resolve the Contract Objection without Court intervention. If the parties are unable to consensually resolve the Contract Objection, the Debtors may request an emergency hearing for the Court to resolve the Contract Objection.

A Contract Objection may be resolved after the Closing Date of the Sale, subject to the terms of the Proposed APA approved in connection with the Sale.

- e. Failure to Timely Object. If no Contract Objection is timely received with respect to an Assigned Contract: (a) the Counterparty to such Assigned Contract shall be deemed to have consented to the assumption by the Debtors and assignment or transfer (including the transfer of any related rights and benefits thereunder) of the Assigned Contract to the Successful Bidder, and be forever barred and estopped from asserting or claiming against the Debtors or the Successful Bidder, that any additional defaults exist or that conditions to assumption, assignment, and transfer must be satisfied under the Assigned Contract (including, without limitation, with respect to adequate assurance of future performance by the Successful Bidder), or that any related right or benefit under such contract cannot and will not be available to the Successful Bidder; (b) any and all defaults under the Assigned Contract and any and all pecuniary losses related thereto shall be deemed cured and compensated pursuant to Sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) of the Bankruptcy Code upon payment of the applicable Cure Cost; and (c) the Cure Cost for such Assigned Contract shall be controlling, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in such Assigned Contract, or any other related document, and the Counterparty shall be deemed to have consented to the Cure Cost and shall be forever barred from asserting any other claims related to such Assigned Contract against the Debtors and their estates or the Successful Bidder, or the property of any of them, that existed prior to the entry of the Sale Order.
- f. Reservation of Rights. In the event a Contract Objection is resolved in a manner unfavorably to the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or the Successful Bidder, then the Debtors may withdraw (or the Stalking Horse Bidder or the Successful Bidder, as applicable, may cause the Debtors to withdraw), their request to assume and assign such Assigned Contract.

APPROVAL OF THE RELIEF REQUESTED IS WARRANTED AND IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE DEBTORS AND THEIR ESTATES

A. The Bidding Procedures are Fair, Appropriate, and Should Be Approved

27. The Bidding Procedures are specifically designed to promote what courts have deemed to be the paramount goal of any proposed sale of property of a debtor's estate: maximizing the value of sale proceeds received by the estate. See Official Comm. of Subordinated Bondholders v. Integrated Res. Inc. (In re Integrated Res. Inc.), 147 B.R. 650, 659 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) ("It is a well-established principle of bankruptcy law that the objective of bankruptcy rules and the [Debtor's] duty with respect to such sales is to obtain the highest price or greatest overall benefit possible for the estate") (quoting In re Atlanta Packaging Products, Inc., 99 B.R. 124, 130 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1988)). As this Court established in the Sale Guidelines “[g]enerally, the Court will entertain a motion for approval . . . of proposed bidding procedures if such procedures are, as a matter of reasonable business judgment, likely to maximize the sale price.” See also In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. at 659 (observing that sale procedures “encourage bidding and . . . maximize the value of the debtor’s assets”); In re Fin. News Network, Inc., 980 F.2d 165, 166 (2d Cir. 1992) (noting that a bankruptcy court must provide “for an orderly bidding Process” because “absent such a fixed and fair process bidders may decline to participate in the auction”).

28. The Bidding Procedures provide for an orderly, uniform and appropriately competitive process through which interested parties may submit offers to purchase the Acquired Assets. The Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, have structured the Bidding Procedures to promote active bidding by interested parties and to obtain the highest or otherwise best offer reasonably available for the Acquired Assets. Additionally, the Bidding Procedures will allow the Debtors to conduct the Auction in a fair, open, and transparent manner that will encourage participation by financially capable bidders with demonstrated ability to consummate a timely Sale. Courts in this district have approved procedures similar to the proposed Bidding Procedures in connection with chapter 11 asset sales. See, e.g., See, e.g., In re Pareteum Corp., No. 22-10615 (LGB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 31, 2022) [Docket No. 76]; In re Greensill Capital Inc., No. 21-10561 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Apr. 6, 2021) [Docket No. 37]; In re Garrett Motion, Inc., No. 20-12212 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 7, 2018) [Docket No. 223]. Accordingly, the Bidding Procedures should be approved because, under the circumstances, they are reasonable, appropriate, and in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates. See Webster Decl. ¶ 20.

B. The Bidding Protections Have Sound Business Purposes and Should Be Approved

29. The Stalking Horse Agreement provides for, upon the occurrence of certain termination events, the payment to the Stalking Horse Bidder of a Breakup Fee in the amount of 3.5% of the Purchase Price and the Expense Reimbursement in an amount not to exceed 1.5% of the Purchase Price. The Stalking Horse Bidder would not enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement without the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee and, therefore, a sound business justification exists for agreeing to the Bidding Protections in exchange for the Stalking Horse Bid. The Stalking Horse Bid sets a floor for the value of the Acquired Assets and attracts other potential buyers to bid for such assets, thereby maximizing the realizable value of the Acquired Assets for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates.

30. Approval of the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee is governed by standards for determining the appropriateness of bid protections in the bankruptcy context. The appropriateness of such purchaser protections is determined under a business judgment standard. Official Comm. of Subordinated Bondholders v. Integrated Res. Inc. (In re Integrated Res. Inc.), 147 B.R. 650, 656– 57 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (noting that bid protections, including break-up fee arrangements that have been negotiated by a debtor, are to be reviewed according to the “business judgment” standard, under which such procedures and arrangements are “presumptively valid”). Under this standard, a debtor’s decision to provide for a termination fee is proper so long as the following conditions are satisfied: (a) the relationship of the parties who negotiated a termination fee is not tainted by self-dealing or manipulation; (b) the fee does not hamper bidding, and (c) the amount of the fee is not unreasonable relative to the proposed purchase price. In re Genco Shipping & Trading Ltd., 509 B.R. 455, 465 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014).

31. Here, the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee satisfy the Genco factors. First, as demonstrated by the Webster Declaration, the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee are the product of good faith, arm’s length negotiations between the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder. See Webster Decl. ¶ 14-15. Further, the Stalking Horse Agreement provisions relating to the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee (along with other provisions of the Stalking Horse Agreement) were (a) scrutinized by the Debtors’ professionals, (b) reviewed with outside advisors, including the advisors of the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group, through the marketing process, and (c) approved by the Debtors’ board of directors. See Webster Decl. ¶ 17.

32. Second, the Debtors believe, based on their business judgment, that the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement will allow them to maximize the realizable value of the Acquired Assets without chilling bidding. The Bid Protections were a material inducement for, and a condition of, the Stalking Horse Bidder’s agreement to enter into the Stalking Horse Agreement. Indeed, the Debtors believe that their ability to offer the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee to the Stalking Horse Bidder is necessary to help ensure an adequate floor for the value of the Acquired Assets and to insist that competing bids be materially higher or otherwise better than the Stalking Horse Bid, thereby providing the upside opportunity that the Debtors could potentially realize a higher or otherwise better offer at any auction for the Acquired Assets which, absent such a bid floor, might otherwise never have been realized—a clear benefit to the Debtors’ estates. See In re 310 Assocs., 346 F.3d 31, 34 (2d Cir. 2003) (citation omitted) (“Break-up fees are sometimes authorized in the bankruptcy auction sale context because they provide an incentive for an initial bidder to serve as a so-called ‘stalking horse,’ whose initial research, due diligence, and subsequent bid may encourage later bidders.”); see also In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. at 662 (Declaring three proper functions for break-up fees: “(1) to attract or retain a potentially successful bid, (2) to establish a bid standard or minimum for other bidders to follow, or (3) to attract additional bidders.”). Without the Court authorizing the Debtors to offer the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee, the Debtors might lose the opportunity to obtain the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets and would certainly lose the downside protection that could be afforded by the existence of the Stalking Horse Bidder. Furthermore, without the benefit of the Stalking Horse Bidder, the bids received at the Auction for the Acquired Assets could be substantially lower than the one offered by the Stalking Horse Bidder.

33. Third, and finally, the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement are reasonable and appropriate in light of the size, nature, and complexity of the transaction and the efforts that will necessarily have been expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder. See Webster Decl. ¶ 16. As set forth in the Webster Declaration, the Break-Up Fee represents only 3.5% of the Purchase Price to be paid by the Stalking Horse Bidder. See id ¶ 15. Additionally, both the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement were negotiated in good faith, and both were necessary to secure the Stalking Horse Bidder’s commitment under the Stalking Horse Agreement. In sum, the Debtors’ ability to offer the Bid Protections enables them to ensure the sale of the Acquired Assets at a price they believe to be fair, while, at the same time, providing the Debtors with the potential of achieving an even greater benefit to the Debtors' estates in the form of a higher or otherwise better offer for the Acquired Assets.

34. Courts in this District have approved protections similar to the proposed Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement as reasonable, and consistent with the type and range of bidding protections typically approved, and also have granted administrative expense status to break-up fees that become due under the terms of a stalking horse purchase agreement. See, e.g., In re JPA No. 111 Co., Ltd., No. 21-12075 (DSJ) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 7, 2022) [Docket No. 102] (approving break-up fee of up to 3.5% of the stalking horse bid and expense reimbursement of up to roughly .75% of the stalking horse bid); In re Greensill Capital Inc., No. 21-10561 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Apr. 6, 2021) [Docket No. 37] (approving as a “first priority administrative expense” a break-up fee of roughly 7% of the cash component of the stalking horse bid and expense reimbursement of up to 2.5% of the cash component of the stalking horse bid); In re Garrett Motion, Inc., No. 20- 12212 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 24, 2020) [Docket No. 282] (approving break-up fee of up to 3% of the stalking horse bid and expense reimbursement of up to 1% of the stalking horse bid); In re LSC Communications, Inc., No. 20-10950 (SHL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 5, 2020) [Docket No. 322] (approving break-up fee of up to 3% of the stalking horse bid and expense reimbursement of up to 1% of the stalking horse bid, subject to a cap of $750,000 in the aggregate for all stalking horse bidders); In re Barneys New York, Inc., No. 19-36300 (CGM) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 22, 2019) [Docket No. 156] (approving a break-up fee and expense reimbursement that in aggregate do not exceed 3% of the stalking horse bid); In re Hollander Sleep Products, LLC, No. 19-11608 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. July 3, 2019) [Docket No. 180] (same). Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee reflect a sound business purpose, are fair and appropriate under the circumstances, and should be approved. See Webster Decl. ¶ 17.

C. The Proposed Sale Satisfies the Requirements of Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code

35. Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers the Court to authorize a debtor to “use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). To approve the use of estate property under section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Second Circuit requires a debtor to show that the decision to use, sell, or lease assets outside of the ordinary course of business was based on the debtor’s sound business judgment in light of “all salient factors” relating to the bankruptcy case. Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983) (“The rule we adopt requires that a judge determining a § 363(b) application expressly find from the evidence presented before him at the hearing a good business reason to grant such an application.”); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 100 B.R. 670, 675 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989); see also In re MF Glob. Inc., 467 B.R. 726, 730 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2012) (“Although not specified by section 363, the Second Circuit requires that transactions under section 363 be based on the sound business judgment of the debtor or trustee.”).

36. Courts typically consider the following factors in determining whether a proposed sale satisfies this standard: (a) whether a sound business justification exists for the sale; (b) whether adequate and reasonable notice of the sale was provided to interested parties; (c) whether the sale will produce a fair and reasonable price for the property; and (d) whether the parties have acted in good faith. See In re MF Glob. Inc., 467 B.R. 726, 730 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2012) (citing In re Del. & Hudson Ry. Co., 124 B.R. 169, 176 (D. Del. 1991)). Where a debtor demonstrates a valid business justification for a decision, it is presumed that “in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company.” In re Integrated Res., Inc., 147 B.R. at 656.

37. Moreover, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code confers on a bankruptcy court broad equitable powers to confer relief in alignment with bankruptcy policies. Pursuant to section 105(a), orders are appropriate where they are essential to the debtor’s reorganization efforts and do not pose a burden on the debtor’s creditors. See U.S. Lines, Inc. v. Am. S.S. Owners Mut. Prof. & Indem. Ass’n (In re U.S. Lines, Inc.), 197 F.3d 631, 640 (2d Cir. 1999); Momentum Mfg. Corp. v. Emp. Creditors Comm. (In re Momentum Mfg. Corp.), 25 F.3d 1132, 1136 (2d Cir. 1994) (“It is well settled that bankruptcy courts are courts of equity, empowered to invoke equitable principles to achieve fairness and justice in the reorganization process.”).

1. The Debtors Have Demonstrated a Sound Business Justification

38. As set forth above and in the Webster Declaration, a strong business justification exists for the sale of the Acquired Assets as described herein. An orderly and expeditious sale of the Acquired Assets will position the Debtors to realize hundreds of millions of dollars of additional cash on the Acquired Assets and potentially to do so in 75 days. Additionally, the Debtors believe that a consummated sale will produce a fair and reasonable purchase price for the Acquired Assets. The Stalking Horse Bid is an offer to purchase the Acquired Assets for a price that the Debtors, with the advice of their advisors, already have determined to be fair and reasonable.

39. In addition, the Bidding Procedures were carefully designed to facilitate a flexible, robust, and competitive bidding process. The Debtors are poised to capitalize on the progress made during the process to secure the Stalking Horse Bidder—including the Debtor’s identification of and outreach to over 49 strategic and financial parties most likely to have the interest in and financial wherewithal to consummate a sale transaction with the Debtors, the dissemination of confidential diligence information to approximately 30 of those parties, and multiple rounds of bidding to select the Stalking Horse Bidder during which the economic and legal terms of the stalking horse bids were significantly improved—to maximize the value of the Acquired Assets sold at the Auction. The Bidding Procedures provide an appropriate framework for the Debtors to review, analyze, and compare all bids received to determine which bids are in the best interests of the Debtors' estates. A Sale governed by the Bidding Procedures undoubtedly will serve the important objectives of obtaining a fair and reasonable purchase price for the Acquired Assets, which will inure collectively to the benefit of all parties in interest.

40. Finally, nothing in the Bidding Procedures requires the Debtors' board of directors to take any action, or to refrain from taking any action, with respect to the Bidding Procedures, to the extent that the Debtors' board of directors determines, or based on the advice of counsel, that taking such action, or refraining from taking such action, as applicable, is required to comply with applicable law or its fiduciary duties under applicable law.

41. For the foregoing reasons, the Debtors submit that a strong business justification exists for approving the Sale and related relief requested herein.

2. The Noticing Procedures Are Reasonable and Appropriate

42. The Noticing Procedures described above are reasonably calculated to provide all of the Debtors' known creditors and all other parties in interest with adequate, timely notice of, among other things, the proposed Sale, Bidding Procedures, Auction, and Sale Hearing.

3. The Proposed Sale Will Produce a Fair and Reasonable Purchase Price for the Acquired Assets

43. As set forth above, the Debtors believe that the proposed Sale will produce fair and reasonable purchase prices for the Acquired Assets. The Stalking Horse Bid is an offer to purchase the Acquired Assets for a price that the Debtors, with the advice of their advisors, already have determined to be fair and reasonable, and is the product of multiple rounds of competitive negotiations between parties potentially interested in a strategic transaction involving a Sale. Given that the Stalking Horse Bid will serve as a floor for Qualified Bids for the Acquired Assets, the Debtors are confident that the sale process will culminate in the Debtors' obtaining the highest or otherwise best value for the applicable Acquired Assets.

44. In addition, the Bidding Procedures were carefully designed to facilitate a robust and competitive bidding process. The Debtors are poised to capitalize on the progress made during the prepetition phase of their sale process to maximize the value of the Acquired Assets sold at the Auction. The Bidding Procedures provide an appropriate framework for the Debtors to review, analyze and compare all bids received to determine which bids are in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and their stakeholders, while allowing the Debtors appropriate degrees of discretion to determine the Stalking Horse Bidder. Finally, the proposed expeditious timeline for the Bidding Procedures could attract even higher bids for the Acquired Assets, as any Successful Bidder would have additional time to extract value from the Acquired Assets following a prompt closing of the Sale. A Sale governed by the Bidding Procedures undoubtedly will serve the important objectives of obtaining not only a fair and reasonable purchase price for the Acquired Assets, but also the highest or otherwise best value for the Acquired Assets, which will inure to the benefit of all parties in interest in the Chapter 11 Cases.

4. The Successful Bidder Should Be Entitled to the Protections of Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code

45. Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code protects a good faith purchaser's interest in property purchased from a debtor notwithstanding that the sale conducted under section 363(b) is later reversed or modified on appeal. Specifically, section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code states the following:

The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under [section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code] . . . does not affect the validity of a sale ... to an entity that purchased . . . such property in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and such sale . . . were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 363(m).

46. Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code “affords ‘finality to judgments by protecting good faith purchasers, the innocent third parties who rely on the finality of bankruptcy judgments in making their offers and bids.’” In re Chateaugay Corp., No. 92 Civ. 7054 (PKL), 1993 WL 159969, at *3 (S.D.N.Y. May 10, 1993) (quoting In re Stadium Management Corp., 895 F.2d 845, 847 (1st Cir. 1990)). See also Allstate Ins. Co. v. Hughes, 174 B.R. 884, 888 (S.D.N.Y. 1994) (“Section 363(m) . . . provides that good faith transfers of property will not be affected by the reversal or modification on appeal of an unstayed order, whether or not the transferee knew of the pendency of the appeal.”).

47. Although the Bankruptcy Code does not define “good faith,” most courts have adopted a traditional equitable definition, applying it to a buyer who “purchases the assets for value, in good-faith and without notice of adverse claims.” Licensing by Paolo, Inc. v. Sinatra (In re Gucci), 126 F.3d 380, 389 (2d Cir. 1997) (quoting William v. Kivitz, 764 F.2d 1019, 1023 (4th Cir. 1985)). Good faith of a purchaser is demonstrated by “the integrity of his conduct during the course of the sale proceedings.” Id. at 390. Courts in the Second Circuit have held that misconduct that would typically destroy a purchaser’s good-faith status involves fraud, collusion, or an attempt to control the sale price or take unfair advantage of other bidders. See Kabro Assocs. of West Islip, LLC v. Colony Hill Assocs. (In re Colony Hill Assocs.), 111 F.3d 269, 276 (2d Cir. 1997). In other words, a party would have to show fraud or collusion between the buyer and the debtor in possession, the trustee, or other bidders to demonstrate a lack of good faith. See Kabro Assocs. of West Islip, LLC v. Colony Hill Assocs. (In re Colony Hill Assocs.), 111 F.3d 269, 276 (2d Cir. 1997) (“Typically, the misconduct that would destroy a [buyer]’s good faith status at a judicial sale involves fraud, collusion between the [buyer] and other bidders or the trustee, or an attempt to take grossly unfair advantage of other bidders.” (quoting In re Rock Indus. Mach. Corp., 572 F.2d 1195, 1198 (7th Cir. 1978))). Due to the absence of a bright-line test for good faith, the determination is based on the facts of each case, with a focus on the “integrity of [a bidder’s] conduct in the course of the sale proceedings.” In re Pisces Leasing Corp., 66 B.R. 671, 673 (E.D.N.Y. 1986) (quoting In re Rock Indus. Mach. Corp., 572 F.2d at 1198).

48. The Debtors submit that the Stalking Horse Bidder, or any other Successful Bidder, is or would be a “good faith purchaser” within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder have entered into the Stalking Horse Agreement in good faith and through arm’s length negotiations. Webster Decl. at ¶ 12. The Stalking Horse Bidder and the Debtors have engaged separate counsel and other professional advisors to represent their respective interests in the negotiation of the Stalking Horse Agreement and in the sale process generally. To the best of the Debtors’ knowledge, information and belief, no party has engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the Stalking Horse Agreement to be set aside under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

49. Further, as set forth above, the Bidding Procedures are designed to produce a fair and transparent competitive bidding process. Each Qualified Bidder participating in the Auction must confirm that it has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the bidding or the sale of any of the Acquired Assets. See Bidding Procedures, §§ VII(A), XIII, and XV. Any asset purchase agreement with a Successful Bidder executed by the Debtors will be negotiated at arm’s length and in good faith. Accordingly, the Debtors seek a finding that any Successful Bidder (including the Stalking Horse Bidder) is a good faith purchaser and is entitled to the full protections afforded by section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

50. Based on the foregoing, the Debtors submit that they have demonstrated that the proposed Sale is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and should be approved as a good faith transaction.

D. The Acquired Assets Should Be Sold Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Interests, and Encumbrances Under Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code

51. In the interest of attracting the best offers, the Acquired Assets should be sold free and clear of any and all liens, claims, interests, and other encumbrances, in accordance with section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, with any such liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances attaching to the proceeds of the applicable sale. Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to sell assets free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances if any one of the following conditions is satisfied:

- a. applicable non-bankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interest;
- b. such entity consents;
- c. such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the value of all liens on such property;
- d. such interest is in bona fide dispute; or
- e. such entity could be compelled, in legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest.

11 U.S.C. § 363(f); see also In re Celsius Network LLC, No. 22-10964 (MG), 2022 WL 14193879, at *7 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 24, 2022) ("section 363(f) is written in the disjunctive, authorizing a trustee or debtor-in-possession to sell property of the estate free and clear of all liens 'if any of the five conditions of § 363(f) are met ...'"') (quoting Citicorp Homeowners Servs., Inc. v. Elliot (In re Elliot), 94 B.R. 343, 345 (E.D. Pa. 1988)); In re Borders Group, Inc., 453 B.R. 477, 483 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011).

52. Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code is supplemented by section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, which provides that “[t]he Court may issue any order, process or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code].” 11 U.S.C. § 105(a); see also Volvo White Truck Corp. v. Chambersburg Beverage, Inc. (In re White Motor Credit Corp.), 75 B.R. 944, 948 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1987) (“Authority to conduct such sales [free and clear of claims] is within the court’s equitable powers when necessary to carry out the provisions of [the Bankruptcy Code].”).

53. The Debtors submit that the sale of the Acquired Assets free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances will satisfy one or more of the requirements under section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. To the extent a party objects to the Sale on the basis that it holds a prepetition lien or encumbrance on the Acquired Assets, the Debtors believe that any such party could be compelled to accept a monetary satisfaction of such claims, under section 363(f)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, or that such lien is in bona fide dispute, under section 363(f)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

54. Moreover, the Debtors will send the Sale Notice to any known purported prepetition lienholders. If such lienholders do not object to the proposed Sale, then their consent should reasonably be presumed. Accordingly, the Debtors request that, unless a party asserting a prepetition lien, claim or encumbrance on any of the Acquired Assets (other than with respect to Assumed Liabilities and Permitted Encumbrances (as such terms are defined in the Stalking Horse Agreement)) timely objects to this Sale Motion, such party shall be deemed to have consented to any Sale approved at the Sale Hearing. See Borders Group, 453 B.R. at 483 (“Under section 363(f)(2), a lienholder who receives notice of a sale but does not object within the prescribed time period is deemed to consent to the proposed sale, and assets thereafter may be sold free and clear of liens.”); In re GSC, Inc., 453 B.R. 132, 183 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011).

55. The purpose of a sale order purporting to authorize the transfer of assets free and clear of all claims, liens and encumbrances would be defeated if claimants could thereafter use the transfer as a basis to assert claims against a purchaser arising from a seller’s pre-sale conduct. Moreover, without such assurances, potential bidders may choose not to participate in the Auction, or may submit reduced bid amounts, to the detriment of the Debtors’ stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the sale of the Acquired Assets free and clear of any liens, claims, interests and encumbrances (with the exception of Permitted Encumbrances and Assumed Liabilities), in accordance with section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to such liens, claims, interests and encumbrances (including all DIP Liens and Superpriority DIP Claims in favor of the DIP Agent, and the DIP Lenders (as each is defined in the DIP Orders)) attaching to the proceeds thereof in the same order of relative priority, with the same validity, force and effect as prior to such.

E. Assumption and Assignment of Executory Contracts Should Be Authorized

56. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor in possession “subject to the court’s approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor.” 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). Courts employ the business judgment standard in determining whether to approve a debtor’s decision to assume or reject an executory contract. See, e.g., Nostas Assocs. v. Costich (In re Klein Sleep Prods., Inc.), 78 F.3d 18, 25 (2d Cir. 1996); Orion Pictures Corp. v. Showtime Networks, Inc. (In re Orion Pictures Corp.), 4 F.3d 1095, 1099 (2d Cir. 1993). The “business judgment” test in this context only requires that a debtor demonstrate that assumption or rejection of an executory contract benefits the estate. See In re Penn Traffic Co., 524 F.3d 373, 383 (2d Cir. 2008).

57. Any assumption of the Assigned Contracts is an exercise of the Debtors' sound business judgment because the transfer of such Contracts is necessary to the Debtors' ability to obtain the best value for their Acquired Assets. The assumption and assignment of Assigned Contracts is a critical component of the Stalking Horse Agreement. Given that consummation of the Sale is critical to the Debtors' efforts to maximize value for their estates and stakeholders, the Debtors' assumption of Assigned Contracts is an exercise of sound business judgment and, therefore, should be approved.

58. The consummation of any Sale involving the assignment of an Assigned Contract will be contingent upon the Debtors' compliance with the applicable requirements of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that any outstanding defaults under the Contracts to be assumed be cured or that the Debtors provide adequate assurance that such defaults will be promptly cured. The Debtors' assumption and assignment of Assigned Contracts will be contingent upon payment of the Cure Costs and effective only upon the closing of an applicable Sale. As set forth above, the Debtors propose to file with the Court and serve on each Counterparty a Potential Assumption and Assignment Notice (and, if necessary, a Supplemental Assumption and Assignment Notice), which will set forth the Debtors' good faith calculations of Cure Costs with respect to each Contract listed. Contract Counterparties will have a meaningful opportunity to raise any objections to the proposed assumption of their respective Contracts prior to closing of the Sale.

59. Pursuant to section 365(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor may assign an executory contract if "adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee of such contract or lease is provided." The meaning of "adequate assurance of future performance" depends on the facts and circumstances of each case, but should be given "practical, pragmatic construction." See

Carlisle Homes, Inc. v. Azzari (In re Carlisle Homes, Inc.), 103 B.R. 524, 538 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1988) (citation omitted); see also In re Natco Indus., Inc., 54 B.R. 436, 440 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1985) (adequate assurance of future performance does not mean an absolute assurance that debtor will thrive and pay rent); In re Bon Ton Rest. & Pastry Shop, Inc., 53 B.R. 789, 803 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1985) (finding that “[a]lthough no single solution will satisfy every case, the required assurance will fall considerably short of an absolute guarantee of performance”). Among other things, adequate assurance may be provided by evidencing the assignee’s financial health and experience in managing the type of enterprise or property assigned. See In re Bygaph, Inc., 56 B.R. 596, 605–06 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (adequate assurance of future performance is present when the prospective assignee of a lease has financial resources and has expressed willingness to devote sufficient funding to the business to give it a strong likelihood of succeeding).

60. As set forth above and in the Bidding Procedures, for a bid to qualify as a Qualified Bid, an Acceptable Bidder must include with its bid information regarding its ability (and the ability of its designated assignee, if applicable) to perform under any Contracts proposed to be assumed. Each affected Counterparty will have an opportunity to object to the ability of the Successful Bidder to provide adequate assurance as provided in the Bidding Procedures Order. To the extent necessary, the Debtors will present facts at the Sale Hearing or any subsequent hearing on a Contract Objection to show the financial wherewithal, willingness, and ability of the Successful Bidder to perform under the Assigned Contracts.

61. In addition, to facilitate the assumption and assignment of Assigned Contracts, the Debtors further request that the Court find that all anti-assignment provisions contained therein, whether such provisions expressly prohibit or have the effect of restricting or limiting assignment of such Assigned Contract, to be unenforceable and prohibited pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.⁴

F. Payment of Net Sale Proceeds to the DIP Lenders and Prepetition Noteholders Should Be Authorized

62. As set forth in the First Day Declaration, the Sale provided for herein is contemplated by a Restructuring Support Agreement, dated as of April 1, 2024 (the “RSA”), between the Debtors and the Ad Hoc Group (as defined in the DIP Orders). As more fully set forth therein, the RSA provides for the Ad Hoc Group to support the Sale contemplated by this Sale Motion, vote in favor of a chapter 11 plan reasonably acceptable to the Ad Hoc Group, and generally to support the Debtors’ chapter 11 strategy.

63. In addition, the RSA also provides for a DIP Facility (as defined in the DIP Orders) from certain members of the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group (the “DIP Lenders”) to fund the marketing and sale process contemplated by the Bidding Procedures and ultimately the Sale of the Acquired Assets for the highest or otherwise best and to provide working capital to continue operations during the pendency of this process. The DIP Lenders provided stepped up to provide such funding where no alternative to the DIP Facility was available to the Debtors despite a comprehensive marketing effort to obtain debtor-in-possession financing from third parties. As part of the DIP Facility the Prepetition Noteholders’ willingness have consented to the use of the cash collateral and to have their liens primed by the DIP Liens (as defined in the DIP Orders).

64. In addition, the RSA provides for the Ad Hoc Group to waive its right to credit bid on the Acquired Assets as against the Stalking Horse Bidder. The RSA also provides for the Prepetition Noteholders to subordinate their superpriority claims in the DIP Facility to the superpriority of the Stalking Horse Bidder with respect to the Bidding Protections. Both of these agreements were conditions to the Stalking Horse Bidder's entry into the Stalking Horse Agreement, and failure for these agreements to remain in place pursuant to the RSA would jeopardize the Stalking Horse Bidder's obligations under the Stalking Horse Agreement to participate in the Sale.

65. As set forth in the RSA, upon the closing of the Sale, the Debtors are required to distribute the proceeds of such Sale to the DIP Lenders and Prepetition Noteholders, subject to a Wind-Down Reserve (as defined in the RSA), Liquidating Trust (as defined in the RSA), and payment of certain other claims and expenses. This term was in exchange for, and a condition of, the foregoing credit-bid waiver, subordination of superpriority claims, other consideration in the RSA, and entry into the DIP Facility. Moreover, this term also provides for adequate, consensual funding for a chapter 11 plan process and post-confirmation matters by funding amounts for the Wind-Down Reserve, Liquidating Trust, an other claims and expenses—all as more fully set forth in paragraph 27 of the proposed Sale Order.

66. In light of the provision the DIP Lenders' and Prepetition Noteholders' support of the Sale and chapter 11, and the provision to fund a chapter 11 plan and post-confirmation matters in the RSA, the distribution of net proceeds of the Sale as described above and calculated as more fully set forth in the RSA is warranted and should be authorized.

WAIVER OF STAY UNDER BANKRUPTCY RULES 6004 AND 6006

67. The Debtors request that the Court (a) find that notice of the Sale Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances and (b) waive the fourteen-day stay requirements under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d). In light of the Debtors' current financial condition and their obligation to comply with the conditions to closing the Sale contemplated by the Stalking Horse Agreement, the proposed Sale contemplated herein should be consummated as soon as practicable to allow the Debtors to maximize value for their estates and stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Bidding Procedures Order, the Sale Order and any order authorizing the assumption and assignment of a Proposed Assigned Contract in connection with a Sale be effective immediately upon entry and that the 14-day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) be waived.

NOTICE

68. Notice of this Sale Motion will be provided to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) the holders of the 30 largest unsecured claims against the Debtors on a consolidated basis; (c) the Internal Revenue Service; (d) the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of New York and all other states in which the Debtors operate; (e) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (f) the United States Food and Drug Administration; (g) counsel to the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group and DIP Lenders, King & Spalding; (h) counsel to the DIP Administrative Agent, King & Spalding; (i) all parties asserting a security interest in the Acquired Assets to the extent any such interest is known to the Debtors; (j) each Counterparty; (k) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002; and (l) all other parties entitled to notice pursuant to Local Rule 9013-1(b). In light of the nature of the relief requested herein, the Debtors submit that no other or further notice is necessary.

69. A copy of this Sale Motion and any order approving it will also be made available on the Debtors' Case Information Website.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

70. No prior request for the relief sought in this Sale Motion has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the Bidding Procedures Order and, after the Sale Hearing, the Sale Order, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

G. The contract assumption notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 4 (the “Contract Assumption Notice”) is reasonably calculated to provide interested parties with timely and proper notice of the Debtors’ assumption and assignment of executory contracts and (each, an “Assigned Contract” and collectively, “Assigned Contracts”) in connection with the sale of the Acquired Assets and the procedures set forth herein regarding the Debtors’ assumption and assignment of such Assigned Contracts (“Assumption and Assignment Procedures”) are fair, reasonable, and appropriate and comply with the provisions of § 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 6006 of Federal rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.

H. The Motion, this Order, and the assumption and assignment procedures set forth herein are reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.

The Auction shall be transcribed by a court reporter.

II. Auction, Bidding Procedures, and Related Relief.

10. The Bidding Procedures, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, are hereby approved in their entirety, and the Bidding Procedures shall govern the submission, receipt, and analysis of all Bids relating to the proposed Sale of the Acquired Assets. Any party desiring to bid on the Acquired Assets shall comply with the Bidding Procedures and this Order in all respects. The Debtors are authorized to take any and all actions necessary to implement the Bidding Procedures. For the avoidance of doubt, the Acquired Assets shall not include any Avoidance Actions (as defined in the APA).

11. The Stalking Horse Bidder is deemed a “Qualified Bidder” and the Stalking Horse Bid as set forth in the APA is deemed a “Qualified Bid.” With respect to the Acquired Assets, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be entitled to the following bid protections (collectively, the “Stalking Horse Bid Protections”): (a) a breakup fee in an amount equal to 3.5% of the Purchase Price (as defined in the APA) (the “Breakup Fee”); (b) expense reimbursement of up to an aggregate amount of 1.5% of the Purchase Price (the “Expense Reimbursement”); (c) an amount that exceeds the Purchase Price by at least $2,500,000 (subclauses (a), (b) and (c) together are defined herein as the “Minimum Overbid Amount”); and (d) treatment of the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement as a superpriority claim with priority over any and all administrative expenses, debtor-in-possession financing, adequate protection claims, diminution claims, and all other claims against the Sellers’ bankruptcy estates now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, all administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, over any and all administrative expenses or other claims arising under sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 506(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 726, 1113, or 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise (subject to any carve-out for professional fees set forth in the applicable debtor-in-possession and/or cash collateral orders entered by the Bankruptcy Court).

12. If the Debtors do not receive any Qualified Bids (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) for the Acquired Assets: (a) the Debtors will not hold the Auction; (b) the Stalking Horse Bidder will be deemed the Successful Bidder for the Acquired Assets; and (c) the Debtors shall be authorized to seek approval of the APA at the Sale Hearing.

13. If the Debtors receive one or more Qualified Bids from Qualified Bidders (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) for the Acquired Assets, then the Debtors shall conduct the Auction in accordance with the Bidding Procedures.

14. As set forth in the Bidding Procedures : (a) each bidder participating at the Auction shall be required to confirm that it has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the bidding or the Sale; (b) the Auction shall be conducted openly; and (c) the Auction shall be transcribed or video recorded.

15. The Debtors may, in consultation with the Consultation Parties (as defined in the Bidding Procedures): (a) determine which Qualified Bid is the highest or otherwise best offer; (b) reject, at any time before entry of an Order of the Bankruptcy Court approving the Successful Bid, any Bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) that, in the discretion of the Debtors, is: (i) inadequate or insufficient; (ii) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of the Sale; (iii) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; and (c) at or before the conclusion of the Auction, impose additional terms and conditions upon Qualified Bidders as the Debtors determine to be in the best interests of the Debtors' estates in these Chapter 11 Cases.

16. No person or entity other than the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be entitled to any expense reimbursement, breakup fees, "topping," termination, or other similar fee or payment in connection with the purchase of the Acquired Assets, and by submitting a bid, such person or entity is deemed to have waived their right to request or to file with this Court any request for expense reimbursement or any fee of any nature, whether by virtue of section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise related to the purchase of the Acquired Assets.

17. No party other than the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be permitted or entitled to credit bid, or attempt to credit bid, any obligation that may constitute a contingent, unliquidated, or disputed claim against the Debtors, including the holders of the Notes (as defined in the Bidding Procedures), as against any Qualified Bid submitted by the Stalking Horse Bidder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Stalking Horse Bidder is permitted to credit bid the amount equal to the aggregate amount of the Breakup Fee plus the Expense Reimbursement. Subject to the terms of this Order or the Bidding Procedures, the rights of the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder to contest the propriety of any credit bid pursuant to sections 363(k) and 105 of the Bankruptcy Code are expressly reserved.

18. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, the Debtors, in their business judgment, further reserve the right, as they may reasonably determine to be in the best interests of their estates, subject to the terms and conditions under the Bidding Procedures and in consultation with the Consultation Parties, to: (i) determine which Interested Bidders (as defined in the Bidding Procedures) are Qualified Bidders; (ii) determine which Bids are Qualified Bids; (iii) determine which Qualified Bid is the highest or otherwise best proposal, which Qualified Bid is the Successful Bid, and which Qualified Bid is the next highest or otherwise best proposal, or which Qualified Bid is the Backup Bid, in each case in accordance with the Bid Assessment Criteria (as defined in the Bidding Procedures); (iv) reject any bid that is (A) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bidding Procedures or the requirements of this Order or the Bankruptcy Code, or (B) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; (v) waive terms and conditions set forth herein with respect to all Qualified Bidders to the extent permissible under this Order or the Bidding Procedures; (vi) impose additional terms and conditions with respect to all Qualified Bidders other than the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (vii) to the extent provided in the Bidding Procedures, modify the Bidding Procedures, or withdraw the request to sell the Acquired Assets to the Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder, as applicable, at any time with or without prejudice.

III. Assumption and Assignment Procedures.

19. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures set forth below regarding the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts proposed to be assumed by the Debtors pursuant to section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and assigned to the Stalking

Horse Bidder (or other Successful Bidder, if any) pursuant to section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code in connection with the Sale are hereby approved to the extent set forth herein.

20. These Assumption and Assignment Procedures shall govern the assumption and assignment of all of the Assigned Contracts to be assumed and assigned in connection with the Sale under the APA or other Successful Bidder's Proposed APA, subject to the payment of any amounts necessary to cure any defaults arising under any Assigned Contract (the "Cure Costs").

21. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures are as follows:

- a. Contract Assumption Notice. Within three (3) business days after entry of this Order the Debtors shall serve a notice of contract assumption (the "Contract Assumption Notice"), in substantially the form attached hereto as Exhibit 4, via overnight delivery on any counterparties (a "Counterparty") to the Debtors' universe of executory contracts. The Contract Assumption Notice shall include: (a) notice that such Counterparty's contract may be subject to assumption and assignment in the Sale and thus designated an Assigned Contract; (b) the Cure Cost, if any, that the Debtors believe is required to be paid to the Counterparty under Sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) of the Bankruptcy Code for such Assigned Contract in the event such Assigned Contract is assumed and assigned by the Debtors; and (c) the Adequate Assurance Information (as defined in the Bidding Procedures) of the Stalking Horse Bidder.

The inclusion of any executory contract on the Contract Assumption Notice shall not constitute an admission that a particular contract is an executory contract or require or guarantee that such contract will be an Assigned Contract.

- b. Supplemental Assumption Notice. On or before one (1) business day after the selection of a Successful Bid or a Backup Bid, if any, the Debtors shall file with this Court and serve a notice (the "Supplemental Assumption Notice"), substantially in the form attached to the Bidding Procedures as Exhibit 4 via overnight delivery, on any Counterparty to the Debtors' universe of executory contracts that may be designated as an Assigned Contract that the relevant Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder desires to assume as part of its Successful Bid that was not already listed on the Contract Assumption Notice. This notice shall include: (a) notice that such Counterparty's contract may be subject to assumption and assignment in the Sale and thus designated as an Assigned Contract as part of the relevant Successful Bid; (b) the Cure Cost if any, in the event such Assigned Contract is assumed and assigned by the Debtors; and (c) the Adequate Assurance Information of the relevant Successful Bidder and Backup Bidder.

The inclusion of any executory contract on the Supplemental Assumption Notice shall not constitute an admission that a particular contract is an executory contract or require or guarantee that such contract will be an Assigned Contract.

- c. Contract Objections. If a Counterparty objects to (a) the proposed assumption and assignment of its Assigned Contract set forth in the Contract Assumption Notice (including, without limitation, on the basis (i) that the Stalking Horse Bidder cannot provide adequate assurance of future performance; or (ii) that Counterparty consent is allegedly required for the assumption, assignment, and transfer of the Assigned Contract), or (b) the Cure Cost set forth in the Contract Assumption Notice, the Counterparty must file a Contract Objection on or before May [●], 2024 at 4:00 p.m. (ET)] (such objection an "Initial Contract Objection").

If a Counterparty objects to (a) the proposed assumption and assignment of its Assigned Contract set forth in the Supplemental Assumption Notice (including, without limitation, on the basis (i) that the Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder cannot provide adequate assurance of future performance under the Assigned Contract in accordance with Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code; or (ii) that Counterparty consent is allegedly required for the assumption, assignment, and transfer of the Assigned Contract), or (b) the Cure Cost set forth in the Supplemental Assumption Notice, or (c) on the basis Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder identified on the Notice of Successful Bidder cannot provide adequate assurance of future performance under the Assigned Contract in accordance with Section 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Counterparty must file an Additional Contract Objection on or before two (2) business days prior to the Sale Hearing (such objection an "Additional Contract Objection" and together with an Initial Contract Objection, each a "Contract Objection").

- d. Resolution of Contract Objections. The Debtors, the Stalking Horse Bidder or relevant Successful Bidder, and the objecting Counterparty shall first confer in a good faith attempt to resolve the Contract Objection without Court intervention. If the parties are unable to consensually resolve the Contract Objection, the Debtors may request an emergency hearing for the Court to resolve the Contract Objection.

A Contract Objection may be resolved after the Closing Date of the Sale, subject to the terms of the Proposed APA approved in connection with the Sale.

- e. Failure to Timely Object. If no Contract Objection is timely received with respect to an Assigned Contract: (a) the Counterparty to such Assigned Contract shall be deemed to have consented to the assumption by the Debtors and assignment or transfer (including the transfer of any related rights and benefits thereunder) of the Assigned Contract to the Successful Bidder, and be forever barred and estopped from asserting or claiming against the Debtors or the Successful Bidder, that any additional defaults exist or that conditions to assumption, assignment, and transfer must be satisfied under the Assigned Contract (including, without limitation, with respect to adequate assurance of future performance by the Successful Bidder), or that any related right or benefit under such contract cannot and will not be available to the Successful Bidder; (b) any and all defaults under the Assigned Contract and any and all pecuniary losses related thereto shall be deemed cured and compensated pursuant to Sections 365(b)(1)(A) and (B) of the Bankruptcy Code upon payment of the applicable Cure Cost; and (c) the Cure Cost for such Assigned Contract shall be controlling, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in such Assigned Contract, or any other related document, and the Counterparty shall be deemed to have consented to the Cure Cost and shall be forever barred from asserting any other claims related to such Assigned Contract against the Debtors and their estates or the Successful Bidder, or the property of any of them, that existed prior to the entry of the Sale Order.
- f. Reservation of Rights. In the event a Contract Objection is resolved in a manner unfavorably to the Debtors or the Stalking Horse Bidder or the Successful Bidder, then the Debtors may withdraw (or the Stalking Horse Bidder or the Successful Bidder, as applicable, may cause the Debtors to withdraw), their request to assume and assign such Assigned Contract.

22. Any party failing to timely file an objection to the Cure Cost or the proposed assumption and assignment of an Assigned Contract listed on the Contract Assumption Notice is deemed to have consented to: (a) such Cure Cost, (b) the assumption and assignment of such Assigned Contract, (c) the related relief requested in the Motion, and (d) the Sale. Such party shall be forever barred and estopped from objecting to the Cure

Costs, the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contract, adequate assurance of future performance, the relief requested in the Motion, whether applicable law excuses such counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to, the Stalking Horse Bidder or Successful Bidder, as applicable, for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, and from asserting any additional cure or other amounts as a claim or otherwise against the Debtors and the Stalking Horse Bidder or Successful Bidder, as applicable, with respect to such party's Assigned Contract.

23. The Assumption and Assignment Procedures are appropriate and fair to all counterparties and comply in all respects with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules. The Contract Assumption Notice is: (a) reasonably calculated to: (i) provide sufficient, effective notice to all counterparties and any other affected parties of the Debtors' intent to assume and assign to any Successful Bidder some or all of the Assigned Contracts and (ii) afford the counterparties the opportunity to exercise any rights affected by the Motion and the relief granted by this Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 2002(a)(2), 6004, and 6006; and (b) hereby approved.

IV. Sale Notice.

24. The Sale Notice, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3, is hereby approved. Within three (3) business days following entry of this Order, or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, the Debtors shall cause the Sale Notice to be served on the following parties or their respective counsel, if known: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Stalking Horse Bidder; (c) counsel to any Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (the "Creditors' Committee"); (d) all parties known by the Debtors to assert a lien or encumbrance on any of the Acquired Assets; (e) all persons known or reasonably believed to have asserted an interest in or claim to any of the Acquired Assets; (f) all persons known or reasonably believed to have expressed an interest in acquiring all or a substantial portion of the Acquired Assets within the six (6) months prior to the Petition Date; (g) the Office of the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York; (h) the Office of the Attorney General in each state in which the Debtors have operated; (i) the Office of the Secretary of State in each state in which the Debtors have operated; (j) the Internal Revenue Service and all state and local taxing authorities in the states in which the Debtors have or may have any tax liability; (k) the Securities and Exchange Commission; (l) the United States Food and Drug Administration; (m) the Debtors' other known creditors; and (n) all other parties that have filed a notice of appearance and demand for service of papers in these Chapter 11 Cases as of the service date. On or about the same date, the Debtors will publish the Sale Notice on the website of the Debtors' claims and noticing agent, Kroll Restructuring Administration, and will also publish a notice substantially similar to the Sale Notice once in the The New York Times, Wall Street Journal, USA Today, or another nationally circulated newspaper.

V. Miscellaneous.

25. The Debtors may make immaterial modifications or amendments to the Sale Notice, Contract Assumption Notice, and the Supplemental Assumption Notice may be modified or amended by the Debtors without further order of the Court.

26. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Motion.

27. Notwithstanding any applicability of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), 6006(d), 7052 or 9014, this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon entry of this Order. All time periods set forth in this Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

28. The terms and conditions of this Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

29. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Order.

I. DESCRIPTION OF THE ACQUIRED ASSETS.

The Debtors are seeking to sell the Acquired Assets as described in the APA, free and clear of all liens, claims, interests, or other encumbrances. The Acquired Assets are specifically identified in the APA and the Sale Notice.

II. PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS.

A. Interested Bidders.

To participate in the bidding process and become an Acceptable Bidder (as defined herein) a person or entity interested in the Acquired Assets (other than the Stalking Horse Bidder) (an “Interested Bidder”) must deliver to Leerink Partners LLC, the Debtors’ proposed investment banker; the following documents and information (collectively, the “Bid Documents”), unless previously provided to the Debtors’ satisfaction:

1. a written disclosure of each entity that will be bidding or otherwise participating in connection with such bid (including each equity holder or other financial backer of the Interested Bidder, including if such Interested Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of consummating the proposed transactions to be set forth in a Proposed APA contemplated by such Interested Bidder), and the complete terms of any such participation. Under no circumstances shall any undisclosed principals, equity holders, or financial backers be associated with any Qualified Bid (as defined herein). Each Interested Bidder must also include the contact information for the specific person(s) and counsel whom the Debtors or their advisors should contact regarding such Qualified Bid;
2. a statement and other factual support demonstrating to the Debtors’ satisfaction, in consultation with the ad hoc group of holders party to that certain Restructuring Support Agreement, dated as of [●], 2024 with the Debtors (“Ad Hoc Noteholder Group”) and any Creditors’ Committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, the “Consultation Parties”), in the exercise of their reasonable business judgment that the Interested Bidder has a bona fide interest in purchasing some or all of the Acquired Assets;

3. preliminary proof by the Interested Bidder of its financial capacity to close the Interested Bidder’s proposed transaction(s) to be set forth in a Proposed APA (as defined herein), which may include financial statements of, or verified financial commitments obtained by, the Interested Bidder (or, if the Interested Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of acquiring the desired Acquired Assets, the party that will bear liability for a breach), the adequacy of which will be assessed by the Debtors in consultation with the Consultation Parties;
4. an executed confidentiality agreement (to be delivered prior to the distribution of any confidential information by the Debtors to an Interested Bidder) in form and substance satisfactory to the Debtors (without limiting the foregoing, each confidentiality agreement executed by an Interested Bidder shall contain standard nonsolicitation provisions); and
5. submit a Qualified Bid by the Bid Deadline (each term as defined herein).

Each Interested Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for information and due diligence access by the Debtors and their advisors regarding the ability of such Interested Bidder, as applicable, to consummate its contemplated transaction; provided that the Consultation Parties and their respective advisors shall be permitted to submit reasonable requests for information from Interested Bidders only through the Debtors and their advisors and, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not be permitted to directly contact any Interested Bidder and/or its respective advisor(s), but the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group and the Creditors’ Committee and/or its respective advisors may respond if contacted by any Interested Bidder.

B. Obtaining Due Diligence.

The Debtors, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, will determine and notify each Interested Bidder whether such Interested Bidder has submitted adequate Bid Documents so that such Interested Bidder may submit a Bid (each, an “Acceptable Bidder”, and each such bid, an “Acceptable Bid”). Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Debtors reserve the right to work with Interested Bidders (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) to improve bids to be Acceptable Bids, prior to the Bid Deadline. The Stalking Horse Bidder shall be deemed an Acceptable Bidder, and the bid as set forth in the APA (the “Stalking Horse Bid”) shall be deemed an Acceptable Bid.

Only Acceptable Bidders shall be eligible to receive due diligence information and access to the Debtors' electronic data room (the "Data Room") and to additional non-public information regarding the Debtors and the Acquired Assets, provided that upon an Interested Bidder entering into a confidentiality agreement, the Debtors in their discretion may provide such Interested Bidder access to the Data Room and additional non-public information regarding the Debtors.

The Debtors and their advisors shall coordinate all reasonable requests from Acceptable Bidders for additional information and due diligence access; provided that: (i) the Debtors shall have the right (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) to limit the information and due diligence provided to competitors and (ii) the Debtors may (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) decline to provide such information, after prior notice to Acceptable Bidders who, at such time and in the Debtors' reasonable business judgment, have not established, or who have raised doubt, that such Acceptable Bidder intends in good faith to, or has the capacity to, consummate a proposed Sale Transaction; provided that if any Interested Bidder is (or is affiliated with) a competitor of the Debtors, the Debtors reserve the right, following consultation with the Consultation Parties, to withhold, redact, code, or delay providing any diligence materials that the Debtors determine are business-sensitive or otherwise inappropriate for disclosure to such Interested Bidder at such time. The Debtors shall post substantially all written due diligence provided to any Interested Bidder to the Debtors' Data Room for the benefit of all Interested Bidders for the Acquired Assets. The due diligence period will end on the Bid Deadline and, subsequent to the Bid Deadline, the Debtors shall have no obligation to furnish any due diligence information. Additional due diligence will not be provided after the Bid Deadline, unless otherwise deemed reasonably appropriate by the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties). Acceptable Bidders shall conduct such diligence as each may deem necessary or appropriate and none shall have any claims or causes of action against the Debtors or the Consultation Parties or any of their professionals, representatives, or advisors. The Debtors and the Consultation Parties, and each of their representatives and advisors, are not responsible for, and will bear no liability with respect to, any information obtained by any Acceptable Bidder in connection with any Sale or Sale Transaction.

III. REQUIREMENTS FOR QUALIFIED BIDS.

Any binding proposal, solicitation, or offer (each, a "Bid") will be considered a qualified bid only if the Bid is submitted in writing by an Acceptable Bidder, by the Bid Deadline, and complies with all of the following as determined by the Debtors in their business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) (each such Bid a "Qualified Bid" and such bidder a "Qualified Bidder"):

1. Identification of Bidder. A Qualified Bid must fully disclose each entity that will be bidding or otherwise participating in connection with such Bid (including each equity holder or other financial backer of the Acceptable Bidder, including if such Acceptable Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of consummating the proposed transactions to be set forth in a Proposed APA contemplated by such Acceptable Bidder), and the complete terms of any such participation. Under no circumstances shall any undisclosed principals, equity holders, or financial backers be associated with any Qualified Bid. Each Acceptable Bidder must also include the contact information for the specific person(s) and counsel whom the Debtors or their advisors should contact regarding such Qualified Bid.

2. Assets and Purchase Price. A Qualified Bid must identify the following:

- (i) the Acquired Assets or group of Acquired Assets to be purchased (including Assigned Contracts) such Acceptable Bidder wishes to Bid on;
- (ii) any and all liabilities that the Bidder proposes to assume, and, if limited in amount, set forth the maximum amount to be assumed; provided, however, the Interested Bidder's Proposed APA (as defined in paragraph 3 below) may contain provisions allowing for the removal or addition of assumed liabilities on substantially the same terms as provided for in the APA;
- (iii) the proposed purchase price, which at a minimum shall consist of the following aggregate amount: (y) an amount equal to the Purchase Price set forth in the APA; (z) the Minimum Overbid Amount (together, the "Proposed Purchase Price"). Unless a Bid includes a permitted credit bid, the Bid must include a statement confirming that the Bid is based on an all-cash offer.

3. Proposed Asset Purchase Agreement. A Qualified Bid must be based on the APA attached hereto as Exhibit 2 or otherwise be in a form reasonably acceptable to the Debtors. A proposed asset purchase agreement ("Proposed APA") shall (a) be duly authorized; (b) include an irrevocable binding, executed offer, signed by an authorized representative of such Bidder, pursuant to which the Acceptable Bidder proposes to effectuate a Sale Transaction on substantially the same terms as those contained in the APA; (c) specify the Proposed Purchase Price for the Acquired Assets in U.S. dollars; (d) include all exhibits and schedules contemplated thereby (other than exhibits and schedules that, by their nature, must be prepared by the Debtors); and (d) identify any Assigned Contracts that, as of the submission of such Bid, the Acceptable Bidder proposes to be assumed and assigned by the Debtors in connection with the proposed Sale Transaction. A Qualified Bid also must include a copy of a redline reflecting all of its proposed changes to the APA, if applicable, or provide a summary of material changes to the terms of the APA.

4. Designation of Assigned Contracts. A Qualified Bid must identify with particularity each and every executory contract with respect to which the Acceptable Bidder seeks assignment from the Debtors; provided, however, that the Proposed APA may contain provisions allowing for the removal or addition of assumed executory contracts on substantially the same terms as provided for in the APA.
5. Adequate Assurance. A Qualified Bid must include evidence of the Acceptable Bidder's (or any other relevant assignee's) ability to comply with Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (to the extent applicable), including providing adequate assurance of such Acceptable Bidder's (or any other relevant assignee's) ability to perform future obligations arising under any Assigned Contracts included in its bid. The Debtors may require the following information in connection with demonstrating adequate assurance of future performance: (i) information evidencing the Acceptable Bidder's (or any other relevant assignee's) financial wherewithal and willingness to perform under any Assigned Contracts included in the bid, which information may include (v) a corporate organizational chart or similar disclosure identifying corporate ownership and control, (x) financial statements, (y) tax returns, and (z) annual reports; and (ii) the Acceptable Bidder's (or any other relevant assignee's) proposed use of any leased premises or other property included in the bid (the foregoing information, "Adequate Assurance Information"). All Adequate Assurance Information must be in a form that will permit its immediate dissemination to the applicable Assigned Contract Counterparties.
6. Proposed Sale Order. A Qualified Bid must include a proposed sale order that is marked against the proposed sale order to be provided by the Debtors to Acceptable Bidders.
7. Good Faith Deposit. Each Qualified Bid (other than the Qualified Bid of the Stalking Horse Bidder) must be accompanied by a good faith deposit ("Good Faith Deposit") in the form of cash in an amount equal to ten percent (10%) of the Proposed Purchase Price deposited into a segregated account established by the Debtors and actually received by the Bid Deadline.
8. Corporate Authority. A Qualified Bid must (a) include written evidence of authorization from the Acceptable Bidder's board of directors (or comparable governing body) with respect to the submission, execution, and delivery of any bid for the Acquired Assets and proposed Sale Order; or (b) if the Acceptable Bidder is an entity formed for the purpose of effecting the proposed Sale Transaction, include written evidence acceptable to the Debtors of authorization and approval by the equity holder(s) of such Interested Bidder, both in a form that is reasonably acceptable to the Debtors.

9. Proof of Financial and Other Ability to Perform. A Qualified Bid must include written evidence that demonstrates, as determined by the Debtors, that the Acceptable Bidder has the necessary financial ability to close the proposed Sale Transaction and can provide adequate assurance of future performance under all Assigned Contracts to be assumed and assigned in the proposed Sale Transaction. Such information must include, inter alia, the following:
 - (i) contact names and numbers for verification of financing sources;
 - (ii) evidence of the Acceptable Bidder's internal resources and/or proof of unconditional debt funding commitments from a recognized banking institution and, if applicable, equity commitments in an aggregate amount equal to the cash portion of such bid or the posting of an irrevocable letter of credit from a recognized banking institution issued in favor of the Debtors in the amount of the cash portion of such bid as needed to close the proposed Sale Transaction; and
 - (iii) any such other form of financial disclosure or credit-quality support information or enhancement reasonably acceptable to the Debtors demonstrating that such competing Acceptable Bidder has the ability to close the Sale Transaction.
10. Irrevocable. A Qualified Bid must be irrevocable until five (5) business days after the Sale Hearing, provided that, if such bid is accepted as the Successful Bid or the Backup Bid, such bid shall continue to remain irrevocable, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Bidding Procedures.
11. Representations and Warranties. A Qualified Bid must include the same or substantially the same representations, warranties and statements as contained in the Stalking Horse Bid, and further includes the following:
 - (i) a statement that the Acceptable Bidder has had an opportunity to conduct any and all due diligence regarding the Debtors' business and the Acquired Assets prior to submitting its bid;

- (ii) a statement that the Acceptable Bidder has relied solely upon its own independent review, investigation, and/or inspection of any relevant documents and the Acquired Assets in making its bid and did not rely on any written or oral statements, representations, promises, warranties, or guaranties whatsoever, whether express or implied, by operation of law or otherwise, regarding the Debtors' business or the Acquired Assets or the completeness of any information provided in connection therewith, except as expressly stated in the representations and warranties contained in any APA or any asset purchase agreement ultimately accepted and executed by the Debtors;
- (iii) a statement acknowledging that the Acceptable Bidder is not entitled to any break-up fee, termination fee, expense reimbursement or similar type of payment or reimbursement and, by submitting the competing bid and that the Acceptable Bidder waives the right to any such fee and the right to pursue a substantial contribution claim under 11 U.S.C. § 503 related in any way to the submission of its bid;
- (iv) a statement that the Acceptable Bidder has complied in all respects with these Bidding Procedures, the Bidding Procedures Order, Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules and any applicable non-bankruptcy law and will continue to do so;
- (v) a statement that the Acceptable Bidder agrees to serve as a Backup Bidder (as defined herein) if such bidder's Qualified Bid is selected at the Auction as the next highest or next best bid after the Successful Bid for the Acquired Assets;
- (vi) a statement that the bid represents a binding, good-faith, and bona fide offer to purchase the Acquired Assets and is not subject to or conditioned on any further due diligence, obtaining financing, any internal approvals or credit committee approvals, or on the outcome or review of unperformed due diligence and is irrevocable (a) until five (5) business days after the Sale Hearing; or (b) if the bid is selected as a Successful Bid or as a Backup Bid, until thirty (30) days after the date of the Sale Hearing (the "Backup Bid Expiration Date");
- (vii) a statement as to whether the Acceptable Bidder intends to offer future employment to any of the Debtors' employees; and

- (viii) a representation that the Acceptable Bidder did not collude with any other bidders and is not otherwise a partnership, joint venture, or other entity in which more than one bidder (or any affiliates of a bidder) has a direct or indirect interest, unless consented to in writing by the Debtors.
- 12. Compliance with Diligence Requests. An Acceptable Bidder submitting a bid must have promptly complied with reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access for the Debtors to the satisfaction of the Debtors.
- 13. Closing Date. The bid must include a commitment to close a sale of the Acquired Assets as promptly as possible, but no event later than July 1, 2024.

IV. BID DEADLINE.

An Acceptable Bidder that desires to make a bid must transmit via email (in .pdf or similar format) or deliver written copies of its Bid so as to be received not later than [5:00 p.m.] (ET) on May [16], 2024 (the “Bid Deadline”). The Debtors may extend the Bid Deadline without further order of the Court. Bids should be delivered to the following parties: (i) counsel to the Debtors, Baker McKenzie (Attn: John R. Dodd (john.dodd@bakermckenzie.com) and Blaire Cahn (blaire.cahn@bakermckenzie.com); (ii) counsel to the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group and the DIP Lenders, King & Spalding (Attn: Matthew Warren (mwarren@kslaw.com) and Lindsey Henrikson (lhenrikson@kslaw.com); and (iii) counsel to the Creditors’ Committee, [●].

The Debtors will provide copies of all Bids via electronic mail within 24 hours of receiving any Final Bid to the Stalking Horse Bidder, the Consultation Parties, and to the Office of the United States Trustee.

V. QUALIFIED BIDDERS.

No later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) shall notify each Acceptable Bidder whether such party is a Qualified Bidder. Promptly upon designating the Qualified Bidders, the Debtors shall provide the Adequate Assurance Information received from the applicable Qualified Bidder to the Consultation Parties pursuant to such Qualified Bidder’s proposed transaction.

If any Bid is determined by the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) not to be a Qualified Bid, the Debtors will refund such Acceptable Bidder’s Good Faith Deposit on or before the date that is five (5) business days after the Bid Deadline.

Between the date that the Debtors notify an Acceptable Bidder that it is a Qualified Bidder and the Auction, the Debtors may discuss, negotiate, or seek clarification of any Qualified Bid from a Qualified Bidder. Without the prior written consent of the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties), a Qualified Bidder may not modify, amend, or withdraw its Qualified Bid, except for proposed amendments to increase the consideration contemplated by, or otherwise improve the terms of, the Qualified Bid, during the period that such Qualified Bid remains binding as specified in these Bidding Procedures; provided that any Qualified Bid may be improved at the Auction as set forth herein. Any improved Qualified Bid must continue to comply with the requirements for Qualified Bids set forth in these Bidding Procedures.

Each Qualified Bidder shall comply with all reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access requested by the Debtors or their advisors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) regarding the ability of such Qualified Bidder to consummate its contemplated transaction. Failure by a Qualified Bidder to comply with such reasonable requests for additional information and due diligence access may be a basis for the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) to determine that such bidder is no longer a Qualified Bidder or that a Bid made by such bidder is not a Qualified Bid.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall be deemed to be a Qualified Bidder, and the Stalking Horse Bidder may participate in the Auction with respect to the Acquired Assets.

VI. RIGHT TO CREDIT BID.

The Stalking Horse Bidder is authorized to submit a credit bid in connection with the sale of the Acquired Assets in the amount equal to the amount of the Breakup Fee and Expense Reimbursement in connection with the submission of any subsequent Qualified Bid following the Stalking Horse Bid.

No party that does not hold an allowed secured claim as determined by the Court shall be permitted or entitled to credit bid, or attempt to credit bid, any obligation that may constitute a contingent, unliquidated, or disputed claim against the Debtors. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in these Bidding Procedures, the holders of the 6.00% Convertible Senior Secured Notes due 2024, dated as of December 23, 2019, among Acorda Therapeutics, Inc., the guarantors party thereto, and Wilmington Trust, National Association as Trustee and Collateral Agent (the “Notes”) shall not be permitted to submit a credit bid against the Stalking Horse Bidder.

VII. THE AUCTION.

If the Debtors receive at least one Qualified Bid in addition to the Stalking Horse Bid, the Debtors shall conduct the Auction to determine the Successful Bidder with respect to the Acquired Assets. If the Debtors do not receive a Qualified Bid (other than the Stalking Horse Bid) with respect to the Acquired Assets, the Debtors will not conduct the Auction with respect to the Acquired Assets and will designate the Stalking Horse Bidder’s Qualified Bid as the Successful Bid.

No later than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the commencement of the Auction, the Debtors shall: (a) notify all Qualified Bidders whether their bids have been determined to be a Qualified Bid; (b) notify all Qualified Bidders of the highest or otherwise best Qualified Bid, as determined in the Debtors’ reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) (the “Baseline Bid”), with respect to the Acquired Assets; and (c) provide copies of the Bid Documents supporting the Baseline Bid to the Stalking Horse Bidder and all other Qualified Bidders with respect to the Sale. The determination of which Qualified Bid constitutes the Baseline Bid and which Qualified Bid constitutes the Baseline Bid shall take into account any factors the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) reasonably deems relevant to the value of the Qualified Bid to the Debtors’ estates, including, with respect to the Acquired Assets, among other things: (a) the number, type, and nature of any changes to the APA requested by the Qualified Bidder, the Cure Costs to be paid, and the Assumed Liabilities to be assumed in the Qualified Bid; (b) the amount and nature of the total consideration; (c) the likelihood of the bidder’s ability to close the proposed Sale Transaction(s), the conditions thereto, and the timing thereof; (d) the net economic effect of any changes to the value to be received by the Debtors’ estates from the transactions contemplated by the Bid Documents; (e) the likelihood that the Qualified Bidder and the Successful Bidder has the ability, resources, and personnel to ensure that the Acquired Assets will be approved by relevant regulators and commercialized for better health outcomes for patients worldwide; (f) the continued employment of the Debtors’ current employees; (g) the net benefit to the estates and (h) the tax consequences of such Qualified Bid (collectively, the “Bid Assessment Criteria”).

The Auction shall take place beginning at 10:00 a.m. (ET) on May 22, 2024, at the offices of Baker & McKenzie LLP located at 452 Fifth Avenue, New York, 10018, or such later date, time and location, including virtually through Zoom or another video platform, as designated by the Debtors (in consultation with the Stalking Horse Bidder and the Consultation Parties), after providing notice to the Notice Parties. Each Qualified Bidder must have at least one representative with authority to bind such Qualified Bidder physically present at the Auction.

A. Participants and Attendees.

The Debtors and their advisors shall direct and preside over the Auction. At the start of the Auction, the Debtors shall describe the terms of the Baseline Bid. All incremental Bids made thereafter shall comply with the Overbid (as defined herein) requirements and shall be made and received on an open basis, and all material terms of each Overbid shall be fully disclosed to all other Qualified Bidders. The Debtors shall maintain a written transcript of the Auction and of all Bids made and announced at the Auction, including the Baseline Bid, all Overbids, and the Successful Bid.

Only Qualified Bidders that have submitted Qualified Bids by the Bid Deadline are eligible to participate in the Auction, subject to other limitations as may be reasonably imposed by the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) in accordance with these Bidding Procedures. Qualified Bidders participating in the Auction must appear in person (or through a duly authorized representative). The Auction will be conducted openly and on the record. Unless approved by the Debtors, attendance at the Auction shall be limited to the Debtors, the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group, the chairperson of the Creditors’ Committee, the Stalking Horse Bidder, the Office of the United States Trustee, and all other Qualified Bidders, and any of their respective representatives and counsel.

Each Qualified Bidder participating in the Auction will be required to confirm in writing and on the record at the Auction that (i) it has not engaged in any collusion with respect to the submission of any bid or the Auction and (ii) each Qualified Bid it submits at the Auction is a binding, good faith and bona fide offer to purchase the Acquired Assets identified in such bid.

B. Auction Procedures.

The Auction shall be governed by the following procedures, subject to the Debtors' right to modify such procedures in their reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties):

1. Baseline Bids. Bidding shall commence at the amount of the Baseline Bid.
2. Minimum Overbid. Qualified Bidders may submit successive bids higher than the previous Bid, based on and increased from the Baseline Bid for the relevant Acquired Assets (each such bid, an "Overbid"). Any Qualified Bidder's Overbid shall consist of the Minimum Overbid Amount and shall be made in increments of at least $1,000,000 in cash, cash equivalents, or such other consideration that the Debtors deem equivalent (in consultation with the Consultation Parties). The Debtors may, in their reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties), announce increases or reductions to initial or subsequent Overbids at any time during the Auction.
3. Highest or Otherwise Best Offer. After the first round of bidding and between each subsequent round of bidding as to the Acquired Assets the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) shall announce the Bid that they believe in their reasonable business judgment to be the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets (the "Leading Bid") and describe the material terms thereof. Each round of bidding will conclude after each participating Qualified Bidder has had the opportunity to submit a subsequent Bid with full knowledge of the Leading Bid and the methodology used in the Debtors' calculation of the value thereof. To the extent not previously provided (as determined by the Debtors), a Qualified Bidder submitting a subsequent Bid must submit, as part of its subsequent Bid, written evidence (in the form of financial disclosure or credit-quality support information or enhancement reasonably acceptable to the Debtors) demonstrating such Qualified Bidder's ability to close the transaction at the Proposed Purchase Price contemplated by such subsequent Bid.
4. Rejection of Bids. The Debtors may, in their reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) reject any Bid that the Debtors determine is: (a) inadequate or insufficient, (b) not in conformity with the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bidding Procedures, or the terms and conditions of the Sale, or (c) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates.

5. Additional Information. The Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) shall have the right to request any additional financial information that will allow the Debtors to make a reasonable determination as to a Qualified Bidder's financial and other capabilities to consummate the transactions contemplated by their proposal and any further information that the Debtors believe is reasonably necessary to clarify and evaluate any Bid made by a Qualified Bidder during the Auction.
6. Modification of Procedures. Without prejudice to the Stalking Horse Bidder under the APA, , the Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties), to: (a) determine which bidders are Qualified Bidders; (b) determine which bids are Qualified Bids; (c) determine which Qualified Bid is the highest or otherwise best proposal and which is the next highest or otherwise best proposal; (d) reject any bid that is (i) inadequate or insufficient, (ii) not in conformity with the requirements of these Bidding Procedures or the requirements of the Bankruptcy Code or (iii) contrary to the best interests of the Debtors and their estates; (e) impose additional terms, conditions and/or procedures with respect to all potential bidders other than the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (f) adopt rules for the Auction that the Debtors reasonably determine to be appropriate and promote the goals of the sale process. No Auction rules adopted by the Debtors may modify any of the terms of the APA or the rights of the Stalking Horse Bidder under the Bidding Procedures without the express written consent of the Stalking Horse Bidder.

The Auction shall include open bidding in the presence of all other Qualified Bidders. All Qualified Bidders shall have the right to submit additional Bids and make modifications to any prior Qualified Bid or Overbid at the Auction to improve their Bids; provided that any Overbid made by a Qualified Bidder (including with respect to any Backup Bid (defined below)) must remain open and binding on the Qualified Bidder until the earlier of (a) the closing of a Sale Transaction for the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Successful Bid and (b) the Backup Bid Expiration Date, unless agreed to by the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) or otherwise ordered by the Court.

C. Adjournment of the Auction.

The Debtors reserve the right, in their reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties), to adjourn the Auction one or more times to, among other things: (i) facilitate discussions between the Debtors and Qualified Bidders,

(ii) allow Qualified Bidders to consider how they wish to proceed, and (iii) provide Qualified Bidders the opportunity to provide the Debtors with such additional evidence as the Debtors, in their reasonable business judgment, may require, that the Qualified Bidder has sufficient internal resources or has received sufficient non-contingent debt or equity funding commitments to consummate the proposed Sale Transaction(s) at the prevailing bid amount.

D. Successful Bidder.

If the Auction for the Acquired Assets is cancelled because only the Stalking Horse Bid is submitted on or before the Bid Deadline, the Stalking Horse Bid shall be designated as the “Successful Bidder” (and such Bid, the “Successful Bid”).

If the Auction is conducted, the Debtors shall identify at the conclusion of the Auction (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) and subject to Court approval, the offer or offers for the relevant Acquired Assets that is or are the highest or otherwise best from among the Qualified Bids submitted at the Auction, which determination shall consider, in consultation with the Consultation Parties, the amount of the purchase price, the assumption of liabilities, the transaction structure, and execution risk, including, without limitation, the likelihood of the bidder’s ability to close a transaction and the timing thereof, the number, type, and nature of any changes to the APA submitted with the Successful Bid, as applicable, requested by each bidder, the total consideration to the Debtors’ estates, and any other factors the Debtors may deem relevant. In such case, the Qualified Bidder who submitted such Successful Bid shall be designated the Successful Bidder.

VIII. BACKUP BIDDER.

Notwithstanding anything in these Bidding Procedures to the contrary, if an Auction is conducted, the Qualified Bidder with the next-highest or otherwise second-best Qualified Bid as compared to the Successful Bid at the Auction for the Acquired Assets, as determined by the Debtors in the exercise of their reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) (the “Backup Bid”), shall be required to serve as a backup bidder (the “Backup Bidder”), and each Qualified Bidder shall agree and be deemed to agree to be the Backup Bidder if so designated. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall not be obligated to act as the Backup Bidder, but may elect to serve as the Backup Bidder in its sole discretion.

The identity of the respective Backup Bidder and the amount and material terms of the Qualified Bid of such Backup Bidder shall be announced by the Debtors at the conclusion of the Auction at the same time the Debtors announce the identity of the Successful Bidder.

The Backup Bids shall remain binding on the Backup Bidders until the earlier of (a) the closing of a Sale Transaction for the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Successful Bid and (b) the Backup Bid Expiration Date, unless otherwise agreed between the Debtors and the Backup Bidders.

In the event that a Successful Bidder fails to close a Sale on or before June 17, 2024, or such date as may be extended by the Debtors with the consent of the Ad Hoc Noteholder Group, and Backup Bidder has been previously identified, the Debtors shall file a notice that the Debtors intend to proceed with closing the Backup Bid (the “Backup Bid Sale Notice”) and serve such notice on the U.S. Trustee and those parties who filed a request to receive notice under Bankruptcy Rule 2002. Three (3) business days following the filing of any Backup Bid Sale Notice, the Backup Bid subject to such Backup Bid Sale Notice will be deemed to be the Successful Bid, the Backup Bidder will be deemed to be the Successful Bidder, and the Debtors shall be authorized, but not directed, to close the Sale to the Backup Bidder subject to the terms of the Backup Bid without the need for further order of the Court and without the need for further notice to any other parties.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Stalking Horse Bidder shall have no obligation to act as a Backup Bidder following the Auction (if any) in the event that the Stalking Horse Bidder is not selected as the Successful Bidder provided that the Stalking Horse Bidder has the unilateral right to elect to serve as the Backup Bidder in its sole discretion.

IX. ACCEPTANCE OF SUCCESSFUL BID

The Debtor’s presentation of a particular Qualified Bid to the Court for approval does not constitute the Debtor’s acceptance of such Qualified Bid. The Debtors will be deemed to have accepted a Bid only when the Bid has been approved by the Court at the Sale Hearing. The Debtors shall seek approval by the Court to consummate the respective Backup Bid, solely in the event the respective Successful Bidder fails to close the transaction as provided in the Successful Bid and with all rights reserved against such Successful Bidder.

X. FREE AND CLEAR OF ANY AND ALL ENCUMBRANCES

Except as otherwise provided in a Proposed APA submitted by Successful Bidder (including any exhibits or schedules thereto) all of the Debtors’ right, title and interest in and to the Acquired Assets subject thereto shall be sold and transferred to the Successful Bidder free and clear of any pledges, liens, security interests, encumbrances, claims, charges, options and interests thereon (collectively, “Liens”) to the maximum extent permitted by section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, with such Liens to attach to the net proceeds of the sale of the Acquired Assets with the same validity and priority as such Liens applied against the Acquired Assets.

XI. CONSULTATION BY THE DEBTORS

The Debtors shall consult with the Consultation Parties as explicitly provided for in these Bidding Procedures. Each reference in these Bidding Procedures to “consultation” (or similar phrase) with the Consultation Parties shall mean consultation in good faith and with a reasonable time for each Consultation Party to respond.

XII. RESERVATION OF RIGHTS.

The Debtors reserve the right to, in their reasonable business judgment (in consultation with the Consultation Parties) and as to the Acquired Assets only with the consent of the Stalking Horse Bidder, to modify these Bidding Procedures in good faith, to further the goal of attaining the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, or impose, at or prior to selection of the respective Successful Bidder, additional customary terms and conditions on the Sale of the Acquired Assets including, without limitation: (a) extending the deadlines set forth in these Bidding Procedures; (b) adjourning the Auction (if held) without further notice; (c) adding or modifying procedural rules that are reasonably necessary or advisable under the circumstances for conducting the Auction and/or adjourning the Sale Hearing (as defined below) in open court (if held); (d) canceling the Auction or electing not to hold an Auction; (e) rejecting any or all Bids or Qualified Bids; (f) adjusting the applicable Minimum Overbid Amount, including by requesting that Qualified Bidders submit last or final bids on a “blind basis”; and (g) selecting a draft purchase agreement agreed to by a Qualified Bidder in connection with a Qualified Bid to serve as the Proposed APA that will be executed by the Successful Bidder or Successful Bidders, as applicable and with any necessary adjustments for the assets and liabilities being purchased and assumed, upon conclusion of the Auction, if held. The Debtors shall provide reasonable notice of any such modification to any Qualified Bidder after obtaining the consent of the Stalking Horse Bidder of any such modification as to the Acquired Assets.

XIII. CONSENT TO JURISDICTION.

All Interested Bidders shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and to have waived any right to jury trial in connection with any disputes relating to the bidding process, the Auction, the Sale Transaction, and any other matter relating to, or contemplated by, the APA and any other Bid. At the commencement of the Auction, each Qualified Bidder shall be required to confirm, including, at the Debtors’ request, by affidavit, the Qualified Bidder’s good faith, within the meaning of Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that it has not engaged in any collusion with any other bidder or prospective bidder, or with the Debtors with respect to the bidding process, the Auction, or the Sale Transaction.

XIV. SALE IS AS IS/WHERE IS

Except as otherwise set forth in the Proposed APA of the Successful Bidder or the Sale Order, the sale of the Acquired Assets pursuant to the Bidding Procedures shall be on an “as is, where is” basis and without any representations or warranties of any kind, nature, or description by the Debtors or their agents.

XV. SALE HEARING

A hearing to consider approval of the Sale of the Acquired Assets to the Successful Bidder, Backup Bidder (if applicable), or to approve the APA if no Auction is held (the “Sale Hearing”), is currently scheduled to take place on May [●], 2024, at :-00 -.m., (ET), unless delayed as set forth above, before the Honorable [●], at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, [●], [●], Courtroom No. [●], [●], New York [●].

The Sale Hearing may be continued to a later date by the Debtors (in consultation with the Consultation Parties and the Stalking Horse Bidder) by making an announcement at the Sale Hearing. No further notice of any such continuance will be required to be provided to any party.

The Stalking Horse Bidder and any entity that becomes a Successful Bidder shall have standing and are deemed to be parties in interest with standing to be heard on any motion, hearing or other matter related to the Sale, the Auction, the APA or any Bid, or other transfer and sale of the Acquired Assets.

At the Sale Hearing, each Successful Bidder and Backup Bidder must acknowledge on the record at the start of the hearing that in connection with submitting their Bids, they did not engage in any collusion that would be subject to section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to any Bids, the Auction or the Sale, specifying that they did not agree with any Interested Bidders, Acceptable Bidders or Qualified Bidders to control the price or any other terms of the Sale.

XVI. OBJECTIONS.

Following service of the Notice of Successful Bid, parties may file an objection solely with respect to the conduct of the Auction, the Auction results, the selection of the Successful Bid and/or Backup Bid, or the terms of any Sale to the Successful Bidder or the Backup Bidder (each, a “Successful Bid Objection”). Any Successful Bid Objection shall be (i) be in writing; (ii) state with specificity the grounds for such objection; (iii) comply with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (iv) be filed with the Court by no later than May [], 2024, at 4:00 p.m. (ET) (the “Successful Bid Objection Deadline”); and (v) served on (1) the Debtors, c/o Baker & McKenzie LLP, Attn: John R. Dodd (john.dodd@bakermckenzie.com) and Blaire Cahn (blaire.cahn@bakermckenzie.com), so as to be actually received on or before the Successful Bid Objection Deadline.

Except objections relating to the conduct of the Auction, the Auction results, the selection of any Successful Bid and/or Backup Bid, or the terms of any Sale to a Successful Bidder and/or Backup Bidder, which may be filed as part of a Successful Bid Objection, all objections to the sale of the Acquired Assets (each, a “Sale Objection”), including any objection to the sale of any Acquired Assets free and clear of liens, claims, interests, and encumbrances pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code to a Successful Bidder and/or a Backup Bidder (as applicable), shall (a) be in writing; (b) state with specificity the grounds for such objection; (c) comply with the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules; (d) be filed with the Court no later than May [●], at 4:00 p.m. (ET) (the “Sale Objection Deadline”); and (e) be served on the Notice Parties.

The Debtors and any other entity shall have until May [●], at 12:00 p.m. (ET), to file and serve a reply to any Sale Objection or Successful Bid Objection. A party’s failure to timely file or make an objection in accordance with this Order shall forever bar the assertion of any objection to the Motion, entry of the Sale Order, and/or consummation of the Sale with the applicable Successful Bidder pursuant to the applicable Proposed APA, including the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts to the Successful Bidder pursuant to the applicable Proposed APA, and shall be deemed to constitute any such party's consent to entry of the Sale Order and consummation of the Sale and all transactions related thereto, including, without limitation, such assumption and assignment. All rights to the extent they exist are reserved for a party to later seek relief from the Court, and the Debtors and all other parties reserve all defenses.

XVII. FIDUCIARY OUT.

Nothing in these Bidding Procedures will require the board of directors, board of managers, or such similar governing body of the Debtors or any non-debtor affiliate to take any action, or to refrain from taking any action, with respect to the Bidding Procedures, to the extent such board of directors, board of managers, or such similar governing body reasonably determines in good faith that taking such action, or refraining from taking such action, as applicable, would be inconsistent with applicable law or its fiduciary obligations under applicable law.

XVIII. RETURN OF GOOD FAITH DEPOSIT.

The Good Faith Deposits of the Successful Bidder shall be applied to the purchase price of such respective transaction at closing. The Good Faith Deposits for each Qualified Bidder shall be held in one or more accounts on terms acceptable to the Debtors in their sole discretion and shall be returned (other than with respect to the Stalking Horse Bidder, the Successful Bidder, and the Backup Bidder) on or before the date that is five (5) business days after the Auction. The Stalking Horse Bidder's Good Faith Deposit shall be returned in accordance with the terms of the APA. The Backup Bidder's Good Faith Deposit shall be held in escrow until the closing of the Sale with the respective Successful Bidder. In the event the respective Successful Bidder fails to close and the Debtors opt to close on the Sale Transaction(s) set forth in the Backup Bid, the Backup Bidder's Good Faith Deposit shall be applied to the purchase price of such transaction(s) at closing. In the event of a breach or failure to consummate a Sale by the Successful Bidder or the Backup Bidder, as applicable, the defaulting Successful Bidder's Good Faith Deposit or Backup Bidder's Good Faith Deposit, as applicable, shall be forfeited to the Debtors, and the Debtors specifically reserve the right to seek all available remedies against the defaulting Successful Bidder or Backup Bidder, as applicable, subject to the terms of the APA.

XIX. ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT PROCEDURES

If in the event a Successful Bid or Backup Bid provides for the assumption and assignment of Assigned Contracts, the Debtors shall follow the Assumption and Assignment Procedures set forth in paragraph 21 of the Bidding Procedures Order.

XX. JURISDICTION.

The Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over any matter or dispute relating to the Bidding Procedures, the Auction, the Successful Bid, the Sale Hearing, the Sale, and any other matter that in any way relates to the foregoing.

Section 1.5 Assignment of Assigned Contracts; Cure Costs.

(a) Schedule 1.5(a) sets forth, with respect to each Assigned Contract, the estimated amount required to be paid as of the date hereof with respect to each Assigned Contract to cure all monetary defaults under such Assigned Contract to the extent required by section 365(b) and otherwise satisfy all requirements imposed by sections 365(b) and (d) of the Bankruptcy Code (the actual amount of such costs with respect to the Assigned Contracts, the “Cure Costs”). Prior to the Sale Hearing, Sellers shall notify non-Seller counterparties to such Assigned Contracts listed on the Assigned Contracts Schedule as of the date hereof of the deadline to object to the Cure Costs, if any, and the Bankruptcy Court shall have determined the Cure Costs with respect to any Assigned Contract entered into prior to the Petition Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to the applicable Designation Deadline, Purchaser may identify any Contract (other than as set forth on the Excluded Assets Schedule or to the extent otherwise an Excluded Asset other than pursuant to Section 1.2(k)) that Purchaser desires to have included as, or excluded from being, an Assigned Contract in accordance with Section 1.5(h).

(b) To the maximum extent permitted by the Bankruptcy Code and subject to the other provisions of this Section 1.5, Sellers agree to promptly satisfy all Cure Costs (other than the Purchaser Cure Costs, the “Seller Cure Costs”) as and when such Cure Costs become due in respect of Assigned Contracts for which Bankruptcy Court approval to transfer has been obtained; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser agrees to promptly satisfy all Cure Costs in respect of any Additional Assigned Contracts (the “Purchaser Cure Costs”); provided, further, that on the Closing Date, Sellers shall have paid or otherwise satisfied the Seller Cure Costs and Purchaser shall have paid or otherwise satisfied the Purchaser Cure Costs, in each case, for which Bankruptcy Court approval to transfer have been obtained on or prior to the Closing Date. Following the payment of any such Cure Costs, Sellers shall assign to Purchaser the Assigned Contracts pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Sale Order, subject to the provision of adequate assurance by Purchaser in respect of the Assigned Contracts as may be required under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code as determined by the Bankruptcy Court.

(c) To the maximum extent permitted by the Bankruptcy Code and subject to the other provisions of this Section 1.5, Sellers shall assume and assign all of the Assigned Contracts to Purchaser and Purchaser shall assume all of the Assigned Contracts from Sellers, as of the Closing Date, pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in this Agreement nor the consummation of the Transactions shall be construed as an attempt or agreement to Transfer any Acquired Asset, including any Contract, Permit, certificate, approval, authorization or other right, which is not capable of being Transferred pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, to the extent that the sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or delivery or attempted sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or delivery to Purchaser of any asset that would be an Acquired Asset or any claim or right or any benefit arising thereunder or resulting therefrom is prohibited by any applicable Law, is the subject of an objection to assignment or assumption or would require any consent from any Governmental Entity or third party and such consents shall not have been obtained prior to the Closing (and such consent cannot be effectively overridden or canceled by Sale Order or other related order of the Bankruptcy Court) or such objection has not been resolved prior to the Closing Date (the “Non-Assignable Assets”), the Closing shall proceed without any reduction in Purchase Price or Closing Consideration without the sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or delivery of such asset unless there is a failure of one or more of the conditions set forth in Article VI; in which case, the Closing shall proceed only if each failed condition is resolved or waived by the party entitled to the benefit thereof. In the event the Closing proceeds without the transfer or assignment of any such Non-Assignable Asset, then following the Closing, Purchaser and Sellers, to the extent Sellers are still in existence and have the resources and personnel to do so, shall use commercially reasonable efforts subject to any approval of the Bankruptcy Court that may be required, to cooperate with the other party, to obtain such consent as promptly as practicable following the Closing; provided, that no party shall be obligated to incur any costs or expenses or provide any financial accommodation or other consideration of any nature to any Person to facilitate obtaining such consent to transfer any Non-Assignable Asset. Pending the receipt of such consent, the parties shall, subject to any approval of the Bankruptcy Court that may be required, reasonably cooperate with each other to provide Purchaser with all of the benefits of, and for Purchaser to bear the burdens of and Liabilities for, including indemnifying Sellers for any Liabilities arising from the performance (as directed by Purchaser) by any Seller under the Non-Assignable Assets, use of such Non-Assignable Asset. Once consent for the sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or delivery of any such asset not sold, transferred, assigned, conveyed or delivered at the Closing is obtained, Sellers shall promptly transfer, assign, convey and deliver such asset to Purchaser. To the extent that any such asset cannot be transferred or the full benefits or use of any such asset cannot be provided to Purchaser, then as promptly as practicable following the Closing, Purchaser and Sellers shall enter into such arrangements (including subleasing, sublicensing or subcontracting), and shall reasonably cooperate with each other to provide Purchaser with all of the benefits of, and for Purchaser to bear the burdens of and Liabilities for, including indemnifying Sellers for any Liabilities arising from the performance (as directed by Purchaser) by any Seller under the Non-Assignable Assets, use of such Non-Assignable Asset. Sellers shall hold in trust for, and pay to Purchaser, promptly upon receipt thereof, all income, proceeds and other monies received by any member of the Seller Group derived from their use of any asset that would be an Acquired Asset in connection with the arrangements under this Section 1.5(d). No member of the Seller Group shall have any obligation to renew any Non-Assignable Asset upon the expiration or termination thereof.

(e) The parties agree to treat any asset the benefits of which are transferred pursuant to Section 1.5(d) as having been sold to Purchaser for Tax purposes to the extent permitted by Law. Each Seller and Purchaser agree to notify the other parties promptly in writing if it determines that such treatment (to the extent consistent with the relevant arrangement agreed to by Sellers and Purchaser pursuant to Section 1.5(d)) is not permitted for Tax purposes under applicable Law.

(f) If a counterparty to a Contract set forth on the Assigned Contracts Schedule timely objects to the assumption or assignment or the amount of the Cure Costs payable with respect to such contract or lease, as applicable, Sellers shall request that the Bankruptcy Court hear and determine such objection on an expedited basis. If such objection has not been resolved prior to the Closing (whether by an order of the Bankruptcy Court or by agreement with the contract or lease counterparty), Purchaser may elect to (i) treat such contract as a Non-Assignable Asset or (ii) temporarily treat the contract as a Non-Assignable Asset (a “Designated Agreement”), proceed to Closing without any reduction in Purchase Price or Closing Consideration without the sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or delivery of such Designated Agreement, unless there is a failure of one or more of the conditions set forth in Article VI (in which case, the Closing shall proceed only if each failed condition is resolved or waived by the party entitled to the benefit thereof), with respect to all other Acquired Assets, and determine whether to treat the Designated Agreement as an Assigned Contract, as applicable, or a Non-Assignable Asset within five (5) Business Days after resolution of such objection (whether by an order of the Bankruptcy Court or by agreement of Purchaser and the contract or lease counterparty).

(g) To the extent that any Contract or Permit to be sold, transferred, conveyed or assigned (any sale, transfer, conveyance or assignment, a “Transfer”) to Purchaser pursuant to the terms of Section 1.5 is not capable of being Transferred to Purchaser (after giving effect to the Sale Order) without the consent of a third Person, or if such Transfer or attempted Transfer would, or if the subsequent Transfer or attempted Transfer of the equity interests of Purchaser would, constitute a breach thereof or a violation of any Law, nothing in this Agreement or in any document, agreement or instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement will constitute a Transfer or an attempted Transfer thereof prior to the time at which all consents necessary for such Transfer will have been obtained unless an Order of the Bankruptcy Court effects such Transfer without consent.

(h) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Purchaser may, in its sole and absolute discretion, by written notice to Sellers amend or revise the Assigned Contracts Schedule in order to, in each case with respect to a Contract that is not set forth on the Excluded Assets Schedule or an Excluded Asset other than pursuant to Section 1.2(k), (i) eliminate any Contract from such schedule at any time during the period commencing from the date hereof and ending two (2) Business Days before the commencement of the Sale Hearing or (ii) add any Contract to such schedule at any time and from time to time, until the date which is thirty (30) days before the Closing Date; provided that the counter-party to such Contract or Permit is provided sufficient notice and an opportunity to object to such assumption and assignment (in each case, as applicable, the “Designation Deadline”). Automatically upon the addition of any Contract to the Assigned Contracts Schedule, it shall be an Assigned Contract for all purposes of this Agreement, until such time (if any) as such Contract is eliminated from the Assigned Contracts Schedule. If Purchaser adds one or more Contracts to the Assigned Contracts Schedule after the date hereof and Sellers have not previously notified the non-Seller counterparties to such Contracts pursuant to Section 1.5(a) (such Contracts, the “Additional Assigned Contracts”), Sellers shall file any supplemental motion required to assume and assign such Additional Assigned Contracts and shall provide such supplemental notice as is required, and the hearing with respect to the assumption and assignment of such Additional Assigned Contracts may occur after the Sale Hearing. Automatically upon the removal of any Contract from the Assigned Contracts Schedule, such Contract shall be an Excluded Asset (and for the avoidance of doubt shall cease to be an Assigned Contract) for all purposes of this Agreement, and no Liabilities arising thereunder shall be assumed or borne by Purchaser.

Section 1.6 Purchase Price; Escrow Funds.

(a) Aggregate Consideration. The aggregate consideration for the purchase and sale of the Acquired Assets will be (i) the payment of the Closing Consideration in accordance with Section 2.2(b)(i) and this Section 1.6 and (ii) the assumption of the Assumed Liabilities by Purchaser in accordance with Section 1.3. For purposes of this Agreement, “Closing Consideration” shall mean an amount equal to:

(i) $185,000,000 (the “Purchase Price”), plus

(ii) the amount, if any, of the Net Working Capital Adjustment (which may be a negative number).

(b) Escrow Funds; Deposit Funds Release. Purchaser shall deposit into escrow with the Escrow Agent amounts equal to (i) $18,500,000 within three (3) Business Days of the execution of this Agreement (such amount, together with all interest and other earnings accrued thereon, the “Deposit Funds”) and (ii) $5,000,000 at the Closing (such amount, together with all interest and other earnings accrued thereon, the “Working Capital Escrow Funds,” and collectively with the Deposit Funds, the “Escrow Funds”), by wire transfer of immediately available funds into separate accounts pursuant to the terms of the Escrow Agreement. The Deposit Funds shall be released by the Escrow Agent and delivered to either (x) Purchaser or (y) Seller Parent, on behalf of Sellers, as follows:

(i) if the Closing shall occur, the Deposit Funds shall be applied towards the portion of the Closing Consideration payable by Purchaser to Sellers pursuant to Section 1.6(a) and shall be released to Seller Parent at the Closing;

(ii) if this Agreement is terminated by Seller Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(iii), unless at the time of such termination Purchaser had an independent right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to the other terms of Section 7.1, then the Deposit Funds shall be released to Seller Parent within two (2) Business Days following such termination; or

(iii) if this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.1 other than pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(iii) (or this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 7.1(b)(iii) and at such time Purchaser had an independent right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to the other terms of Section 7.1), in addition to any of Purchaser's rights pursuant to Section 7.2(b) and Section 7.2(c), the Deposit Funds shall be released to Purchaser within two (2) Business Days after such termination.

(i) Estimated Closing Consideration. No later than five (5) Business Days prior to the Closing, Seller Parent shall provide Purchaser with a statement (the "Estimated Closing Statement") setting forth its good faith calculations of (A) the Net Working Capital as of the Calculation Time (the "Estimated Net Working Capital") and (B) the estimated Closing Consideration based on the Estimated Net Working Capital (the "Estimated Closing Consideration"), together with such schedules and data as are reasonably necessary to support the calculation thereof, including a corresponding (1) Accounts Receivable Schedule, (2) Specified Pre-Paid Expenses Schedule, (3) Inventory Schedule, (4) CMO Payables Schedule, (5) GTN Liabilities Schedule and (6) Royalty Payment Schedule (such schedules, collectively, the "Working Capital Schedules"). Seller Parent will, subject to and in accordance with Section 5.2, permit Purchaser and its Representatives reasonable access to the personnel, properties, books and records involved in or utilized in preparing the Estimated Closing Statement. If Purchaser raises any reasonable objections to the calculations set forth in the Estimated Closing Statement, Seller Parent will consider in good faith such objections prior to the Closing to the extent submitted in writing to Seller Parent at least one (1) Business Day prior to the Closing; provided that, in no event will (x) Purchaser have any right to delay or prevent the Closing based on objections raised to the calculations set forth in the Estimated Closing Statement or the inability to access timely the foregoing personnel, properties, books and records in compliance with Section 5.2 for the purpose of evaluating the foregoing calculations or (y) Seller Parent have any obligation to agree to any adjustments to the Estimated Net Working Capital or the Estimated Closing Consideration based on such objections or access limitations.

(ii) Proposed Actual Closing Consideration. No later than sixty (60) days following the Closing, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller Parent a statement (the "Closing Statement") setting forth its good faith calculations of (A) the actual Net Working Capital as of the Calculation Time (the "Actual Net Working Capital") and (B) the actual Closing Consideration based on the Actual Net Working Capital (the "Actual Closing Consideration"), together with such schedules and data as are reasonably necessary to support the calculation thereof, including corresponding Working Capital Schedules. The parties agree that the purpose of determining the Actual Net Working Capital and the Actual Closing Consideration contemplated by this Section 1.6 is to measure the difference in Actual Net Working Capital as compared to the Estimated Working Capital, and such processes are not intended to permit the introduction of different or new judgments, accounting methods, policies, principles, practices, procedures, classifications or estimation methodologies for the purpose of determining the Final Net Working Capital or the Final Closing Consideration than those set forth in the Accounting Principles and the applicable definitions set forth herein. The Estimated Closing Statement and the Closing Statement shall be prepared in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Accounting Principles and the applicable definitions set forth herein.

(iii) Final Closing Consideration Determination.

(A) No later than sixty (60) days following the delivery by Purchaser of the Closing Statement, Seller Parent shall notify Purchaser in writing whether it accepts or disputes the accuracy of the calculation of the Actual Net Working Capital or the Actual Closing Consideration. During such sixty (60) day period, Seller Parent and its Representatives shall be provided with such access to personnel and other Representatives of Purchaser and its Affiliates, as well as any work papers and books and records, including any Acquired Books and Records, of Purchaser, its Affiliates or its or their respective Representatives, as it may reasonably request to enable it to evaluate the calculations of Actual Net Working Capital and Actual Closing Consideration prepared by Purchaser. If Seller Parent accepts the calculations of Actual Net Working Capital and Actual Closing Consideration prepared by Purchaser pursuant to Section 1.6(c)(ii), or if Seller Parent fails within such sixty (60) day period to notify Purchaser of any dispute with respect thereto, then the calculations of Actual Net Working Capital and Actual Closing Consideration pursuant to Section 1.6(c)(ii) shall be the “Final Net Working Capital” and the “Final Closing Consideration” which shall be deemed final and conclusive and binding upon all parties in all respects.

(B) If Seller Parent disputes the calculation of the Actual Net Working Capital or the Actual Closing Consideration, Seller Parent shall provide written notice to Purchaser no later than sixty (60) days following the delivery by Purchaser to Seller Parent of the Closing Statement (the “Dispute Notice”), setting forth in reasonable detail those items and dollar amounts that Seller Parent disputes (and the basis for such dispute), together with Seller Parent’s alternative calculation of each disputed item; provided, that Purchaser and Seller Parent shall be deemed to have agreed on all items contained in the Closing Statement that are not subject to the Dispute Notice. During the forty-five (45) day period following delivery of the Dispute Notice, Purchaser and Seller Parent shall negotiate in good faith with a view to resolving their disagreements over the disputed items. All negotiations between Purchaser and Seller Parent regarding the matters set forth in a Dispute Notice shall be governed by Rule 408 of the Federal Rules of Evidence and any comparable applicable state or foreign rule. During such forty-five (45) day period and until the final determination of Actual Net Working Capital and Actual Closing Consideration in accordance with this Section 1.6(c)(iii)(B) or Section 1.6(c)(iii)(C), as the case may be (as so determined, or as determined pursuant to Section 1.6(c)(iii)(A), “Final Net Working Capital” and “Final Closing Consideration”, respectively), Seller Parent and its Representatives shall be provided with such access to personnel and other Representatives of Purchaser and its Affiliates, as well as any work papers and books and records, including any Acquired Books and Records, of Purchaser, its Affiliates or its or their respective Representatives, as it may reasonably request to enable it to address all matters set forth in any Dispute Notice. If the parties resolve their differences over the disputed items in accordance with the foregoing procedure, the “Final Net Working Capital” and “Final Closing Consideration” shall be the amounts agreed upon by them. If the parties fail to resolve their differences over the disputed items within such forty-five (45) day period, then Purchaser and Seller Parent shall forthwith jointly request that a nationally recognized independent public accounting firm as shall be mutually agreed by Purchaser and Seller Parent (or if no such firm can be engaged, another independent public accounting firm as mutually agreed by Purchaser and Seller Parent, in good faith) (the “Accounting Expert”) make a binding determination, as an expert and not as an arbitrator, as to the disputed items in accordance with this Agreement; provided that (1) the basis of the Accounting Expert’s determination must be based solely on the definitions and other applicable provisions of this Agreement or correcting mathematical errors; and (2) each party agrees that it shall not engage in any ex parte communications with the Accounting Expert.

(C) The Accounting Expert will under the terms of its engagement have no more than thirty (30) days from the date of referral within which to render its written decision with respect to the disputed items (and only with respect to any unresolved disputed items set forth in the Dispute Notice) and the final calculations of Actual Net Working Capital and Actual Closing Consideration shall be based solely on the resolution of such disputed items. The Accounting Expert shall review such submissions and base its determination solely on such submissions. In resolving any disputed item, the Accounting Expert may not assign a value to any item greater than the maximum value for such item claimed by either party or less than the minimum value for such item claimed by either party. The decision of the Accounting Expert shall be deemed final and binding upon the parties and enforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction and the Accounting Expert’s final calculation of the Actual Net Working Capital shall be deemed the “Final Net Working Capital” and of the Actual Closing Consideration shall be deemed the “Final Closing Consideration”. The fees and expenses of the Accounting Expert shall be allocated to be paid by Purchaser, on the one hand, and Seller Parent, on the other, based upon the percentage that the portion of the contested amount not awarded to each party bears to the amount actually contested by such party, as determined by the Accounting Expert.

(iv) Final Closing Consideration Payment. Following the final determination of the Final Net Working Capital and Final Closing Consideration pursuant to Section 1.6(c)(iii):

(A) if the Final Closing Consideration is greater than or equal to the Estimated Closing Consideration, then (x) Purchaser shall pay to Seller Parent the amount, if any, by which the Final Closing Consideration is in excess of the Estimated Closing Consideration; provided, that in no event shall Purchaser be required to pay an amount pursuant to this clause (x) in excess of $5,000,000 and (y) Purchaser and Sellers shall provide joint written instructions, executed by their respective authorized representatives under the Escrow Agreement, to the Escrow Agent that instruct the Escrow Agent to release the Working Capital Escrow Funds to Seller Parent, on behalf of Sellers; and

(B) if the Final Closing Consideration is less than the Estimated Closing Consideration, then Purchaser and Seller shall provide joint written instructions, executed by their respective authorized representatives under the Escrow Agreement, to the Escrow Agent that instruct the Escrow Agent to release (x) to Purchaser, an amount of the Working Capital Escrow Funds equal to the amount by which the Estimated Closing Consideration is in excess of the Final Closing Consideration and (y) to Seller Parent, on behalf of Sellers, any amounts remaining in the Working Capital Escrow Funds, after giving effect to the release contemplated by the preceding clause (x).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (A) in the event that the full amount (if any) by which the Estimated Closing Consideration exceeds the Final Closing Consideration is greater than the Working Capital Escrow Funds, neither Purchaser nor any of its Affiliates or its or their respective Representatives shall have any recourse with respect to such shortfall against Seller Parent, any of its Affiliates, its or their respective Representatives or any other Person and (B) in the event that the full amount (if any) by which the Final Closing Consideration exceeds the Estimated Closing Consideration is greater than $5,000,000, neither Seller Parent nor any of its Affiliates or its or their respective Representatives shall have any recourse with respect to such shortfall against Purchaser, any of its Affiliates, its or their respective Representatives or any other Person. All payments pursuant to this Section 1.6(c)(iv), including all such payments and releases from the Working Capital Escrow Funds, shall be made (to an account (or accounts) designated in writing in advance by Seller Parent or Purchaser, as applicable) by wire transfer of immediately available funds on or prior to the second (2nd) Business Day following the final determination of the Final Closing Consideration pursuant to Section 1.6(c)(iii). For purposes of any calculations with respect to the Closing Consideration, the parties acknowledge and agree that any effects of Purchaser's or any of its Affiliates' purchase accounting with respect to the Transactions shall not be considered with respect to any calculations of the Closing Consideration.

Section 1.7 Withholding. Purchaser and Sellers shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration payable hereunder such amounts as are required to be deducted and withheld with respect thereto under the Code or any other Tax Law; provided that each of Purchaser and Sellers shall use commercially reasonable efforts to provide the other party at least five (5) Business Days written notice prior to withholding any amounts pursuant to this Section 1.7, and shall work together in good faith to minimize or eliminate any such withholding. To the extent that amounts are so deducted and withheld, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the Person in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made.

Section 1.8 Closing Consideration Allocation. The parties agree to allocate for Tax purposes (and, as applicable, to cause their respective Affiliates to allocate for Tax purposes) the Closing Consideration plus Assumed Liabilities and any other amounts treated as additional consideration for Tax purposes among the Acquired Assets in accordance with the following procedures and, to the extent applicable, in accordance with Section 1060 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder. Within ninety (90) days after the Closing Date, Purchaser shall deliver to Seller Parent, on behalf of Sellers, a proposed allocation of the Closing Consideration, the Assumed Liabilities (to the extent properly taken into account for income Tax purposes) and any other amounts treated as additional consideration for income Tax purposes as of the Closing Date (the “Allocation”). If Seller Parent notifies Purchaser in writing of any reasonable objections to one or more items reflected in the Allocation within thirty (30) days after Purchaser’s delivery thereof, Seller Parent and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith to resolve such dispute. If Purchaser and Seller Parent cannot resolve such dispute within twenty (20) days after Seller Parent notifies Purchaser of such objections, the parties shall be free to take different reporting positions on their Tax Returns and none of Purchaser or Sellers shall be required to report consistent with the Allocation. If Purchaser and Sellers agree in writing on all items reflected in the Allocation, the Allocation (including as finally determined and adjusted to reflect any Closing Consideration adjustments) shall be final and binding on the parties, and each of the parties (a) shall (and shall cause its Affiliates to) prepare and file all Tax Returns (and Internal Revenue Service Forms 8594) in a manner consistent with the Allocation and (b) shall not (and shall cause its Affiliates not to) take any position on any Tax Return or in connection with any Tax proceeding inconsistent with the Allocation, in each case, except to the extent otherwise required by a “determination” within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code (or any analogous provision of applicable state, local or non-U.S. Law). Promptly after any time that the Closing Consideration is treated as being adjusted for applicable Tax purposes, Purchaser shall make adjustments to the Allocation as in its reasonable discretion are necessary to reflect such adjustments to the Closing Consideration.

Purchaser is a limited liability company duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of North Carolina and has all requisite limited liability company or similar power and authority to own, lease and operate its properties and assets and to carry on its business as presently conducted, except where the failure to be in good standing would not and would not reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, prevent, prohibit, materially impair or materially delay Purchaser's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement prior to the Outside Date. Purchaser is qualified to do business and is in good standing (with respect to jurisdictions that recognize such concept) as a foreign corporation or other entity in each jurisdiction where the ownership, leasing or operation of its assets or properties or conduct of its business requires such qualification, except where the failure to be so qualified or, where relevant, in good standing, would not and would not reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, prevent, prohibit, materially impair or materially delay Purchaser's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement prior to the Outside Date.

Section 4.2 Authority of Purchaser. Purchaser has all requisite limited liability company power and authority to execute and deliver and perform its obligations under this Agreement and each of the Ancillary Documents to which it is a party (subject to entry of the Bidding Procedures Order and Sale Order). The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement and such Ancillary Documents by Purchaser and the consummation of the Transactions have been duly and validly authorized and approved by all requisite corporate action of Purchaser, as applicable, and no other corporate proceedings (pursuant to any of Purchaser's organizational documents or otherwise) on the part of Purchaser are necessary to authorize the consummation of, and to consummate the Transactions. Section 4.5 No Violations. Except as described in Section 3.3 and Section 4.4, none of the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement and the Ancillary Documents by Purchaser to the extent a party thereto nor the consummation by Purchaser of the Transactions will (a) conflict with or result in any violation or breach of any provisions of the certificate of incorporation, bylaws or other organizational documents of Purchaser, (b) with or without notice or lapse of time or both, conflict with or result in any breach or violation of or constitute a default or change of control under, or give rise to a right of, or result in, termination, modification, cancellation, first offer, first refusal or acceleration of any obligation or to the loss of a benefit under any Contract to which Purchaser is a party or by or to which any of its properties, rights or assets are bound or subject or (c) conflict with or violate any Order or Law applicable to Purchaser or its properties, rights or assets, except in the case of the preceding clauses (b) and (c), for breaches, violations, defaults or terminations that would not and would not reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, prevent, prohibit, materially impair or materially delay Purchaser's ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement prior to the Outside Date.

Purchaser agrees and acknowledges that, except as expressly warranted in Article III, it is purchasing the Assumed Assets “as-is, where-is,” and “if-is.” Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the foregoing limitations shall not apply to, and nothing herein shall limit, Purchaser’s remedies in the event of fraud by Sellers or Purchaser’s rights and remedies under any Ancillary Document.

Purchaser acknowledges that (i) Sellers are and shall remain the exclusive owners of the Retained Marks and all derivatives thereof, including the goodwill and reputation symbolized thereby, (ii) its use of the Retained Marks and all associated goodwill inures to the sole benefit of Sellers, (iii) nothing contained herein shall constitute an assignment of ownership of the Retained Marks, (iv) Sellers grant to Purchaser only those license rights specifically granted under this Section 5.13(b), and (v) any rights not expressly granted by this license shall not be implied. Immediately upon conclusion of the eighteen (18) months of the limited license granted in this Section 5.13(b), except as provided above with respect to packaging or labelling, Purchaser agrees that Purchaser shall cease and discontinue all uses of Retained Marks, including removing Retained Marks from any website, mobile applications, product literature, signage, or anywhere else displayed and Purchaser will have no right to use any Retained Marks. Purchaser agrees that Purchaser will not contest Sellers' ownership and exclusive rights in the Retained Marks. Purchaser agrees not to register, or cause to have registered in any country whatsoever, the Retained Marks or other marks or specific designations of Sellers or any of their Affiliates, nor shall Purchaser acquire such names, trademarks or designations of Sellers or any of their Affiliates in any other manner. The same prohibition shall apply to marks and mark-resembling designations which include or resemble a mark or designation, or the like, of Sellers or any of their Affiliates or the Retained Marks or which are confusingly similar thereto.

Section 5.14 Permits. As promptly as practicable after the Closing, Sellers, to the extent Sellers are still in existence and have the resources and personnel to do so, and Purchaser shall and shall cause their respective Affiliates to file with each applicable Governmental Entity the notices and information required pursuant to any applicable Law to transfer, or caused to be transferred, the Acquired Permits from the applicable member of the Seller Group to Purchaser or its designee(s). The parties also agree to use all commercially reasonable efforts to take any and all other actions required by any Governmental Entity to effect the transfer of the Acquired Permits.

Section 5.15 Financial Reporting.

(a) Subject to Section 5.2, Seller Parent, on behalf of Sellers, shall deliver to Purchaser with respect to the Business and the Sellers (i) on a weekly basis (within the time period as such information is generated in the Ordinary Course of Business following the end of a given week) gross sales by brand and country for such week, as well as weekly prescription data (including Ex-Factory Units, Ex-Factory Gross Dollars, SRFs/PRFs and TRx/Demand Units), (ii) on a monthly basis (within the time period as such information is generated in the Ordinary Course of Business following the end of a given month, and no later than upon submission to the Bankruptcy Court) estimated net sales for such month by brand and country, including calculation of gross-to-net sales, unaudited statements of profit (loss), unaudited balance sheet and unaudited cash flows for the applicable month, and trending DSO/DSI levels for the trailing twelve-month period ended as of the end of the applicable month, (iii) as far in advance before filing as reasonably practicable, financial information required to be filed by Sellers with the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code and (iv) upon the reasonable request of Purchaser, any such other financial information that is generated by Sellers in the Ordinary Course of Business.

(b) From the date hereof and through the Closing Date, Seller Parent, on behalf of Sellers, shall deliver to Purchaser working draft estimates of Working Capital Schedules, each setting forth the information required therein as of each month end occurring between the date hereof and the Closing Date, within the time period as such underlying information is generated in the Ordinary Course of Business following the end of the applicable month.

Section 5.16 Regulatory Authority Notices and Correspondence. From and after the date hereof, subject to applicable Law, Sellers shall give prompt notice and copies to Purchaser of any material written correspondence by a Seller to, or from the FDA or any other Regulatory Authority to a Seller, with respect any Product, including (a) the receipt of any FDA 483 observations or substantially equivalent notices involving any facility of Sellers or any third party engaged by Sellers in the manufacture of the Products, (b) the recall, correction, removal, market withdrawal or replacement of any Product, (c) a change in the marketing classification or a safety labeling change as required in Section 505(o)(4) of the FDCA (21 U.S.C. 355(o)(4)) of any Product, (d) a non-substantial equivalence determination or denial of market approval by any Regulatory Authority of any Product, (e) the mandatory or voluntary termination, injunction or suspension of the testing, manufacturing, marketing, export, import, or distribution of any Product or (f) a non-coverage determination by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services.

Section 5.17 Notices of Certain Events. Prior to the Closing, Sellers and Purchaser shall give prompt notice to the other (a) of any inaccuracy or breach of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement at any time during the term hereof that would reasonably be expected to cause the condition set forth in Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.3(a), as applicable, not to be satisfied, (b) of any failure to comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement to be complied with or satisfied hereunder that would reasonably be expected to cause the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(b) or Section 6.3(b), as applicable, not to be satisfied, and (c) upon becoming aware of the occurrence or impending occurrence of any event or circumstance that would reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect or which would reasonably be expected to prevent or materially delay or impede the consummation of the Acquisition; provided, however, that (i) the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 5.17 shall not cure any breach of any representation or warranty requiring disclosure of such matter prior to the date hereof, cure any breach of any covenant, condition or agreement or otherwise limit or affect the remedies available hereunder to any party and (ii) the failure to deliver any such notice pursuant to this Section 5.17 shall not affect whether any of the conditions set forth in Article VI are satisfied or be factored into the determination of whether any right to terminate under Article VII exists if such failure was due to a party's failure to recognize that the underlying event required notice hereunder and such party acted promptly to cure such failure upon awareness of such failure.

Section 5.18 Additional Bankruptcy Court Actions. Neither Sellers nor Purchaser will file any pleading or take any other action in the Bankruptcy Court with respect to this Agreement or the consummation of the Transactions that is inconsistent with performing and carrying out the provisions of this Agreement in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions herein; provided, however, that nothing contained in the foregoing will be construed to limit in any way Purchaser's or Seller's rights under this Agreement, or to limit Purchaser's or Sellers' rights to advocate for the approval of this Agreement and against any Alternative Stalking Horse Transaction. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Purchaser hereby agrees and acknowledges that this Agreement and the Transactions are subject to Sellers' right and ability to solicit, negotiate, discuss, and consider higher or otherwise better competing bids with respect to the Business, in each case in accordance with the Bidding Procedures on or after the Petition Date, including initiating contact with, soliciting or encouraging submission of any inquiries, proposals or offers by, responding to any unsolicited inquiries, proposals or offers submitted by, and entering into any discussions or negotiations regarding any of the foregoing with, any Person (in addition to Purchaser and its Affiliates, agents and Representatives).

Section 5.19 Restrictive Covenants.

(a) From and after the Closing through the last day of the Non-Competition Period, Sellers shall not, and shall cause their respective Affiliates not to, either alone or in conjunction with others, directly or indirectly, (i) engage in or assist other Persons in engaging in any Competing Business anywhere in the world, (ii) have an interest in any Person that engages directly or indirectly in any Competing Business in any capacity, including as a partner, shareholder, member, employee, principal, agent, trustee or consultant or (iii) make any negative, derogatory or disparaging statements or communications regarding Purchaser, the Business, any Product, or the Affiliates or Representatives of Purchaser. For purposes of this Section 5.19(a), (A) "Competing Business" means the development, manufacture, sale, distribution, promotion, marketing or other commercialization of any compound, product candidate or product that treats or is intended to neutralize, abrogate or reverse off episodes related to Parkinson's disease or motor activities resulting from multiple sclerosis or otherwise competes, directly or indirectly, with the any Product or the grant to any third party of any license or right to do any of the foregoing and (B) "Non-Competition Period" means the period commencing as of the Closing and ending on the date that is the two (2) year anniversary of the Closing Date. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 5.19(a) to the contrary, the restrictive covenants in this Section 5.19(a) shall not prevent Sellers from acquiring up to one percent (1%) of the outstanding equity securities of any company listed on a national securities exchange engaged in a Competing Business solely as a passive investment.

(b) During the period commencing on the Closing Date and ending on the two (2) year anniversary of the Closing Date (the "Non-Solicitation Period"), Sellers shall not, and shall cause their respective Affiliates to not, directly or indirectly, either individually or acting in concert with another Person or Persons:

(i) request, induce or attempt to influence any distributor, supplier, vendor, licensor, licensee, sales representative or customer of any Product or other goods or services of the Business to curtail, cancel or refrain from maintaining or increasing the amount or type of business such Person is currently transacting, or may be transacting during the Non-Solicitation Period, with the Business or modify its pricing or other terms with the Business, or otherwise make any negative, derogatory or disparaging statements or communications regarding Purchaser, the Business, any Product or the Affiliates or Representatives of Purchaser;

(ii) solicit or induce any individual who is or was a Transferred Service Provider to terminate his or her employment or engagement with Purchaser or any of its Affiliates or offer employment to or hire or otherwise engage any such individual, whether as an independent contractor, consultant or otherwise; provided that this Section 5.19(b)(ii) shall not restrict Sellers from soliciting, hiring or otherwise recruiting any Business Employee who at the time of such solicitation, hiring or recruitment (A) is not an employee or consultant of Purchaser or its Affiliates and (B) either voluntarily terminated his or her employment or engagement with Purchaser or its Affiliates or was terminated involuntarily by Purchaser or its Affiliates at least six (6) months prior to such solicitation, hiring and recruitment; or

(iii) subject to the preceding clause (ii), influence or attempt to influence any person who is an employee or consultant of Purchaser or any of its Affiliates during the Non-Solicitation Period to terminate his or her employment or engagement with Purchaser.

(c) If any provision contained in this Section 5.19 shall for any reason be held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall not affect any other provisions of this Section 5.19, but this Section 5.19 shall be construed as if such invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision had never been contained herein. It is the intention of the parties that if any of the restrictions or covenants contained herein is held to cover a geographic area or to be for a length of time which is not permitted by applicable Law, or in any way construed to be too broad or to any extent invalid, such provision shall not be construed to be null, void and of no effect, but to the extent such provision would be valid or enforceable under applicable Law, a court of competent jurisdiction shall construe and interpret or reform this Section 5.19 to provide for a covenant having the maximum enforceable geographic area, time period and other provisions (not greater than those contained herein) as shall be valid and enforceable under such applicable Law. Each of the Sellers acknowledges that Purchaser would be irreparably harmed by any breach of this Section 5.19 and that there would be no adequate remedy at law or in damages to compensate Purchaser for any such breach. Each of the Sellers agrees that Purchaser be entitled to injunctive relief requiring specific performance by such Seller of this Section 5.19, without posting bond or other security and without a showing of the inadequacy of monetary damages as a remedy, and such Seller consents to the entry thereof.

(d) The Non-Competition Period and the Non-Solicitation Period shall automatically be extended for any period of time during which any Seller is not in compliance with the covenants and agreements set forth in this Section 5.19.

Section 5.20 Transfer of Certain Acquired Assets. Sellers and Purchaser shall negotiate in good faith and use reasonable best efforts to, as promptly as practicable following the date hereof and prior to the Closing Date, agree on, establish and document a transfer plan in connection with the sale, assignment, transfer, conveyance and delivery of the Acquired Assets hereunder (the “Transfer Plan”). The parties agree to transfer or cause to be transferred the Acquired Assets in accordance with such Transfer Plan.

Section 5.21 Plan Support Agreement. By the Petition Date, Sellers shall enter into a restructuring or plan support agreement (the “Plan Support Agreement”), with the Note Holders who are holders (the “Requisite Noteholders”) of more than fifty percent (50%) in number and at least sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66.67%) in amount of the Senior Secured Notes. The Plan Support Agreement shall provide for agreement that (a) Requisite Noteholders shall not submit any credit bid against the APA, (b) the Bidding Procedures Order shall provide, among other things, that any and all amounts payable made on account of the Breakup Fee and the Expense Reimbursement Amount shall constitute Superpriority Claims, and (c) to the extent the Plan Support Agreement provides any timeline with respect to the sale process for the Acquired Assets, such timeline shall be consistent with the Bankruptcy Sale Process Timeline.

Section 5.22 Press Releases or Other Public Statements. Each party agrees not to issue any press release or other public statement, whether oral or written, disclosing the terms of this Agreement or the Transactions or otherwise regarding this Agreement or the Transactions, without the prior written consent of the other party (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed). Either party may issue additional press releases or public statements without the consent of the other party where such press release or public statement only discloses the same information that has previously been the subject of a press release or public statement that has been consented to by the other party.

Section 5.23 SEC Filings and Other Legally Required Disclosures. Notwithstanding Section 5.22, either party may disclose the terms of this Agreement and make any other public disclosure regarding this Agreement or the Transactions, to the extent required to comply with applicable Laws or in connection with any Action, including in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases or the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC, court process and the rules and regulations of any national securities exchange or national securities quotation system. Prior to making any disclosure pursuant to this Section 5.23, the parties shall consult with each other to the extent practicable prior to such disclosure, and the disclosing party shall in good faith consider the other party's reasonable comments with respect to the timing, form, and content of such disclosure; provided that such disclosure shall nonetheless be at the discretion of the disclosing party in consultation with its legal counsel; provided further that Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that this Agreement shall be filed as an exhibit to Seller Parent's Form 10-K for its fiscal year ending on December 31, 2023.

Section 5.24 Biogen Transition. Sellers shall use commercially reasonable efforts to effectuate the Biogen Transition. Sellers shall keep Purchaser reasonably apprised of the status of the Biogen Transition and shall in good faith consult with Purchaser from time to time with respect thereto. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, in no event shall (a) "commercially reasonable efforts" pursuant to this Section 5.24 include any obligation of Sellers (i) to acquire (A) any Inventory from Biogen or any of its Affiliates or (B) any Inventory not otherwise required in the Ordinary Course of Business or (ii) to enter into any Contract with Biogen with respect to the Biogen Transition, and (b) the effecting of the Biogen Transition be in any respect a condition to the Closing.

ARTICLE VI

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

Section 6.1 Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Sellers and Purchaser. The respective obligations of each party to effect the Transactions shall be subject to the satisfaction at or prior to the Closing of the following conditions:

(a) Approvals. Any waiting period (and extensions thereof) applicable to the Transactions under any Antitrust Law set forth on Schedule 6.1 shall have expired or been terminated and any other required approvals, consents or clearances under any Antitrust Laws set forth on Schedule 6.1 (such waiting period expirations, terminations and required approvals, consents or clearance, the “Required Regulatory Approvals”) shall have been obtained; and

(b) No Legal Prohibition. No Governmental Entity shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered into any Law or Order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent), that shall be in effect on the Closing Date and that has the effect of making the Transactions illegal or otherwise prohibiting the Closing.

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of Purchaser and Purchaser Parent contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all respects (disregarding any exception or qualification in such representations and warranties relating to “material” or “materiality”) as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date (except for any such representations and warranties that are made as of a specific date, which representations and warranties shall have been true and correct as of such specific date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct would not and would not reasonably be expected to, individually or in the aggregate, prevent, prohibit, materially impair or materially delay Purchaser’s ability to perform its obligations under this Agreement prior to the Outside Date;

(b) Covenants. The covenants and obligations of Purchaser to be performed or complied with at or prior to the Closing pursuant to this Agreement shall have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects;

(c) Bidding Procedures Order. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Bidding Procedures Order, and such Order (i) shall not have been stayed, stayed pending appeal, reversed or vacated and (ii) shall not have been amended, supplemented or otherwise modified in any manner materially adverse to Sellers;

(d) Sale Order. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Sale Order, and such Order (i) shall not have been stayed as of the Closing Date, stayed pending appeal, reversed or vacated and (ii) shall not have been amended, supplemented or otherwise modified in any manner materially adverse to Sellers; and

(e) Officer's Certificates. Purchaser shall have delivered to Sellers a certificate duly executed by an authorized officer of Purchaser certifying to the effect that the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a) and Section 6.2(b) have been satisfied.

The foregoing conditions are for the benefit of Sellers only and accordingly Sellers will be entitled to waive compliance with any such conditions if they see fit to do so, without prejudice to rights and remedies at Law and in equity and also without prejudice to any rights of termination or otherwise in the event of the failure to fulfill any other conditions in whole or in part.

Section 6.3 Conditions Precedent to Obligation of Purchaser. The obligations of Purchaser to effect the Transactions shall be subject to the satisfaction (or, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, waiver by Purchaser) at or prior to the Closing of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. (i) The representations and warranties of Sellers contained in the first and second sentences of Section 3.1 (Qualification, Organization, Subsidiaries), Section 3.2 (Authority of Sellers) and Section 3.6(a) (Title to Property) shall be true and correct in all material respects as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date (except for any such representations and warranties that are made as of a specific date, which representations and warranties shall have been true and correct in all material respects as of such specific date) and (ii) all other representations and warranties of Sellers contained in this Agreement shall be true and correct in all respects (disregarding any exception or qualification in such representations and warranties relating to "material", "materiality" or "Material Adverse Effect") as of the date hereof and as of the Closing Date (except for any such representations and warranties that are made as of a specific date, which representations and warranties shall have been true and correct as of such specific date), except where the failure of such representations and warranties to be so true and correct would not and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect;

(b) Covenants. The covenants and obligations of Sellers to be performed or complied with at or prior to the Closing pursuant to this Agreement shall have been duly performed and complied with in all material respects;

(c) Bidding Procedures Order. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Bidding Procedures Order, and such Order (i) shall not have been stayed, stayed pending appeal, reversed or vacated and (ii) shall not have been amended, supplemented or otherwise modified in any manner materially adverse to Purchaser;

(d) Sale Order. The Bankruptcy Court shall have entered the Sale Order, and such Order (i) shall not have been stayed as of the Closing Date, stayed pending appeal, reversed or vacated and (ii) shall not have been amended, supplemented or otherwise modified in any manner adverse to Purchaser;

(e) Officer's Certificates. Sellers shall have delivered to Purchaser a certificate duly executed by an executive officer of each Seller certifying to the effect that the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a), Section 6.3(b), and Section 6.3(f) have been satisfied; and

(f) Material Adverse Effect. From the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred any Material Adverse Effect.

The foregoing conditions are for the benefit of Purchaser only and accordingly Purchaser will be entitled to waive compliance with any such conditions if it sees fit to do so, without prejudice to any rights and remedies at Law and in equity and also without prejudice to any of rights of termination or otherwise in the event of the failure to fulfill any other conditions in whole or in part.

ARTICLE VII

TERMINATION

Section 7.1 Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated by either Purchaser or Seller Parent in the event that the Closing has not occurred on or before December 31, 2024, (such later date as may be mutually agreed in writing by the parties, subject to Section 8.14, the “Outside Date”); provided, however, that the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(a) shall not be available to any party whose failure to perform, or material breach of, any of its representations, warranties, covenants and obligations under this Agreement required to be performed by it at or prior to the Closing or true and correct as of the Closing Date, either individually or in the aggregate, results in, or has been the primary cause of, the failure of the Closing to occur prior to such date.

(b) This Agreement may also be terminated prior to the Closing:

(i) at any time by the mutual written agreement of Purchaser and Seller Parent;

(ii) by Purchaser, if (A) there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Sellers which breach, either individually or in the aggregate with other breaches by any Seller, would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the conditions set forth in Section 6.3(a) or Section 6.3(b), as the case may be, or (B) there has been a material breach by any Seller of the Bidding Procedures Order or the Sale Order, in each case of the preceding (A) or (B), which breach is not cured within ten (10) Business Days following written notice to Sellers thereof (and in any event prior to the Outside Date) or which by its nature cannot be cured within such time period, provided, that Purchaser is not then in material breach of any of the covenants, agreements, representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Purchaser;

(iii) by Seller Parent, if (A) there shall have been a breach of any of the covenants or agreements or any of the representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Purchaser which breach would result in, if occurring or continuing on the Closing Date, the failure of the conditions set forth in Section 6.2(a) or Section 6.2(b), as the case may be, or (B) there has been any material breach by Purchaser of the Bidding Procedures Order or the Sale Order, in each case of the preceding (A) or (B), which breach is not cured within ten (10) Business Days following written notice to Purchaser thereof (and in any event prior to the Outside Date) or which by its nature cannot be cured within such time period, provided, that no Seller is then in material breach of any of the covenants, agreements, representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of any Seller;

(iv) by Purchaser, if Sellers shall fail to file (A) a motion with the Bankruptcy Court seeking entry of the Bidding Procedures Order within four (4) Business Days following the execution of this Agreement unless otherwise agreed to by the parties; or (B) the Notice of Successful Bidder with the Bankruptcy Court within two (2) Business Days following the designation of Purchaser as the Successful Bidder;

(v) by Purchaser, if the Bankruptcy Court has not entered the Bidding Procedures Order by April 29, 2024; provided that Purchaser is not then in material breach of any of the covenants, agreements, representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Purchaser;

(vi) by Purchaser, if Sellers shall fail to comply with the Bankruptcy Sale Process Timeline within five (5) Business Days of such prescribed deadline in the Bankruptcy Sale Process Timeline (as defined in the Bidding Procedures) set forth in the Bidding Procedures; provided that Purchaser is not then in material breach of any of the covenants, agreements, representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement on the part of Purchaser or of the Bidding Procedures Order or the Sale Order;

(vii) by Purchaser, if Sellers file a motion requesting, consent to, fail to timely contest a pleading seeking, or the Bankruptcy Court, sua sponte, orders, which order is not timely contested by Sellers, (A) a conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases of any Seller into a liquidation proceeding under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, (B) the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases of any Seller, (C) the appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers in any of the Chapter 11 Cases of any Seller, or (D) the termination or reduction of the exclusivity periods described in 11 U.S.C. § 1121(b);

(viii) by Purchaser, if the Bankruptcy Court enters any Order materially inconsistent with the Bidding Procedures Order, the Sale Order, this Agreement or the Transactions, each as determined by the Bankruptcy Court (each party agrees, and shall not object, to a request by any other party to the Bankruptcy Court for an expedited hearing to make such determination);

(ix) by either Seller Parent or Purchaser, if a Governmental Entity issues a final, non-appealable ruling or Order permanently prohibiting the Transactions;

(x) by Purchaser, if (A) any creditor of any Seller obtains a final and unstayed Order of the Bankruptcy Court granting relief from the stay described in 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(2) to foreclose on any portion of the Acquired Assets or (B) any Seller enters into any definitive agreement in respect of one or more Competing Transactions with one or more Persons and the Bankruptcy Court approves any such Competing Transaction; and

(xi) by Purchaser, if the Auction has occurred and Purchaser is not designated as the Successful Bidder.

For the avoidance of doubt, the parties acknowledge and agree, that in the event that Sellers determine that the last Overbid submitted by Purchaser is higher or otherwise better than all other Qualified Bids as such Qualified Bids may be amended by an Overbid submitted at the Auction, then within two (2) Business Days following the conclusion of the Auction, Sellers and Purchaser shall enter into an amendment to this Agreement to reflect Purchaser's last Overbid.

Section 7.2 Effect of Termination.

(a) Survival. In the event of termination of this Agreement by either party in accordance with Section 7.1, all rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement shall terminate without any Liability of any party to the other party, except for Liability for fraud or intentional breach of this Agreement prior to such termination; provided, that (i) the provisions of Section 1.6(b)(ii), Section 1.6(b)(iii), this Section 7.2 and Article VIII (other than Section 8.1 and Section 8.3) and the Confidentiality Agreement shall expressly survive the termination of this Agreement.

(b) Breakup Fee. In consideration of Purchaser and its Affiliates having expended considerable time and expense in connection with this Agreement and the negotiation thereof, and the identification and quantification of assets to be included in the Acquired Assets, and to compensate Purchaser as a stalking-horse bidder, and regardless of whether or not Purchaser makes any matching or competing bids at the Auction if the Auction occurs, upon the occurrence of a Fee Event (as defined below), Purchaser shall be entitled to payment by Sellers of a breakup fee in an amount equal to $6,475,000 (the "Breakup Fee"), which such amount Seller Parent shall pay (or cause to be paid) to Purchaser within two (2) Business Days of the occurrence of a Fee Event. The Breakup Fee shall be treated as a Superpriority Claim. Sellers acknowledge and agree that (i) the approval of the Breakup Fee is an integral part of the Transactions; (ii) in the absence of Sellers' obligation to pay the Breakup Fee, Purchaser would not have entered into this Agreement; (iii) the entry of Purchaser into this Agreement is beneficial to Sellers because, in Sellers' business judgment, it will enhance Sellers' ability to maximize the value of its assets for the benefit of its creditors and other stakeholders; (iv) the receipt by Purchaser of the Breakup Fee (together with the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Deposit Fund when otherwise due to Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement), following actual receipt thereof, shall be the sole and exclusive remedy available to Purchaser or Purchaser Parent against Sellers, their respective Affiliates or any of their respective former, current or future equity holders, directors, officers, Affiliates, agents or Representatives (collectively, "Seller Related Parties") with respect to this Agreement and the Transactions; (v) upon receipt by Purchaser of the Breakup Fee (together with the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Deposit Fund when otherwise due to Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement), no Seller Related Party shall have any further Liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the Transactions; (vi) the Breakup Fee is reasonable in relation to Purchaser's costs and efforts and to the magnitude of the Transactions and Purchaser's lost opportunities resulting from the time spent pursuing the Transactions; and (vii) time is of the essence with respect to the entry of the Bidding Procedures Order by the Bankruptcy Court, approving, among other things, the process by which bids may be solicited, including the Bidding Procedures. For the avoidance of doubt, the Breakup Fee, if payable pursuant to this Section 7.2(b), shall be in addition to the return of the Deposit Funds and payment of the Expense Reimbursement Amount, in each case, to the extent payable to Purchaser pursuant to Section 1.6(b)(iii) and Section 7.2(c), respectively. For the purposes of this Agreement, a "Fee Event" shall mean (i) a termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(a) (unless, at the time of any such termination, either (I) the condition set forth in Section 6.1(a) has not been satisfied or (II) the condition set forth in Section 6.1(b) has not been satisfied and any Law or Order giving rise to the non-satisfaction of such condition is or is under or in respect of an Antitrust Law), or (ii) the consummation of an Alternative Transaction.

(c) Expense Reimbursement. In consideration of Purchaser and its Affiliates having expended considerable time and expense in connection with this Agreement and the negotiation thereof, and the identification and quantification of assets to be included in the Acquired Assets, and to compensate Purchaser as a stalking-horse bidder, and regardless of whether or not Purchaser makes any matching or competing bids at the Auction if the Auction occurs, upon the occurrence of a Fee Event, Purchaser shall be entitled to payment by Sellers of the Expense Reimbursement Amount, which such amount Seller Parent shall pay (or cause to be paid) to Purchaser within two (2) Business Days of the occurrence of a Fee Event. Sellers acknowledge and agree that (i) the payment of the Expense Reimbursement Amount is an integral part of the Transactions; (ii) in the absence of Sellers' obligation to make this payment, Purchaser would not have entered into this Agreement; (iii) the damages resulting from termination of this Agreement under circumstances where Purchaser is entitled to the Expense Reimbursement Amount are uncertain and incapable of accurate calculation and that the delivery of the Expense Reimbursement Amount to Purchaser is not a penalty, but rather shall constitute a reasonable amount that will compensate Purchaser in the circumstances where Purchaser is entitled to the reimbursable expenses for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities forgone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummating of the Transactions, and that, without these agreements, Purchaser would not enter into this Agreement; (iv) the receipt by Purchaser of the Expense Reimbursement Amount (together with the Breakup Fee and Deposit Fund when otherwise due to Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement), following actual receipt thereof, shall be the sole and exclusive remedy available to Purchaser or Purchaser Parent against any Seller Related Parties with respect to this Agreement and the Transactions; (v) upon receipt by Purchaser of the Expense Reimbursement Amount (together with the Breakup Fee and Deposit Fund when otherwise due to Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement), no Seller Related Party shall have any further Liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the Transactions; (vi) time is of the essence with respect to the payment of the Expense Reimbursement Amount and (vii) the Expense Reimbursement Amount shall be treated as a Superpriority Claim. For the avoidance of doubt, the Expense Reimbursement Amount, if payable pursuant to this Section 7.2(c), shall be in addition to the return of the Deposit Funds and payment of the Breakup Fee, in each case, to the extent payable to Purchaser pursuant to Section 1.6(b)(iii) and Section 7.2(b), respectively.

(d) Deposit Funds. If this Agreement is terminated by Sellers as contemplated by Section 1.6(b)(ii), (i) Purchaser shall forfeit the Deposit Funds and any interest thereon; (ii) other than in connection with fraud on the part of, or an intentional breach of this Agreement by, Purchaser or Purchaser Parent, the receipt of the Deposit Funds shall be the sole and exclusive remedy available to Sellers against Purchaser, Purchaser Parent its Affiliates or any of their respective former, current or future equity holders, directors, officers, Affiliates, agents or Representatives with respect to this Agreement and the Transactions; and (iii) upon receipt by Sellers of the Deposit Funds, neither Purchaser, its Affiliates nor any of their respective former, current or future equity holders, directors, officers, Affiliates, agents or Representatives shall have any further Liability or obligation relating to or arising out of this Agreement or the Transactions.

(e) Liquidated Damages. The parties acknowledge that the agreements contained in this Section 7.2 are an integral part of the Transactions, that the damages resulting from termination of this Agreement under circumstances (i) where Sellers are entitled to the Deposit Funds are uncertain and incapable of accurate calculation and that the delivery of the Deposit Funds is not a penalty but rather shall constitute liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate Sellers in the circumstances where Sellers are entitled to the Deposit Funds for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities forgone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the Transactions, and that, without these agreements, Sellers would not enter into this Agreement or (ii) where Purchaser is entitled to the Breakup Fee, the Expense Reimbursement Amount and the Deposit Funds are uncertain and incapable of accurate calculation and that the delivery of the Breakup Fee, the Expense Reimbursement Amount and the Deposit Funds is not a penalty but rather shall constitute liquidated damages in a reasonable amount that will compensate Purchaser in the circumstances where Purchaser is entitled to the Breakup Fee, the Expense Reimbursement Amount and the Deposit Funds for the efforts and resources expended and opportunities forgone while negotiating this Agreement and in reliance on this Agreement and on the expectation of the consummation of the Transactions, and that, without these agreements, Purchaser would not enter into this Agreement.

(f) Litigation Expenses

(i) If Sellers fail to take any action necessary to cause the delivery of the Breakup Fee, the Expense Reimbursement Amount or Deposit Funds under circumstances where Purchaser is entitled to the Breakup Fee, the Expense Reimbursement Amount or the Deposit Funds and, in order to obtain such Breakup Fee, Expense Reimbursement Amount or Deposit Funds, Purchaser commences a suit which results in a judgment in favor of Purchaser, Sellers shall pay to Purchaser, in addition to the Breakup Fee, the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Deposit Funds, an amount in cash equal to the costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) incurred by Purchaser in connection with such suit, which such amounts shall constitute Superpriority Claims.

(ii) If Purchaser fails to take any action necessary to cause the delivery of the Deposit Funds under circumstances where Sellers are entitled to the Deposit Funds and, in order to obtain the Deposit Funds, any Seller commences a suit which results in a judgment in favor of any Seller, Purchaser shall pay to Sellers, in addition to the Deposit Funds, an amount in cash equal to the costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) incurred by any Seller in connection with such suit.

ARTICLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 8.1 Non-Survival. The parties agree that the representations and warranties contained in this Agreement, and any certificate or other instrument delivered at Closing by or on behalf of any party in connection with this Agreement, will terminate at, and will not survive, the Closing, and none of the parties will have any Liability to each other after the Closing for any breach thereof. The parties agree that the covenants and obligations contained in this Agreement to be performed prior to or at the Closing will terminate at, and will not survive, the Closing and those covenants and obligations contained in this Agreement to be performed after the Closing will survive the Closing in accordance with their respective terms and each party will be liable to the other after the Closing for any breach thereof.

Section 8.2 Tax Matters.

(a) All sales, use, excise, transfer, documentary, stamp, value added, recordation, license, conveyance and other similar Taxes (“Transfer Taxes”), if any, imposed on or with respect to the Acquisition shall be borne by Purchaser and shall be paid to the appropriate Taxing Authority promptly when due by the Person having the obligation to pay such Transfer Tax under applicable Law. The party responsible under applicable Law for filing a Tax Return with respect to any such Transfer Taxes shall prepare and timely file such Tax Return and provide a copy of such Tax Return to the other party within fifteen (15) days. Purchaser and Sellers shall use reasonable efforts and cooperate in good faith to reduce or eliminate any Transfer Taxes to the extent permitted by applicable Law, including the transfer by remote electronic transmission of all Acquired Assets capable of being so transmitted (and the delivery of certificates evidencing such electronic transmission) and in the filing of any Tax Returns required with respect to any applicable Transfer Taxes. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Sellers and Purchaser and their respective Affiliates shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain available exemptions from Transfer Taxes and will cooperate with each other in providing any information and documentation that may be necessary to obtain any such exemptions, including any applicable resale or exemption certificate.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, with respect to any Acquired Asset, Sellers and Purchaser shall apportion the Liability for personal property Taxes, ad valorem Taxes, and similar Taxes (“Periodic Taxes”) for Straddle Periods applicable to such Acquired Asset in accordance with this Section 8.2(b). The Periodic Taxes described in this Section 8.2(b) shall be apportioned between Sellers and Purchaser as of the Closing Date, with Purchaser liable for that portion of the Periodic Taxes for a Straddle Period (which portion of such Taxes shall for purposes of this Agreement be deemed attributable to the Post-Closing Tax Period) equal to the Periodic Taxes for such Straddle Period multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining in such Straddle Period after the Closing Date, and the denominator of which is the total number of days in such entire Straddle Period. Sellers shall be liable for that portion of the Periodic Taxes for a Straddle Period for which Purchaser is not liable under the preceding sentence (which portion of such Taxes shall for purposes of this Agreement be deemed attributable to the Pre-Closing Tax Period). The party responsible under applicable Law for paying a Tax described in this Section 8.2(b) shall be responsible for administering the payment of such Tax. All apportionments hereunder shall be final as of the Closing Date, and except where the apportionment is inaccurate as a result of the gross negligence of a party, there will be no re-apportionments of any Periodic Taxes regardless of whether information becomes available after the Closing Date that alters the amount of Taxes that would have been due with respect to the Straddle Period. To the extent the Liability for Periodic Taxes for a certain Straddle Period is not determinable at the time of Closing or such Periodic Taxes are charged in arrears, such Periodic Taxes shall be prorated for such Straddle Period, based on the most recent ascertainable full Tax year without adjustment. For purposes of this Section 8.2(b), the Straddle Period for ad valorem Taxes and personal property Taxes shall be the fiscal period for which such Taxes were assessed by the applicable Tax jurisdiction.

(c) Sellers, on the one hand, or Purchaser, on the other hand, as the case may be (the “Reimbursing Party”), shall provide reimbursement for any Tax paid by the other (the “Paying Party”), all or a portion of which is the responsibility of the Reimbursing Party in accordance with the terms of this Agreement (including this Section 8.2). Within a reasonable time prior to the payment of any such Tax, the Paying Party shall give notice to the Reimbursing Party of the Tax payable and the Paying Party’s and Reimbursing Party’s respective Liability therefor, although failure to do so shall not relieve the Reimbursing Party from its Liability hereunder except to the extent the Reimbursing Party is actually prejudiced thereby.

(d) The parties shall provide each other with such assistance as reasonably may be requested by any of them in connection with (i) the preparation of any Tax Return, (ii) the determination of any Liability in respect of Taxes or the right to any refund, credit or prepayment in respect of Taxes (including pursuant to this Agreement) or (iii) any audit or other examination by any Taxing Authority, or any judicial or administrative proceeding with respect to any Taxes.

Section 8.3 Bulk Sales. Purchaser and Sellers hereby waive compliance with the requirements and provisions of any “bulk-transfer” or similar Laws of any jurisdiction that may otherwise be applicable with respect to the sale, conveyance, assignment or transfer of any or all of the Acquired Assets to Purchaser or its designee(s). In furtherance and not in limitation of the foregoing, Sellers shall use commercially reasonable efforts to confirm that the Sale Order shall provide either that (a) Sellers have complied with any applicable bulk sale or bulk transfer Laws of any jurisdiction in connection with the Transactions or (b) compliance with such Laws described in Clause (a) is not necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

Section 8.4 Notices. Any notice pursuant to this Agreement must be in writing and will be deemed effectively given by the applicable party on the earliest of the date (a) on which such notice is sent by email, receipt confirmed or no automated “bounceback” or similar message is received in reply, (b) one (1) Business Day after such notice is deposited with an overnight courier service for next day delivery, or (c) on which such notice is delivered by hand; in each case to the appropriate address set forth below (or by such other address as the party may designate by notice to the other party, with such change of address effective five (5) Business Days following delivery of such notice of change):

Section 8.5 Descriptive Headings; Interpretative Provisions. The headings contained in this Agreement are for reference purposes only and shall not affect in any way the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. The words "hereof," "herein" and "hereunder" and words of like import used in this Agreement shall refer to this Agreement as a whole and not to any particular provision of this Agreement. References to Articles, Sections, Exhibits and Schedules are to Articles, Sections, Exhibits and Schedules of this Agreement unless otherwise specified. All Exhibits and Schedules annexed hereto or referred to herein are hereby incorporated in and made a part of this Agreement as if set forth in full herein. Any capitalized terms used in any Exhibit or Schedule but not otherwise defined therein, shall have the meaning as defined in this Agreement. Any singular term in this Agreement shall be deemed to include the plural, and any plural term the singular. Where a word or phrase is defined herein, each of its other grammatical forms shall have a corresponding meaning. Whenever the words "include," "includes" or "including" are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to be followed by the words "without limitation," whether or not they are in fact followed by those words or words of like import. Except where the context otherwise requires, the word "or" is used in the inclusive sense (and/or). Whenever the last day for the exercise of any right or the discharge of any duty under this Agreement falls on other than a Business Day, the party having such right or duty shall have until the next Business Day to exercise such right or discharge such duty. Unless otherwise indicated, the word "day" shall be interpreted as a calendar day. References to “dollars” or “$” mean United States dollars, unless otherwise clearly indicated to the contrary. The word “notice” shall mean notice in writing (whether or not specifically stated) and shall include notices, consents, approvals, requests and other written communications contemplated under this Agreement. The phrases “made available to Purchaser,” “delivered to Purchaser” or “provided to Purchaser” and similar phrases as used herein with respect to any documents or information means that such information or documents were contained and accessible in the virtual data room hosted by Seller Parent in connection with the Transactions as of two (2) Business Days prior to the date of this Agreement, except with respect to the Seller 10-K or the Sample NWC Calculation, which has been made available to Purchaser’s counsel via e-mail. No summary of this Agreement prepared by or on behalf of any party shall affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement. Time periods based on a number of days within or following which any payment is to be made or act is to be done shall be calculated by excluding the day on which the period commences and including the day on which the period ends and, if applicable, by extending the period to the next Business Day following if the last day of the period is not a Business Day. For purposes of this Agreement, references to “Sellers” shall be construed, where applicable, to include any liquidating trust, plan administrator, or comparable Person or body bearing responsibility for the administration and wind-down of Sellers’ operations, estates and the Chapter 11 Cases.

Section 8.6 No Strict Construction. Sellers, on the one hand, and Purchaser, on the other hand, participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement, and, in the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as jointly drafted by Sellers and Purchaser, and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any party by virtue of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement. Without limitation as to the foregoing, no rule of strict construction construing ambiguities against the draftsperson shall be applied against any Person with respect to this Agreement.

Section 8.7 Entire Agreement; Assignment. This Agreement, the Ancillary Documents and the Confidential Disclosure Agreement constitute the entire agreement and supersede all other prior agreements and understandings, both written and oral, between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and thereof. No party to this Agreement may assign any of its rights or delegate any of its obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party; provided, however, that Purchaser may assign its rights or delegate its obligations, in whole or in part, without such consent to (a) any Person that succeeds to all or substantially all of its assets or business related to this Agreement (whether by sale, merger, operation of law or otherwise) following the Closing or (b) an Affiliate of Purchaser (each such assignee, a “Designated Purchaser”). Upon any assignment by Purchaser to a Designated Purchaser, each Designated Purchaser shall be deemed a “Purchaser” for purposes of this Agreement in connection with the Transactions (and any reference to “Purchaser” herein in connection therewith shall automatically be deemed to be a reference to such Designated Purchaser) and such Designated Purchaser shall automatically be assigned the rights of Purchaser under this Agreement necessary in case of such designation. No assignment of this Agreement shall relieve Purchaser of any liability or its obligations under or in connection with this Agreement. Any purported assignment in violation of this Section 8.7 shall be null and void.

Section 8.8 Governing Law; Submission of Jurisdiction; Waiver of Jury Trial. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Delaware. Any and all claims, controversies and causes of action arising out of or relating to this Agreement, whether sounding in contract, tort or statute, shall be governed by the Laws of the State of Delaware, including its statutes of limitations, without giving effect to any conflict-of-laws or other rule that would result in the application of the Laws of a different jurisdiction. The parties agree that the exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any litigation arising out of this Agreement shall be in the Bankruptcy Court; provided, however, that if at the time of commencement of any such litigation, the Chapter 11 Cases are no longer pending or the Bankruptcy Court does not have jurisdiction or declines to exercise jurisdiction, the exclusive jurisdiction and venue for any litigation arising out of or relating to this Agreement, provided jurisdiction may be obtained under applicable Law, shall be in the state or federal courts in the State of Delaware, and each party hereby waives any objections they may have with respect thereto (including any objections based upon forum non conveniens). Each party hereby consents to entry of final order or judgment by the Bankruptcy Court in any litigation arising out of this Agreement before the Bankruptcy Court. Each party hereby consents to service of process in the manner and at the address set forth in Section 8.4. EACH PARTY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

Section 8.9 Expenses. Except (a) as otherwise provided herein or (b) with respect to any filing fees pursuant to any Antitrust Laws, which shall be borne by Purchaser, whether or not the Transactions are consummated, all other costs and expenses incurred in connection with this Agreement and the Transactions shall be paid by the party incurring such expenses.

Section 8.10 Amendment. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each party.

Section 8.11 Waiver. At any time prior to the Closing, the parties may (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto and (c) waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party.

Section 8.12 Counterparts; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Counterparts may be delivered via electronic mail (including pdf or any electronic signature complying with the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, e.g., www.docusign.com) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes.

Section 8.13 Severability; Validity; Parties in Interest. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any Person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other Persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby, and to such end, the provisions of this Agreement are agreed to be severable. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, nothing in this Agreement, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person not a party to this Agreement any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

Section 8.14 Specific Performance. The parties agree that irreparable injury will occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement is not performed in accordance with its specific terms or is otherwise breached. Each party shall be entitled (a) to an injunction or injunctions to prevent or remedy any breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement by any other party, (b) to a decree or order of specific performance specifically enforcing the terms and provisions of this Agreement and (c) to any further equitable relief. The election to pursue an injunction or specific performance will not restrict, impair or otherwise limit any party from seeking to collect or collecting damages. The parties agree not to raise any objections to the availability of the equitable remedy of specific performance to prevent or restrain breaches of this Agreement by any party and to specifically enforce the terms and provisions of this Agreement to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of, or to enforce compliance with, the respective covenants and obligations of any party under this Agreement. If, prior to the Outside Date (or, if the Closing Date could have occurred on or within three (3) Business Days prior to the Outside Date, within five (5) Business Days after the Outside Date), any party brings any Action to enforce specifically the performance of the terms and provisions this Agreement by any other party, the Outside Date will automatically be extended (y) for the period during which such Action is pending, plus ten (10) Business Days, or (z) by such other time period established by the court presiding over such Action, as the case may be. In no event will this Section 8.14 be used, alone or together with any other provision of this Agreement, to require Sellers to remedy any breach of any representation or warranty of Sellers made herein. Purchaser shall not be entitled to both obtain specific performance pursuant to this Section 8.14 to cause the Closing to occur and also receive the Breakup Fee and Expense Reimbursement Amount.

Section 8.15 Time of the Essence. Time shall be of the essence for purposes of performance by the parties of their respective obligations under this Agreement.

Section 8.16 Joint and Several Obligations. Each obligation imposed on any Seller by this Agreement shall be deemed to be a joint and several obligation of each Seller as if such obligation were imposed individually upon each of them.

Section 8.17 Remedies Cumulative. Except as herein expressly set forth, no remedy conferred upon a party by this Agreement is intended to be exclusive of any other remedy herein or by Law provided or permitted, but each shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other remedy given herein or now or hereafter existing at Law, in equity or by statute.

Section 8.18 Conflicts; Deal Communications.

(a) It is acknowledged by each of the parties that Sellers have retained Baker & McKenzie LLP (“Baker McKenzie”) to act as their counsel in connection with the negotiation, documentation and consummation of this Agreement and the Transactions (the “Current Representation”). Purchaser hereby agrees that after the Closing, Baker McKenzie may represent Sellers or any of their Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives (any such Person, a “Permitted Seller Person”) in any matter involving or arising from the Current Representation, including any interpretation or application of this Agreement or any Ancillary Document, and including for the avoidance of doubt any proceeding between or among Purchaser or any of its Affiliates, and any Permitted Seller Person, even though the interests of such Permitted Seller Person may be directly adverse to Purchaser or any of its Affiliates, and even though Baker McKenzie may be representing Purchaser in unrelated ongoing matters. Purchaser hereby waives and agrees not to assert (i) any claim that Baker McKenzie has a conflict of interest in any representation described in this Section 8.18(a) or (ii) any confidentiality obligation with respect to any communication between Baker McKenzie and any Permitted Seller Person occurring in the course of the Current Representation.

(b) Purchaser hereby agrees that all communications (whether before, at or after the Closing) between Baker McKenzie, any Permitted Seller Person, or any current or former director, officer or employee of any Seller to the extent related to the Current Representation or any dispute arising under this Agreement (the “Deal Communications”), whether or not attorney-client privileged, and all rights to any other evidentiary privilege to the extent related thereto, and the protections afforded to information relating to representation of a client under applicable rules of professional conduct that may apply to such Deal Communications, shall be retained, owned, and controlled collectively by the Permitted Seller Persons and shall not pass to or be claimed by Purchaser or any of its Affiliates or their respective Representatives. To the extent that files or other materials maintained by Baker McKenzie constitute Deal Communications, only the Permitted Seller Persons shall hold property rights in such communications and Baker McKenzie shall have no duty to reveal or disclose any such files or other materials or any Deal Communications by reason of any attorney-client relationship between Baker McKenzie and any Permitted Seller Persons.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that a dispute arises between Purchaser, on the one hand, and a third party other than any Seller, on the other hand, Purchaser may assert the attorney-client privilege to prevent the disclosure of the Deal Communications to such third party; provided, however, that Purchaser may not waive such privilege without the prior written consent of Sellers (which such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed). In the event that Purchaser or any of its respective directors, officers, employees or other representatives is legally required by an Order or otherwise to access or obtain a copy of all or a portion of the Deal Communications, Purchaser shall, to the extent legally permissible, (i) reasonably promptly notify Sellers in writing, (ii) agree that Sellers may seek a protective order and (iii) use, at Sellers’ sole cost and expense, commercially reasonable efforts to assist therewith.

Section 8.19 Purchaser Parent Guarantee. Purchaser Parent hereby fully, irrevocably and unconditionally guarantees the complete and timely payment by Purchaser of any amounts payable by Purchaser pursuant to Section 1.5, Section 1.6 and Section 2.2(b)(i), and Section 8.2(b) as and when such amounts are due and payable hereunder (“Purchaser Obligations”). This guarantee shall be a guarantee of payment and not of collection. Purchaser Parent hereby agrees that its obligations hereunder shall not be discharged or otherwise affected by (i) any change herein or amendment hereto, (ii) any failure by any member of the Seller Group to give notice of default to Purchaser Parent or any other notice to Purchaser Parent, (iii) the occurrence or continuance of any event of bankruptcy, reorganization or insolvency with respect to Purchaser, or the dissolution, liquidation or winding up of Purchaser Parent or Purchaser, or (iv) any other circumstances which may otherwise constitute a legal or equitable discharge or defense of a guarantor. Purchaser Parent covenants that this guarantee made under this Section 8.19 will not be discharged except upon the earlier of (a) the complete performance of all Purchaser Obligations and (b) the termination of this Agreement. Any Seller may obtain recourse against Purchaser Parent for the payment and performance of any Purchaser Obligations prior to, concurrently with or after any Action to enforce such Purchaser Obligations. In no event shall any Seller be deemed to have elected any remedy that precludes or impairs its ability to proceed against Purchaser Parent. Purchaser Parent hereby waives (i) protest, presentment, demand for payment and notice of default or nonpayment and (ii) any right to require any Seller to proceed first against Purchaser. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement to the contrary, Purchaser Parent may not assign or transfer its obligations hereunder to any other Person without the prior written consent of a Seller, which consent may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

³ Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law and conclusions of law shall be construed as findings of fact when appropriate. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7052 made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any finding of fact later shall be determined to be a conclusion of law, it shall be so deemed, and to the extent any conclusion of law later shall be determined to be a finding of fact, it shall be so deemed.

157(b). Venue of these Chapter 11 Cases and the Motion in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. Statutory Predicates. The statutory bases for the relief sought in the Motion are sections 105(a), 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9007, and Local Rule 6004-1.

C. Final Order. This Sale Order constitutes a final order within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 158(a). Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d), and to any extent necessary under Bankruptcy Rule 9014 and Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable by Bankruptcy Rule 7054, this Court expressly finds that there is no just reason for delay in the implementation of this Sale Order, waives any stay, and expressly directs entry of judgment as set forth herein.

D. Notice. As evidenced by the certificates of service previously filed with the Court, proper, timely, adequate, and sufficient notice of the Motion, the APA, the Sale Hearing, the Sale, and the transactions contemplated thereby has been provided in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order, sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004, 6006, and 9007. The Debtors have complied with all obligations to provide notice of the Motion as set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order. The notices described above were good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances, and no other or further notice of the Motion, the APA, the Auction (if it occurred), or the Sale Hearing is or shall be required. The disclosures made by the Debtors concerning the Motion, the APA, the Auction (if it occurred), and the Sale Hearing were good, complete, and adequate.

E. The Bidding Procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order were non-collusive and proposed and executed in good faith as a result of arm's-length negotiations between the Debtors and the Purchaser.

F. In accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order, the Debtors have served notices of the Assigned Contracts (the “Cure Notices”), as evidenced by the Certificate of Service [Docket No. ____], which Cure Notices identify all defaults and actual pecuniary losses to the non-Debtor parties resulting from such defaults including, but not limited to, all claims, demands, charges, rights to refunds, and monetary and non-monetary obligations that the non-Debtor parties can assert under the Assigned Contracts, whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, senior or subordinate, relating to money now owing or owing in the future, arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the Assigned Contracts (the foregoing amounts as stated in the Cure Notices collectively referred to as the “Cure Costs” and, with respect to any individual Assigned Contract, a “Cure Cost”) upon each non-Debtor counterparty to an Assigned Contract. The service and provision of the Cure Notices was good, sufficient, and appropriate under the circumstances, and no further notice need be given in respect of assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts or establishing the Cure Costs for the Assigned Contracts. Non-Debtor counterparties to the Assigned Contracts have had an adequate opportunity to object to the assumption and assignment of the applicable Assigned Contracts and the Cure Costs as set forth in the Cure Notices (including objections related to the adequate assurance of future performance and objections based on whether applicable law excuses the non-Debtor counterparty from accepting performance by, or rendering performance to, the Purchaser for purposes of section 365(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code). The deadline to file an objection to the stated Cure Costs (a “Cure Objection”) has expired and, to the extent any such party timely filed a Cure Objection, all such Cure Objections have been resolved, withdrawn, overruled, or continued to a later hearing by agreement of the parties. To the extent that any such party did not timely file a Cure Objection by [●], 2024 at [●]:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) (the “Cure Objection Deadline”), such party shall be deemed to have consented to: (i) the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contract to which such party is a counterparty and (ii) the Cure Cost applicable to such counterparty’s Assigned Contract, as set forth on the Cure Notices (except as otherwise agreed by the Debtors and the Purchaser).

G. Corporate Authority. (i) The Debtors have full corporate power and authority to execute the APA and all other documents contemplated thereby, and the Debtors’ sale of the Acquired Assets has been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action, (ii) the Debtors have all of the corporate power and authority necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the APA, (iii) the Debtors have taken all corporate actions necessary to authorize and approve the APA and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby, and (iv) no consents or approvals, other than those expressly provided for in the APA, are required for the Debtors or the Purchaser to consummate such transactions.

H. The APA was not entered into for the purpose of hindering, delaying, or defrauding creditors under the Bankruptcy Code or under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia. Neither the Debtors nor the Purchaser are entering into the transactions contemplated by the APA fraudulently for the purpose of statutory and common law fraudulent conveyance and fraudulent transfer claims.

I. The Debtors are the sole and lawful owners of the Acquired Assets. Subject to sections 363(f) and 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of each of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser, in accordance with the APA will be, as of the Closing Date (as defined in the APA), a legal, valid, and effective transfer of the Acquired Assets, which transfer vests or will vest the Purchaser with all right, title, and interest of the Debtors to the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Claims and Encumbrances. “Claims,” as used herein, shall include, but not be limited to, all debts arising under, relating to, or in connection with any act of the Debtors, or claims, liabilities, obligations, demands, guaranties, options, rights, contractual commitments, restrictions, restrictive covenants, covenants not to compete, rights to refunds, escheat obligations, interests, and matters of any kind and nature, whether arising prior to or subsequent to the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, and whether imposed by agreement applicable law, equity, or otherwise (including, without limitation, rights with respect to Claims and Encumbrances: (i) that purport to give to any party a right of setoff or recoupment against, or a right or option to effect any forfeiture, modification, profit sharing interest, right of first refusal, purchase or repurchase right or option, or termination of, the Debtors’ or the Purchaser’s interests in the Acquired Assets, or any similar rights, (ii) in respect of taxes owed by the Debtors for periods prior to the Closing Date, including, but not limited to, sales, income, use, or any other type of tax, or (iii) in respect of restrictions, rights of first refusal, charges, or interests of any kind or nature, if any, including, without limitation, any restriction of use, voting, transfer, receipt of income, or other exercise of any attributes of ownership) relating to, accruing, or arising any time prior to the Closing Date, with the exception of the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances.

J. Sale in Best Interests of the Debtors' Estates. Good and sufficient reasons for approval of the APA and the transactions to be consummated in connection therewith have been articulated, and the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates. The Debtors have demonstrated both: (i) good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications; (ii) compelling circumstances for the Sale other than in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, outside of a plan of reorganization, in that, among other things, the immediate consummation of the Sale to Purchaser is necessary and appropriate to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates and (iii) any other transaction, including, without limitation, pursuant to a Chapter 11 plan, would not have yielded as favorable an economic result.

K. The Sale must be approved and consummated promptly in order to preserve the viability of the Debtors' business as a going concern and to maximize the value of the Debtors' estates. Time is of the essence in consummating the Sale. Given all of the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases and the adequacy and fair value of the Purchase Price, the proposed Sale constitutes a reasonable and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and should be approved.

L. The consummation of the Sale and the assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts are legal, valid, and properly authorized under all applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(f), 363(m), and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and all of the applicable requirements of such sections have been complied with in respect of the transaction.

M. The Sale of the Acquired Assets outside a Chapter 11 plan pursuant to the Purchase Agreement neither impermissibly restructures the rights of the Debtor's creditors nor impermissibly dictates the terms of a Chapter 11 plan of the Debtor. The Sale does not constitute a sub rosa plan.

N. Good Faith of Purchaser and Debtors. The APA was negotiated, proposed, and entered into by the Debtors and the Purchaser without collusion, in good faith, and as the result of arm's-length bargaining positions and is substantively and procedurally fair to all parties. The Purchaser is not an "insider" of the Debtors, as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code. Neither the Debtors nor the Purchaser have engaged in any conduct that would cause or permit the APA to be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically, the Purchaser has not acted in a collusive manner with any person and the Purchase Price was not controlled by any agreement among bidders. The Purchaser is purchasing the Acquired Assets, in accordance with the APA, in good faith, and is a good faith purchaser within the meaning of section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and is therefore entitled to all of the protections afforded by such provision. As demonstrated by: (i) any testimony and other evidence proffered or adduced at the Sale Hearing and (ii) the representations of counsel made on the record at the Sale Hearing, substantial marketing efforts and a competitive sale process were conducted in accordance with the Bidding Procedures Order and, among other things: (a) the Debtors and the Purchaser complied with the provisions in the Bidding Procedures Order; (b) the Purchaser agreed to subject its bid to the competitive bidding procedures set forth in the Bidding Procedures Order; (c) the Purchaser in no way induced or caused the Chapter 11 filing by the Debtors; and (d) all payments to be made by the Purchaser in connection with the Sale have been disclosed.

O. Highest or Otherwise Best Offer. The Bidding Procedures are reasonable, appropriate and represent the best available method for conducting the sale process in a manner that maximizes value for the benefit of the Debtors' estates. The Debtors' marketing and sales process with respect to the Acquired Assets in accordance with the Bidding Procedures afforded a full, fair, and reasonable opportunity for any Person to make a higher or otherwise better offer to purchase the Acquired Assets. The Debtors conducted a marketing process in accordance with, and have otherwise complied in all respects with, the Bidding Procedures and the Bidding Procedures Order. A reasonable opportunity has been given to any interested party to make a higher or otherwise better offer for the Acquired Assets. The APA constitutes the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets and will provide a greater recovery for the Debtors' estates than would be provided by any other available alternative. The Debtors' determination that the APA constitutes the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets is a valid and sound exercise of their fiduciary duties and constitutes a valid and sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

P. Consideration. The consideration provided by Purchaser pursuant to the APA: (a) is fair and reasonable, (b) is the highest or otherwise best offer for the Acquired Assets, and (c) constitutes reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration (as those terms are defined in each of the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act (formally the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act), Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, and section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia. No other person or entity or group of entities has offered to purchase the Acquired Assets for greater economic value to the Debtors' estates than the Purchaser. Approval of the Motion, the APA, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereby is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates.

Q. No Successor. The transactions contemplated under the APA do not amount to a consolidation, merger, or de facto merger of the Purchaser and the Debtors and/or the Debtors' estates; there is not substantial continuity between the Purchaser and the Debtors; there is no continuity of enterprise between the Debtors and the Purchaser; the Purchaser is not a mere continuation of the Debtors or their estates; and the Purchaser is not a successor or assignee of the Debtors or their estates for any purpose, including, but not limited to, under any federal, state, or local statute or common law, or revenue, pension, ERISA, tax, labor, employment, environmental, escheat, or unclaimed property laws, or other law, rule, or regulation (including, without limitation, filing requirements under any such laws, rules, or regulations), or under any products liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule, or regulation or doctrine or common law, or under any product warranty liability law or doctrine with respect to the Debtors' liability under such law, rule or regulation, or doctrine, and Purchaser and its affiliates shall have no liability or obligation under the Workers Adjustment and Retraining Act (the “WARN Act”), 929 U.S.C. §§ 210 et seq. or the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act and shall not be deemed to be a “successor employer” for purposes of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, the Americans with Disability Act, the Family Medical Leave Act, the National Labor Relations Act, the Labor Management Relations Act, the Older Workers Benefit Protection Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Civil Rights Act of 1866 (42 U.S.C. 1981), the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, the Multiemployer Pension Protection Act, the Pension Protection Act, and/or the Fair Labor Standards Act. Except for the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances, the: (i) transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser and (ii) assumption and assignment to Purchaser of the Assigned Contracts do not and will not subject the Purchaser to any liability whatsoever with respect to the operation of the Debtors’ business before the Closing Date or by reason of such transfer under the laws of the United States, any state, territory, or possession thereof, or the District of Columbia, based on, in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, any theory of law or equity, including, without limitation, any theory of equitable law, including, without limitation, any theory of antitrust or successor or transferee liability.

R. Free and Clear. The conditions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied in full, and therefore, the Debtors may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of any Claims and Encumbrances in, to, or against the Acquired Assets, other than as expressly contemplated by the APA. The Purchaser would not have entered into the APA and would not consummate the transactions contemplated thereby if the Sale to the Purchaser and the assumption of any Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances by the Purchaser were not free and clear of all Claims and Encumbrances other than the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances. The Debtor may sell the Acquired Assets free and clear of any Claims and Encumbrances of any kind or nature whatsoever (including any Claims or Encumbrances arising from the 6.00% Convertible Senior Secured Notes due December 1, 2024, dated as of December 23, 2019 (the “Senior Secured Notes”) because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)-(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. Each entity with an

Encumbrance, lien, claim, or interest in the Acquired Assets to be transferred on the Closing Date:

- (i) has, subject to the terms and conditions of this Sale Order, consented to the Sale or is deemed to have consented to the Sale;
- (ii) could be compelled in a legal or equitable proceeding to accept money satisfaction of such Encumbrance, lien, claim, or interest; or
- (iii) otherwise falls within the provisions of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. Those holders of Encumbrances who did not object to the Motion are deemed, subject to the terms of this Sale Order, to have consented pursuant to section 363(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. All holders of Encumbrances are adequately protected by having their Encumbrances attach to the cash proceeds received by the Debtors that are ultimately attributable to the property against or in which such Encumbrances are asserted, subject to the terms of such Encumbrances with the same validity, force, and effect, and in the same order of priority, which such Encumbrances now have against the Acquired Assets or their proceeds, if any, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses the Debtors or their estates, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto.

S. Cure/Adequate Assurance. The assumption and assignment of the Assigned Contracts pursuant to the terms of this Sale Order are integral to the APA and are in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates, and represents the reasonable exercise of sound and prudent business judgment by the Debtors. Payment of the Cure Costs by the Debtors shall, to the extent necessary, cure or provide adequate assurance of cure, within the meaning of sections 365(b)(1)(A) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, to the extent necessary, provide compensation or adequate assurance of compensation to any party for any actual pecuniary loss to such party resulting from a default prior to the date hereof with respect to the Assigned Contracts, within the meaning of sections 365(b)(1)(B) and 365(f)(2)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Purchaser's financial wherewithal to consummate the transactions contemplated by the APA and the evidence presented at the Sale Hearing demonstrating the Purchaser's ability to perform the obligations under the Assigned Contracts after the Closing Date shall constitute adequate assurance of future performance within the meaning of sections 365(b)(1)(C), 365(b)(3) (to the extent applicable), and 365(f)(2)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

T. Any objections to the assumption and assignment of any of the Assigned Contracts by Purchaser in accordance with the APA are hereby overruled. To the extent that any counterparty failed to object to the proposed Cure Costs timely, such counterparty is deemed to have consented to such Cure Costs and the assumption and assignment of its respective Assigned Contract(s) to the Purchaser in accordance with the APA.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion is Granted. The Motion and the relief requested therein is GRANTED as set forth herein.

2. Objections Overruled. Any objections to the entry of this Sale Order or the relief granted herein and requested in the Motion that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled as announced to the Court at the Sale Hearing (the full record of which is incorporated herein by reference), by stipulation filed with the Court, or by representation by the Debtors in a separate pleading, and all reservations of rights included therein, if any, are hereby denied and overruled on the merits with prejudice.

3. Approval. The APA, and all other ancillary documents, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, are hereby approved in all respects. Pursuant to sections 363(b) and 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors and the Purchaser are hereby authorized to: (a) take any and all actions necessary to effectuate the Sale, including with respect to regulatory actions; (b) execute any additional instruments or documents that may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to implement the APA, provided that such additional documents do not materially change its terms adversely to the Debtors' estates; (c) consummate the Sale in accordance with the terms and conditions of the APA and the instruments to the APA contemplated thereby; and (d) execute and deliver, perform under, consummate, implement, and close fully the transactions contemplated by the APA, including: (1) the assumption and assignment to Purchaser (in accordance with the APA) of the Assigned Contracts, together with all additional instruments and documents that may be reasonably necessary or desirable to implement the APA and the Sale, (2) the execution and delivery of all appropriate agreements or other documents of merger, consolidation, sale, restructuring, conversion, disposition, transfer, dissolution, or liquidation containing terms that are consistent with the terms of the APA and that satisfy the requirements of applicable law, (3) the execution and delivery of appropriate instruments of transfer, assignment, assumption, or delegation of any asset, property, right, liability, debt, or obligation on terms consistent with the terms of the APA, and (4) the filing of appropriate certificates or articles of incorporation, reincorporation, merger, consolidation, conversion, or dissolution pursuant to applicable state Law. The Purchaser shall not be required to seek or obtain relief from the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code to enforce any of its remedies under the APA or any other Sale-related document. The automatic stay imposed by section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is modified solely to the extent necessary to implement the preceding sentence and the other provisions of this Sale Order; provided, however, that this Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction over any and all disputes with respect thereto.

4. This Sale Order shall be binding in all respects upon the Debtors, their estates, all creditors of, and holders of equity interests in, the Debtors, any holders of Claims or Encumbrances or other interests in, against, or on all or any portion of the Acquired Assets (whether known or unknown), the Purchaser, and all successors and assigns of the Purchaser, the Acquired Assets, and any trustees, if any, subsequently appointed in the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases or upon a conversion to Chapter 7 under the Bankruptcy Code of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases. This Sale Order and the APA shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, the Purchaser, and the respective successors and assigns of each of the foregoing.

5. Transfer of Acquired Assets Free and Clear of Claims and Encumbrances. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(b), and 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized to transfer the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the APA, and such transfer shall constitute a legal, valid, binding, and effective transfer of such Acquired Assets and shall vest the Purchaser with title in and to the Acquired Assets and, other than the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances, the Purchaser shall take title to and possession of the Acquired Assets free and clear of all Claims and Encumbrances and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, but not limited to, successor or successor-in-interest liability and Claims in respect of the Excluded Liabilities, with all such Claims, Encumbrances and other interests to attach to the cash proceeds received by the Debtors that are ultimately attributable to the property against or in which such Claims or Encumbrances are asserted, subject to the terms of such Claims or Encumbrances with the same validity, force, and effect, and in the same order of priority, which such Claims or Encumbrances now have against the Acquired Assets or their proceeds, if any, subject to any rights, claims, and defenses the Debtors or their estates, as applicable, may possess with respect thereto.

6. Unless otherwise expressly included in the definition of “Assumed Liabilities” or “Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances” in the APA, the Purchaser shall not be responsible for any Claims or Encumbrances, including in respect of the following: (a) any labor or employment agreements; (b) any mortgages, deeds of trust, and security interests; (c) any pension, welfare, compensation, or other employee benefit plans, agreements, practices, and programs, including, without limitation, any pension plan of the Debtor; (d) any other employee, worker’s compensation, occupational disease, or unemployment or temporary disability related claim, including, without limitation, claims that might otherwise arise under or pursuant to: (i) the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, as amended, (ii) the Fair Labor Standards Act, (iii) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (iv) the Federal Rehabilitation Act of 1973, (v) the National Labor Relations Act, (vi) the WARN Act, (vii) the Age Discrimination in Employment Act, as amended, (viii) the Americans with Disabilities Act, (ix) the Family Medical Leave Act, (x) the Labor Management Relations Act, (xi) the Multiemployer Pension Protection Act, (xii) the Pension Protection Act, (xiii) the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985, (xiv) the Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act, (xv) state discrimination laws, (xvi) state unemployment compensation laws or any other similar state laws, or (xvii) any other state or federal benefits or claims relating to any employment with the Debtor or any of its respective predecessors; (e) any bulk sales or similar law; (f) any tax statutes or ordinances, including, without limitation, the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any state or local tax laws; (g) any escheat or unclaimed property laws; (h) to the extent not included in the foregoing, any of the Excluded Liabilities under the APA; and (i) any theories of successor or transferee liability.

7. All persons and entities that are in possession of some or all of the Acquired Assets on the Closing Date are directed to surrender possession of such Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the APA on the Closing Date or at such time thereafter as the Purchaser may request. On the Closing Date, each of the Debtors' creditors is authorized to execute such documents and take all other actions as may be reasonably necessary to release its Claims, Encumbrances or other interests in the Acquired Assets, if any, as such Encumbrances may have been recorded or may otherwise exist.

8. If any person or entity, including Wilmington Trust, National Association, in its capacity as collateral agent under the Senior Secured Notes, and any successor agent thereto (the "Collateral Agent"), that has filed statements or other documents or agreements evidencing Claims, Encumbrances or other interests on, against, or in, all or any portion of the Acquired Assets (other than statements or documents with respect to the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances) shall not have delivered to the Debtors prior to the Closing Date, in proper form for filing and executed by the appropriate parties, termination statements, instruments of satisfaction, releases of liens and easements, and any other documents necessary for the purpose of documenting the release of all Claims, Encumbrances or other interests that the person or entity has or may assert with respect to all or any portion of the Acquired Assets, the Debtors and the Purchaser are hereby authorized, to execute and file such statements, instruments, releases, and other documents on behalf of such person or entity with respect to the Acquired Assets.

9. On the Closing Date, this Sale Order shall be construed and shall constitute for any and all purposes a full and complete general assignment, conveyance, and transfer to the Purchaser of the Acquired Assets. This Sale Order is and shall be effective as a determination that, on the Closing Date, all Claims and Encumbrances or other interest of any kind or nature whatsoever existing as to the Acquired Assets prior to the Closing Date, other than the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances, shall have been unconditionally released, discharged, and terminated, and that the conveyances described herein have been effected. This Sale Order shall be binding upon and govern the acts of all persons and entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, registrars of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials, and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register, or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any lease, and each of the foregoing persons and entities is hereby authorized to accept for filing any and all of the documents and instruments necessary and appropriate to consummate the transactions contemplated by the APA. A certified copy of this Sale Order may be filed with the appropriate clerk and/or recorded with the recorder to act to cancel any Claims, Encumbrances and other interests of record except those assumed as Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances.

10. Prohibition of Actions Against Purchaser. Except for the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances expressly identified in the APA, or as otherwise expressly provided in this Sale Order or the APA, the Purchaser shall not have any liability or other obligation of the Debtors arising under or related to any of the Acquired Assets or Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances, including, but not limited to, any liability for any Claims or Encumbrances, whether known or unknown as of the Closing Date, now existing or hereafter arising, whether fixed or contingent, with respect to the Debtors or any obligations of the Debtors, including, but not limited to, liabilities on account of any taxes arising, accruing, or payable under, out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the operation of the Debtors' business prior to the Closing Date.

11. Except with respect to the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances, or as otherwise expressly provided for in this Sale Order or the APA, all persons and entities, including, but not limited to, all debt holders, equity security holders, governmental, tax, and regulatory authorities, lenders, trade creditors, litigation claimants, and other creditors, holding or purporting to hold Claims, Encumbrances or other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever against or in all or any portion of the Acquired Assets (whether legal or equitable, secured or unsecured, matured or unmatured, contingent or non-contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, senior or subordinate), arising under or out of, in connection with, or in any way relating to the Debtors, the Acquired Assets, the operation of the Debtors' business prior to the Closing Date, or the transfer of the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the APA, are hereby forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from asserting against the Purchaser, its successors or assigns, its property or the Acquired Assets, such persons' or entities' Claims, Encumbrances or other interests in and to the Acquired Assets, including, without limitation, the following actions: (a) commencing or continuing in any manner any action or other proceeding against the Purchaser, its successors, assets, or properties; (b) enforcing, attaching, collecting, or recovering, in any manner, any judgment, award, decree, or order against the Purchaser, its successors, or their assets or properties; (c) creating, perfecting, or enforcing any Claims, Encumbrances or other interests against the Purchaser, its successors, its assets, or its properties; (d) asserting any setoff, right of subrogation, or recoupment of any kind against any obligation due the Purchaser or its successors; (e) commencing or continuing any action, in any manner or place, that does not comply or is inconsistent with the provisions of this Sale Order or other orders of the Court, or the agreements or actions contemplated or taken in respect thereof; or (f) revoking, terminating, or failing or refusing to transfer or renew any license, permit, or authorization to operate any of the Acquired Assets or conduct any of the businesses operated with the Acquired Assets.

12. To the greatest extent available under applicable law, the Purchaser shall be authorized, as of the Closing Date, to operate under any license, permit, registration, and governmental authorization or approval of the Debtor with respect to the Acquired Assets to the extent transferred in the APA, and all such licenses, permits, registrations, and governmental authorizations and approvals are deemed to have been transferred to Purchaser as of the Closing Date.

13. All persons and entities are hereby forever prohibited and enjoined from taking any action that would adversely affect or interfere with the ability of the Debtors to sell and transfer the Acquired Assets to the Purchaser in accordance with the terms of the APA and this Sale Order.

14. The Purchaser has given substantial consideration under the APA for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates. The consideration given by the Purchaser shall constitute valid and valuable consideration for the releases of any potential Claims, Encumbrances and other interests pursuant to this Sale Order, which releases shall be deemed to have been given in favor of the Purchaser by all holders of Encumbrances against or interests in, or Claims against, the Debtors or any of the Acquired Assets, other than the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances. The consideration provided by the Purchaser for the Acquired Assets under the APA is fair and reasonable and may not be avoided under section 363(n) of the Bankruptcy Code.

15. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall prevent (a) the Debtors from pursuing an action against the Purchaser pursuant to and in accordance with the APA or the related documents, or (b) any administrative agencies, governmental, tax, and regulatory authorities, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials from properly exercising their police and regulatory powers.

16. Assumption and Assignment of Contracts. The Debtors are hereby authorized, in accordance with sections 105(a) and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, to: (a) assume and assign to the Purchaser, in accordance with the APA, effective upon the Closing Date, the Assigned Contracts free and clear of all Claims, Encumbrances and other interests of any kind or nature whatsoever (other than the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances) and (b) execute and deliver to the Purchaser such documents or other instruments as Purchaser deems may be reasonably necessary to assign and transfer the Assigned Contracts and the Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances to Purchaser in accordance with the APA.

17. With respect to the Assigned Contracts: (a) each Assigned Contract is an executory contract under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) the Debtors may assume each of the Assigned Contracts in accordance with section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (c) the Debtors may assign each Assigned Contract in accordance with sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and any provisions in any Assigned Contract that prohibit or condition the assignment of such Assigned Contract or allow the party to such Assigned Contract to terminate, recapture, impose any penalty, condition, renewal, or extension, or modify any term or condition upon the assignment of such Assigned Contract, constitute unenforceable anti-assignment provisions which are void and of no force and effect; (d) all other requirements and conditions under sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code for the assumption by the Debtors and assignment to the Purchaser of each Assigned Contract, in accordance with the APA, have been satisfied; (e) the Assigned Contracts shall be transferred and assigned to, and following the Closing Date, remain in full force and effect for the benefit of the Purchaser in accordance with the APA, notwithstanding any provision in any such Assigned Contract (including those of the type described in sections 365(b)(2) and (f) of the Bankruptcy Code) that prohibits, restricts, or conditions such assignment or transfer and, pursuant to section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors shall be relieved from any further liability with respect to the Assigned Contracts after such assignment to and assumption by the Purchaser in accordance with the APA; and (f) upon the Closing Date, in accordance with sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Purchaser shall be fully and irrevocably vested in all right, title, and interest of each Assigned Contract.

18. All defaults or other obligations of the Debtors under the Assigned Contracts arising or accruing prior to the Closing (without giving effect to any acceleration clauses or any default provisions of the kind specified in section 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) shall be cured on the Closing Date or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable by payment of the Cure Costs by the Debtors. To the extent that any counterparty to an Assigned Contract did not object to its Cure Costs by the Cure Objection Deadline, such counterparty is deemed to have consented to such Cure Costs and the assumption and assignment of its respective Assigned Contract(s) to Purchaser in accordance with the APA.

19. Unless otherwise represented by the Debtors in a separate pleading, in open court at the Sale Hearing, or pursuant to a contract amendment entered into by the Debtors, the Purchaser, and the appropriate contract or lessor counterparty (any such amendment being deemed approved by this Sale Order), the Cure Notices reflect the sole amounts necessary under section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to cure all monetary defaults under the Assigned Contracts, and no other amounts are or shall be due in connection with the assumption by the Debtors and the assignment to the Purchaser of the Assigned Contracts in accordance with the APA.

20. Upon the Debtors' assignment of the Assigned Contracts to the Purchaser under the provisions of this Sale Order and any additional orders of this Court and payment of any Cure Costs by the Debtor, no default shall exist under any Assigned Contract, and no counterparty to any Assigned Contract shall be permitted: (a) to declare a default by the Purchaser under such Assigned Contract or (b) otherwise take action against the Purchaser as a result of Debtors' financial condition, bankruptcy, or failure to perform any of its obligations under the relevant Assigned Contract. Each non-Debtor party to an Assigned Contract hereby is also forever barred, estopped, and permanently enjoined from: (i) asserting against the Debtors or the Purchaser, or the property of any of them, any default or claim arising out of any indemnity obligation or warranties for acts or occurrences arising prior to or existing as of the Closing, including those constituting Excluded Liabilities or, against the Purchaser, any counterclaim, defense, setoff, recoupment, or any other Claim asserted or assertable against the Debtors and (ii) imposing or charging against the Purchaser any rent accelerations, assignment fees, increases, or any other fees as a result of the Debtors' assumption and assignment to the Purchaser of any Assigned Contract in accordance with the APA. The validity of such assumption and assignment of each Assigned Contract shall not be affected by any dispute between the Debtors and any non-Debtor party to an Assigned Contract relating to such contract's respective Cure Costs.

21. Except as provided in the APA or this Sale Order, after the Closing, the Debtors and their estates shall have no further liabilities or obligations with respect to any Assumed Liabilities or Permitted Post-Closing Encumbrances, and all holders of any Claims, Encumbrances and other interests are forever barred and estopped from asserting such Claims, Encumbrances and other interests against the Debtors, their successors or assigns, their property, or their assets or estates. The failure of the Debtors or the Purchaser to enforce at any time one or more terms or conditions of any Assigned Contract shall not be a waiver of such terms or conditions, or of the Debtors' and the Purchaser's rights to enforce every term and condition of the Assigned Contracts.

22. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary and subject to the APA, the Purchaser may remove any contract from the list of Assigned Contracts (and thereby exclude such contract from the definition of Assigned Contracts) pursuant to the procedures, and by the applicable deadline, set forth in the APA. The Debtors shall file a schedule of the final Assigned Contracts reasonably promptly after the Closing Date.

23. Good Faith. The transactions contemplated by the APA are undertaken by the Purchaser without collusion and in good faith, as that term is used in section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code and, accordingly, the reversal or modification on appeal of this Sale Order approving the Sale under subsection (b) or (c) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not affect the validity of the Sale under this Sale Order with Purchaser, which purchased the Acquired Assets in good faith, whether or not the Purchaser knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless this Sale Order and Sale were stayed pending such appeal. The Purchaser is a good faith purchaser of the Acquired Assets, and is entitled to all of the benefits and protections afforded by section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

24. Failure to Specify Provisions. The failure specifically to include any particular provisions of the APA in this Sale Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provisions, it being the intent of the Court that the APA be authorized and approved in its entirety; provided, however, that this Sale Order shall govern if there is any inconsistency between the APA (including all ancillary documents executed in connection therewith) and this Sale Order. Likewise, all of the provisions of this Sale Order are nonseverable and mutually dependent.

25. Non-Material Modifications. The APA and any related agreements, documents, or other instruments may be modified, amended, or supplemented by the parties thereto, in a writing signed by such parties, and in accordance with the terms thereof, without further order of the Court, provided that any such modification, amendment or supplement does not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors' estates.

26. Amounts Payable by the Debtors. Any amounts payable by the Debtors under the agreements or any of the documents delivered by the Debtors in connection with the APA shall be paid in the manner provided in the APA and the Bidding Procedures Order, without further order of this Court, shall be allowed administrative claims in an amount equal to such payments in accordance with sections 503(b) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall have the other protections provided in the Bidding Procedures Order, and shall not be discharged, modified, or otherwise affected by any reorganization plan for the Debtors, except by an express agreement with the Purchaser, its successors, or assigns.

27. Consent to Distribution of Cash Consideration. Upon and following the closing of the APA, the DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition Secured Parties, DIP Agent (each as defined in the DIP Orders (as defined below)) and Collateral Agent hereby consent to the use of all cash actually received by the Debtors upon closing of a Sale including, without limitation, payment of the aggregate amount of Cure Costs due in accordance with this Sale Order and the APA (the "Net Sale Proceeds") as follows:

- (i) First; an amount equal to the following, without duplication, if such amount is a positive sum, shall be deposited into an account maintained by the Debtors, subject to the control of the DIP Agent under the interim and/or final orders entered in these Chapter 11 Cases approving the Debtors' motion for postpetition financing and the use of cash collateral (the "DIP Orders"):
 - (I) an amount equal to all accrued but unpaid administrative expenses and other priority claims for payment of such claims and expenses subject to the terms and conditions of the DIP Orders; plus

- (II) an amount equal to any other projected post-Sale expenses as may be necessary or appropriate to confirm and effectuate a Chapter 11 plan from the closing of such Sale through and including the projected “Effective Date” of a Chapter 11 plan; less
- (III) the Debtors’ unrestricted cash balance as of such date, such amounts set forth in the foregoing clauses (I)-(III), shall be determined in good faith by the Debtors, “Required Lenders” under the DIP Credit Agreement (as defined in the DIP Orders) and Prepetition Secured Parties holding at least a majority of the principal amount outstanding of the Senior Secured Notes; and

- (ii) second; after making the payments and distributions set forth in Section 27(i), the remaining Net Sale Proceeds shall be paid by the Debtors upon the consummation of the Sale and in accordance with the DIP Orders (i) first, to the DIP Agent on behalf of the DIP Lenders, and shall be immediately applied toward the DIP Obligations (as defined in the DIP Orders) until such DIP Obligations have been satisfied in full and (ii) second, to the extent any Net Sale Proceeds remain after payment in full of the DIP Obligations, to the Collateral Agent on behalf of the holders of the Senior Secured Notes, and shall be immediately applied toward the Prepetition Secured Obligations (as defined in the DIP Orders).

Consistent with the provisions of paragraph 5 of this Sale Order, upon and following the closing of the APA, the liens of the DIP Agent and the Collateral Agent and the other creditors secured by the Acquired Assets, if any, shall be deemed released with such liens to attach to the Net Sale Proceeds in the same priority and to the same extent as existed on the Acquired Assets prior to the consummation of the Sale. Nothing contained in this paragraph 27 including, without limitation, the inability of the Debtors and the Required

Lenders to reach agreement as set forth above, shall impact, alter, or affect the Debtors' obligations to consummate the transactions contemplated by the APA in accordance with the terms thereof and the other provisions of this Sale Order.

28. Subsequent Plan Provisions. Nothing contained in any Chapter 11 plan confirmed in the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases or any order confirming any such plan or in any other order in these Chapter 11 Cases (including any order entered after any conversion of one or more these cases to a case or cases under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code) or any related proceeding subsequent to entry of this Sale Order shall alter, conflict with, or derogate from, the provisions of the APA or this Sale Order.

29. No Stay of Order. Notwithstanding the provisions of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d), and pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 7062 and 9014, this Sale Order shall not be stayed for fourteen (14) days after the entry hereof, but shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon issuance hereof. Time is of the essence in closing the transactions referenced herein, and the Debtors and the Purchaser intend to close the Sale as soon as practicable. Any party objecting to this Sale Order must exercise due diligence in filing an appeal and pursuing a stay, or risk its appeal being foreclosed as moot.

30. Calculation of Time. All time periods set forth in this Sale Order shall be calculated in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 9006(a).

31. Further Assurances. From time to time, as and when requested by any party, each party shall execute and deliver, or cause to be executed and delivered, all such documents and instruments and shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further or other actions as such other party may reasonably deem necessary or desirable to consummate the transactions contemplated by the APA, including such actions as may be necessary to vest, perfect, or confirm, of record or otherwise, in Purchaser its right, title, and interest in and to the Acquired Assets.

32. Retention of Jurisdiction. This Court retains jurisdiction, pursuant to its statutory powers under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2), to, among other things, interpret, implement, and enforce the terms and provisions of this Sale Order and the APA, all amendments thereto, and any waivers and consents thereunder, and each of the agreements executed in connection therewith to which any Debtor is a party or which has been assigned by the Debtors to the Purchaser in accordance with the APA, and to adjudicate, if necessary, any and all disputes concerning or relating in any way to the Sale, including, but not limited to, retaining jurisdiction to (a) interpret, implement, and enforce the provisions of this Sale Order and the APA, (b) adjudicate, if necessary, any and all disputes concerning or relating in any way to the Sale, (c) protect the Purchaser against any Claims, Encumbrances or other interests in the Debtors or the Acquired Assets of any kind or nature whatsoever, attaching to the proceeds of the Sale, and (d) enter any orders under section 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Assigned Contracts.

2. I am not being compensated separately for this testimony other than through payments received by Leerink Partners LLC (“Leerink Partners”) as a professional proposed to be retained by the Debtors. Except as otherwise indicated herein, all of the facts set forth in this Declaration are based upon my personal knowledge, my review of relevant documents, information provided to me by Leerink Partners employees working with me or under my supervision or information provided to me by the Debtors. If called upon to testify, I could and would testify to the facts set forth herein on that basis. I am authorized to submit this Declaration on behalf of the Debtors.

Professional Background and Qualifications

3. I am a Senior Managing Director in the healthcare investment banking group at Leerink Partners, an investment and financial advisory firm with principal offices at 53 State Street, Boston, MA 02110, as well as other locations in the United States. Leerink Partners is a full-service investment banking firm providing financial advisory services, including mergers and acquisitions and capital raising, to healthcare companies. Leerink Partners and its senior professionals have extensive experience advising pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies with respect to mergers and acquisitions and capital raising. Leerink Partners and its professionals are providing or have provided investment banking, financial advisory and other services in connection with the following chapter 11 cases, among others: In re Akumin, Inc., Case No 23-90827 (CML) (Bankr. S.D. Tex. Nov. 29, 2023); In re Egalet Corp., Case No. 18-12439 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan. 31, 2019); and In re Bostwick Laboratories, Inc., Case No. 17-10570 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. April 10, 2017).

4. I have been employed at Leerink Partners since January 2015. Prior to joining Leerink Partners, I was a Vice President in the healthcare group of Lazard, Inc. for approximately two years. Prior to joining Lazard, I worked at Wells Fargo Securities and Wachovia Securities. I graduated with a B.A. in economics from Wake Forest University.

5. I lead Leerink Partners' generic and specialty pharmaceuticals investment banking activities and have extensive experience advising pharmaceutical companies in mergers and acquisitions as well as debt and equity financing. I have more than 18 years of pharmaceutical related investment banking experience.

6. Leerink Partners has been working closely with the Debtors as their investment banker and financial advisor since April of 2023. Leerink Partners has rendered financial advisory and investment banking services to the Debtors in connection with the marketing the Company and its assets in the sale process since May of 2023. Additionally, Leerink Partners has worked closely with the Debtors' management and other professionals retained by the Debtors with respect to the Debtors' restructuring efforts and has become acquainted with the Debtors' product portfolio, business operations, capital structure, and liquidity needs.

The Marketing of the Assets

7. Leerink Partners has assisted the Debtors in connection with their exploration of a sale process as well as other restructuring and financing options. After considering these potential strategic alternatives, the Debtors, in consultation with their advisors, including Leerink Partners, Ducera Partners LLC, Baker & McKenzie, LLP ("Baker McKenzie"), and Ernst & Young LLP ("EY"), ultimately determined that a sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets would be the best way to maximize value for the benefit of the Debtors' stakeholders.

8. In the ten months leading up to the Petition Date, the Debtors, through their advisors Leerink Partners and Baker McKenzie, contacted and/or received inbound interest from 49 entities, including 45 potential strategic acquirors and 4 potential financial buyers. These entities represented a broad spectrum of potential counterparties, including (i) those that expressed interest in the Assets in the past, (ii) large, diversified pharmaceutical companies, (iii) small and mid-sized public specialty and generic pharmaceutical companies, (iv) privately-held specialty and generic pharmaceutical companies, (v) foreign pharmaceutical companies and (vi) private equity investors with experience in the pharmaceutical sector and/or healthcare bankruptcies and turnaround situations.

9. As discussed in the Declaration of Michael A. Gesser in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings (the "First Day Declaration"), the Debtors, with the assistance of their retained professionals, also reached out to the largest holders of the Debtors' secured debt, Highbridge and Deerfield. Based on discussions with those entities, approximately 30 of these parties, including Merz Pharmaceuticals LLC (the "Stalking Horse Bidder"), were provided confidential information regarding the Company's businesses after such parties executed Non-Disclosure Agreements with the Company.

10. Several of such parties, including Stalking Horse Bidder, expressed interest in consummating a transaction with the Company and were granted access to additional confidential information regarding the Assets, which included (i) virtual and in-person meetings with the Debtors' management team, (ii) access to a virtual data room populated with corporate, legal and financial information, and (iii) additional specific financial, operational, legal and product analyses that addressed topics identified by interested parties. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors have received multiple proposals (inclusive of the Stalking Horse Bid) to purchase all or a portion of the Assets. Based on my experience, I believe that the foregoing process was comprehensive, consistent with market practices, and reached a wide set of diverse parties who might be interested in investing in the Debtors' business or purchasing the Debtors' assets.

11. Immediately following the Petition Date, the Debtors, with the assistance of Leerink Partners and Baker McKenzie, intend to continue to market the Assets to potential buyers, including, without limitation, those potential buyers previously approached and/or who expressed interest earlier in the sale process, by (a) engaging potential buyers and investors that may have interest in bidding for the Assets, (b) delivering updated materials to such interested parties, and (c) managing and providing access to a virtual data room of confidential information on the Assets to interested parties. In this way, the Debtors, with the assistance of Leerink Partners, intend to maximize the number of potential acquirors that may participate as buyers at the Auction and, thereby, maximize the value of the Debtors' assets to be achieved through the sale process for the benefit of the Debtors' stakeholders.

The Stalking Horse Agreement

12. I assisted the Debtors, together with their other advisors, with the negotiation of the Stalking Horse Agreement. These negotiations, in my view, were conducted in good faith and on an arm's length basis. I am not aware of any inappropriate collusive conduct between the Stalking Horse Bidder and other bidders or any other similar conduct. As described in the Motion, the Stalking Horse Bidder's offer will also be subject to higher or otherwise better bids.

The Proposed Bid Protection Amounts

13. Based on my experience with sale transactions, as well as my involvement in the negotiations of various stalking horse agreements, I believe that the the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee are customary and usual terms for stalking horse agreements of this type and that the amounts are generally consistent with such amounts in comparable circumstances.

14. Additionally, the Expense Reimbursement Amount was a necessary condition imposed by the Stalking Horse Bidder to secure the Stalking Horse Bidder's commitment under the Stalking Horse Agreement. As described in the Motion, the Expense Reimbursement Amount represents approximately 1.5% of the Purchase Price that will be paid by the Stalking Horse Bidder, and is only payable upon the termination of the Stalking Horse Agreement pursuant to certain termination events. Moreover, as described in the Motion, the Debtors have advised that they do not intend to terminate the Stalking Horse Agreement if doing so would incur an obligation to pay the Expense Reimbursement Amount, unless the Debtors accept an alternative bid that provides for consideration that is greater than the consideration offered by the Stalking Horse Bidder by an amount sufficient to pay the Expense Reimbursement Amount and Break-Up Fee.

15. Additionally, the Break-Up Fee represents 3.5% of the Purchase Price to be paid by the Stalking Horse Bidder. The Break-Up Fee was negotiated in good faith and was necessary to secure the Stalking Horse Bidder's commitment under the Stalking Horse Agreement. In sum, the Debtors' ability to offer the Break-Up Fee enables them to ensure the sale of the Assets at a fair price and provides them with the opportunity to achieve a higher or otherwise better offer for such assets to the benefit to their estates.

16. Based on my experience, the Expense Reimbursement and Break-Up Fee are reasonable and appropriate in light of the size, nature, and complexity of the transaction and the efforts that will necessarily have been expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder.

17. In light of these circumstances, the Expense Reimbursement and Break-Up Fee are (a) commensurate to the real and substantial benefits conferred upon the Debtors' estates by the Stalking Horse Bidder; (b) reasonable and appropriate in light of the size and nature of the proposed Sale Transaction and comparable transactions, the commitments that have been made, the condition of the Assets, and the efforts that have been and will be expended by the Stalking Horse Bidder; and (c) necessary to induce the Stalking Horse Bidder to pursue the Sale Transaction and to continue to be bound by the Stalking Horse Agreement. Further, the Stalking Horse Agreement provisions relating to the Bid Protections (along with other provisions of the Stalking Horse Agreement) were (x) scrutinized by the Debtors' professionals, (y) reviewed with outside advisors through the marketing process, and (z) approved by the Debtors' board of directors.

The Bidding Procedures

18. Based on my experience, I believe that the proposed Bidding Procedures are designed with the intent to maximize the value received for the Assets by facilitating a competitive bidding process in which potential bidders are encouraged to participate and submit competing bids within the specified time frame. As described in the Motion, the proposed Bid Deadline requires bids for the purchase of the Assets to be delivered no later than 5:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on May 16, 2024. The Bid Deadline thus provides parties with 45 days to obtain information and formulate and submit a timely and informed competing bid to purchase some or all of the Assets. This period, moreover, is in addition to the time that a number of interested parties have already invested in due diligence prior to the commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases.

19. As described above and in the Motion, the Debtors' assets have been marketed over the approximately last ten months to 49 entities, including 45 potential strategic acquirors and 4 potential financial buyers, and substantial information regarding the Debtors' businesses has been made available to many of these parties during the M&A process to date. As described in the Motion, these marketing efforts are expected to continue following approval of the Bidding Procedures. In particular, as further described in the Motion, interested parties have been given access to additional confidential information regarding the Company's businesses after such parties executed non-disclosure agreements with the Company. Accordingly, numerous parties that may have an interest in bidding at the Auction have an existing base of knowledge and familiarity in the Assets, and in some cases have already conducted due diligence in connection therewith. Furthermore, as stated in the Motion, upon entry of the Bidding Procedures I understand that the Debtors intend to make available to potential bidders updated and additional information.

20. Given the duration and scope of the Debtors' prepetition marketing process, the due diligence conducted to date by potential interested parties, and the proposed continuing marketing process, it is my view, based on my experience, that the proposed post-petition sale process set forth in the Bidding Procedures, including, without limitation, the timeline set forth therein, is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances. At the Auction, moreover, as set forth in the proposed Bidding Procedures, the Debtors will have an opportunity to consider all competing offers and select the offer that they deem to be the highest or otherwise best offer for the Assets.

I, Byron Webster, pursuant to section 1746 of title 28 of the United States code hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.
